HIGH COURT OF EDO STATE

(CIVIL PROCEDURE) RULES, 2012

In exercise of the power conferred on me by Sections 274 and 315 of the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria, 1999 and Section 53 of the High Court Law Cap. 65 Volume III Laws of the defunct Bendel State of Nigeria, 1976 as made applicable to Edo State by virtue of Section 11 of States (Creation and Transitional Provisions) Decree No. 37 of 1991 (now Act), I CROMWELL OS -AMONYI IDAHOSA, Chief Judge of Edo State hereby make these Rules:

1. Rules of Civil Procedure

(1) The Civil Procedure Rules set out in the First Schedule hereinafter called "The Rules" shall be the rules of procedure to be followed in High Court of the State.

(2) Where no rules exist

Where a matter arises in which no provisions or no adequate provisions exist in rules, a court shall adopt a procedure as may do substantial justice between the parties concerned.

2. Construction of references under these Rules

(1) A reference in these Rules to anything done under these Rules include a reference to anything done before the commencement of these Rules under any enactment or rule of court ceasing to have effect on the commencement of these Rules.

(2) Except where the context otherwise requires, any reference in these Rules to any enactment shall be construed as a reference to that enactment as amended, extended or applied by or under any other enactment.

3. Forms

The Forms set out in the Appendix shall be used where applicable with such variations as the circumstances of a particular case may require.

4. Short title and commencement

These Rules may be cited as the High Court of Edo State (Civil Procedure) Rules, 2012 and shall come into effect on 1st January, 2012.

5. Cessation of application

The High Court (Civil Procedure) Rules, 1988 of the defunct Bendel State of Nigeria shall cease to apply to Edo State upon the coming into effect of these Rules.

Dated this 1st day of January, 2012.

HON. JUSTICE CROMWELL OSAMWONYI IDAHOSA

CHIEFJUDGE,

(ii) The absent persons are represented by a person under Rule 13 of this Order who so assents.

A Judge if satisfied that the compromise will be for the benefit of the absent persons and that it is expedient to exercise this power, may approve the compromise and order that such compromise shall be binding on the absent persons, and they shall be bound accordingly, except where the order has been obtained by fraud or non-disclosure of material facts.

15. Where there is no Personal Representative

(1) If in any proceedings, it appears to a Judge that any deceased person who was interested in the proceedings has no legal personal representative, the Judge may proceed in the absence of any person representing the estate of the deceased person, or may appoint some person to represent his estate for the purpose of the proceeding, on such notice to such persons (if any) as the Judge shall deem fit, either specifically or generally by public advertisement, and the order so made and any order consequent thereon shall bind the estate of the deceased person in the same manner in every respect as if a duly constituted legal personal representative of the deceased had been a party to the proceedings.

(2) Where a sole or sole surviving claimants or defendant in a proceeding dies and the cause of action survives but the person entitled to proceed fails to proceed, a Judge may on the application of either the deceased's Legal Practitioner or the opposing party order any person to take the place of the said deceased and proceed with the suit.

(3) In default of such application or where the person substituted fails to proceed, judgment may be entered for the defendant or as the case may be for the person against whom the proceedings might have been continued.

16. Proceedings not defeated by misjoinder or non-joinder

(1) No proceedings shall be defeated by reason of misjoinder or non-joinder of parties, and a Judge may deal with the matter in controversy so far as regards the rights and interest of the parties actually before him.

(2) A Judge, may at any stage of the proceedings, either upon or without the application of either party, and on such terms as may appear to the Judge to be just, order that the names of any parties improperly joined be struck out.

(3) A Judge may order that the names of any party who ought to have been joined or whose presence before the Court is necessary to effectually and completely adjudicate upon and settle the questions involved in the proceedings be added.

(4) No person under legal disability shall be added as a claimant suing without a guardian and no person shall be added as the guardian of a claimant under legal disability without his own consent in writing.

(5) Every party whose name is added as defendant shall be served with the originating processes or notice in the manner prescribed in these Rules or in such manner as may be prescribed by a Judge and the proceedings against such person shall be deemed to have begun on the service of such originating processes or notice.

17. Application to add or strike out

(1) Any application to add, strike out, substitute or vary the name of a claimant or defendant may be made to a Judge by motion.

(2) Where the application is to add a claimant or a defendant, the application shall be accompanied by the statement of claim or defence as the case may be, all the exhibits intended to be used and the depositions of all the witnesses:

Provided that where the application is to substitute a deceased party with another person the application may not be accompanied by the documents specified above.

18. Where defendant is added

Where a defendant is added or substituted, the originating process shall be amended accordingly and the claimant shall unless otherwise ordered by a Judge, file an amended originating process and cause the new defendant to be served in the same manner as the original defendant.

19. Third parties may be joined by any of the parties

(1) Where it appears to a Judge that any person not a party in the: proceedings may bear eventual liability either in whole or in part, the Judge may upon an ex-parte application allow that person to be joined as a third party by any of the Defendants. The application shall state the grounds for the applicant's belief that such third party may bear eventual liability.

(2) The Order and existing processes shall be served on the third party within the time prescribed for delivering of the defence.

20. Appearance by third party

Where a party is joined to any proceeding as a third party, he may after service enter appearance within 8 days or within 30 days if he resides or carries on business outside jurisdiction or within such further time as a Judge may order.

21. Default by third party

If a third party duly served with the order and all existing processes does not enter an appearance or makes default in filing any pleading, he shall be deemed to admit the validity of the claim and shall be bound by any judgment given in the action, whether by consent or otherwise.

22. Subsequent third party

A party joined as a third party in any proceedings may join any other party in the same manner as he was joined and the expression 'Third Party' shall apply to and include every person so joined.

23. Claim against co-defendant

A defendant may in his pleading make a claim against a co-defendant.

II Actions against Firms and Persons carrying on Business in names other than their own

24. Persons trading as firm

Any person carrying on business within the jurisdiction in a name, or style other than his own name, may sue or be sued in his own name or style as if it were a firm's name and so far as the nature of the case will permit, all rules relating to proceedings against firms shall apply.

25. Where change of interest, Court may make order enabling suit to proceed

(1) Where after the institution of a suit, any change or transmission of interest or liability occurs in relation to any party to the suit, or any party to the suit dies or becomes incapable of carrying on the suit, or the suit in any other way may become defective or incapable of being carried on, any person interested may obtain from the Court, any order requisite for curing the defect or enabling or compelling proper parties to carry on the proceedings.

(2) But any person served with such an order may, within such time as the Court in the order directs, apply to the Court to discharge or vary the order.

26. When suit does not abate

The death of a claimant or defendant shall not cause the suit to abate if the cause of action survives.

27. When cause of action survives

If there be two or more claimants or defendants and one of them dies, and if the cause of action survives the surviving claimant or claimants alone, or against the surviving defendant or defendants alone, the suit shall proceed at the instance of the surviving claimant or claimants, and against the surviving defendant or defendants.

28. When cause of action accrues to survivors

If there be two or more claimants and one of them dies, and if the cause of action shall not survive to the surviving claimant or claimants alone, but shall survive to them and the legal representative of the deceased claimant jointly, the Court may, on the application of the legal representative of the deceased claimant, enter the name of such representative in the place of such deceased claimant, and the suit, shall proceed at the instance of the surviving claimant or claimants and such legal representative of the deceased claimant. If no application shall be made to the Court by any person claiming to be the legal representative of the deceased claimant, the suit shall proceed at the instance of the surviving claimant or claimants; and the legal representative of the deceased claimant shall, after notice to appear has been served on him be presumed to be interested in, and shall be bound by the judgment given in the suit, in the same manner as if the suit had proceeded at his instance jointly with the surviving claimant or claimants, unless the Court shall see cause to direct otherwise.

29. Death of sole or surviving claimant

In case of the death of a sole claimant, or sole surviving claimant, the Court may, on the application of the legal representative of such claimant, enter the name of such representative in the place of such claimant in the suit, and the suit shall thereupon proceed. If no such application shall be made to the Court within what it may consider a reasonable time by any person claiming to be legal representative of the deceased sole claimant or sole surviving claimant, it shall be competent for the Court to make an order that the suit shall abate, and to award to the defendant the reasonable costs which he may incur in defending the suit, to be recovered from the estate of the deceased sole claimant or surviving claimant; or the Court may, if it thinks proper, on the application of the defendant and upon such terms as to costs as may seem just, make such order for bringing in the legal representative of the deceased sole claimant or surviving claimant, and for proceeding with the suit to a final determination of the matters in dispute, as may appear just and proper in the circumstances of the case.

30. Dispute as to legal representative

If any dispute arises as to who is the legal representative of a deceased claimant, it shall be competent for the Court either to stay the suit until the fact has been duly determined in another suit, or to decide at or before the hearing of the suit who shall be admitted to be such legal representative for the purpose of prosecuting that suit.

31. Death of one of several defendants or of a sole or surviving defendant

If there be two or more defendants and when one of them dies, the cause of action survives but does not survive against the surviving defendant or defendants alone, and also in the case of the death of a sole defendant, or sole surviving defendant, where the action survives, the claimant may make an application to the Court, specifying the name, description and place of abode of any person who the claimant alleges to be the legal representative of such defendant and whom he desires to be made the defendant in his stead; and the Court shall thereupon enter the name of such representative in the suit in the place of such defendant, and shall issue an order to him to appear on a day to be therein mentioned to defend the suit and the case shall thereupon proceed in the same manner as if such representative had originally been made a defendant, and had been a party to the former proceedings in the suit.

32. Bankruptcy of claimant

The bankruptcy of the claimant, in any suit which the assignee or trustee might maintain for the benefit of the creditors, shall not be a valid objection to the continuance of such suit, unless the assignee or trustee shall decline to continue the suit, or shall neglect or refuse to give security for the costs thereof, within such reasonable time as the Court may order. If the assignee or trustee neglects or refuses to continue the suit and to give such security within the time limited by the order, the defendant may, within eight days after such neglect or refusal, plead the bankruptcy of the claimant as a reason for abating the suit.

33. Legal practitioner of claimant to give notice of abatement

Where any cause or matter becomes abated or in the case of any such change of interest as is by these Rules provided for, the legal practitioner for the claimant or person having the conduct of the cause or matter, as the case may be, shall certify the fact to the Registrar, who shall cause an entry thereof to be made in the Cause Book opposite the name of such cause or matter.

34. Abated cause, etc, to be struck out

Where any cause or matter shall have been standing for one year in the Cause Book marked as "abated" or "standing over generally", such cause or matter, at the expiration of the year, shall be struck out of the Cause Book.

35. Acts may be done by legal practitioner or agent

Where by these Rules, any act may be done by any party in any proceedings, such act may be done either by the party in person, or by his legal practitioner, or by his agent (unless an agent is expressly barred under these Rules).

36. Committal for contempt of Court

(1) The power of the Court to punish for contempt of Court may be exercised by an order of committal.

(2) An order of committal may be made by the Court where contempt of Court:

(a) Is committed in connection with-

(i) any proceeding before the Court;

(ii) criminal Proceedings,

(b) is committed in the face of the Court, or consists of disobedience to an order of the Court or a breach of an undertaking to the Court; or

(c) is committed otherwise than in connection with any proceeding.

(3) Savings for power to commit without application for the purpose

Nothing in the foregoing provisions of this Order shall be taken as affecting the power of the Court to make an order of committal of its own motion against a person guilty of contempt of Court.

37. Definition

(1) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires, "writ of execution" includes a writ offierifacias, a writ of possession, a writ of delivery, a writ of sequestration and any further writ in aid of any of the aforementioned writs.

When leave to issue any writ of execution is necessary

2 -(1) A writ of execution to enforce a judgment or order may not be issued without the leave of the Court in following cases, that is to say where:

- (a) six years or more have elapsed since the date of the judgment order; or
- (b) any change has taken place, whether by death or otherwise, in the parties entitled or liable to execution under the judgment order; or
- (c) the judgment or order is against the assets of a deceased person coming to the hands of his executors or administrators after the date of the judgment or order, and it is sought to issue execution against the assets; or
- (d) under the judgment or order any person is entitled to relief subject to the fulfillment of any condition which it is alleged as been fulfilled; or
- (e) any goods sought to be seized under a writ of execution in the hand of a receiver appointed by the Court or a sequestrator.

(2) Sub-rule (1) of this rule is without prejudice to any enactment or rule by virtue of which a person is required to obtain the leave of the Court for the issuance of a writ of execution or to proceed to execution on or otherwise to the enforcement of a judgment or order.

(3) Where the Court grants leave, whether under this rule or otherwise, for the issuance of a writ of execution and the writ is not issued within one year after the date of the order granting such leave, the order shall cease to have effect, without prejudice, however, to the making of a fresh order.

Leave required for issuance of writ in aid of other writ

(3) A writ of execution in aid of any other writ of execution shall not be issued without the leave of the Court.

(4) Application for leave to issue writ

(1) An application for leave to issue a writ of execution may be made ex-parte unless the Court directs it to be made by summons.

(2) Such an application shall be supported by an affidavit:

(a) identifying the judgment or order to which the application relates and, if the judgment or order is for the payment of money, stating the amount originally due thereunder and the amount due thereunder at the date of the application;

(b) stating, where the case falls within rule 2(1) (a) of this Order, the reasons for the delay in enforcing the judgment or Order;

(c) stating, where the case falls within rule 2(1) (b) of this Order, the change which has taken place in the parties entitled or liable to execution since the date of the judgment or Order;

(d) stating, where the case falls within rule 2(1)b(c)or (d) of this Order, that a demand to satisfy the judgment or order was made on the person liable to satisfy it and that he has refused or failed to do so;

(e) giving such other information as is necessary to satisfy the Court that the applicant is entitled to proceed to execution on the judgment or order in question and that the person against whom it is sought to issue execution is liable to execute on it.

(3) The Court hearing the application, may grant leave in accordance with the application or may order that any issue or question, a decision on which is necessary to determine the rights of the parties, be tried in any manner in which any question of fact or law arising in an action may be tried and, in either case, may impose such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks just.

38. Attachment of debt due to judgment debtor

(1) Where a person (in this Order referred to as "the judgment creditor) has obtained a judgment or order for the payment by some other person (in this Order referred to as "the judgment debtor") of a sum of amount in value to at least N20,000 not being a judgment or order for the payment of money into Court, and any other person within the jurisdiction (in this Order referred to as "the garnishee") is indebted to the judgment debtor, the Court may, subject to the provisions of this Order and of any enactment, order the garnishee to pay the judgment creditor, the amount of any debt due or accruing to the judgment debtor from the garnishee, or as much thereof as is sufficient to satisfy that judgment or order and the costs of the garnishee proceedings.

(2) An order under this rule shall, in the first instance, be an order to show cause, specifying the time and place for further consideration of the matter and in the meantime, attaching such debt as is mentioned in sub-rule (1) or so much therefore as may be specified in the order, to answer the judgment or order mentioned therein and the costs of the garnishee proceedings.

(3) An order under this rule shall not require a payment which would reduce below N5,000 the amount standing in the name of the judgment debtor in an account with a building society or a credit union.

39. Application for order

An application for an order under Rule 1 of this Order shall be made ex-parte supported by an affidavit:

(1) stating the name and last known address of the judgment debtor;

(2) indenting the judgment or order to be enforced and stating the amount other judgment or order and the amount remaining unpaid under it as (at) the time of the application;

(3) stating, that to the best of the information or belief of the deponent the garnishee (naming him) is within the jurisdiction and is indebted to the judgment debtor and stating the sources of the deponent's information or the grounds for his belief; and

(4) stating, whether the garnishee is a deposit-taking institution having more than one place of business, the name and address of the branch at which the judgment debtor's account is believed to be held and the number of that account or, if it be the case, that all or part of this information is not known to the deponent.

40. Service and effect of order to show cause

(1) Unless the Court otherwise directs, an order under rule 1 of this Order to show cause shall be served:

(a) on the garnishee personally, at least, fifteen days before the day appointed thereby for the further consideration of the matter; and

(b) on the judgment debtor, at least seven days after the order has been served on the garnishee and at least seven days before the day appointed for the further consideration of the matter.

(2) An order under rule 1 of this Order shall bind in the hands of the garnishee as from the service of the order on him any debt specified in the order or so much thereof as may be so specified.

Non-appearance or dispute of liability garnishee

(a) Where on the further consideration of the matter, the garnishee does not attend or does not dispute the debt due or claimed to be due from him to the judgment debtor, the Court may make an order absolute under Rule 1 of this order against the garnishee. An order absolute under rule 1 of this Order against the garnishee

(b) An order absolute under rule 1 of this Order against the garnishee may be enforced in the same manner as any order for the payment of money

41. Dispute liability garnishee

Where on the further consideration of the matter, the garnishee disputes liability to pay the debt due or claimed to be due from him to the judgment debtor, the Court may summarily determine the question at issue or order that any question necessary for determining the liability of the garnishee be tried, without, if it orders trial before a matter, the need for any consent by the parties.

42. Claim of third person

If in garnishee proceedings, it is brought to the notice of the Court that some other person other than the judgment debtor is or claims to be entitled to the debt sought to be attached or has or claims to have a share upon, the Court may order that person to attend before the Court and state the nature of his claim with particulars thereof.

43. Discharge garnishee

Any payment made by a garnishee in compliance with an order absolute under this Order and any execution levied against him in pursuance of such an order, shall be a valid discharge of liability to the judgment debtor to the extent of the amount paid or levied notwithstanding that the garnishee proceedings are subsequently set aside or judgment or order from which they arose is reversed.

ORDER 14

JOINDER OF CAUSE OF ACTION

1. All causes of action may be joined

Subject to the following rules of this Order, the claimant may unite in the same action several causes of action; but if it appears that they cannot be conveniently tried or disposed of together, a Judge may order separate trials of any such causes of action or may make such order as may be necessary or expedient for the separate disposal thereof.

2. Recovery of land

(1) An action for recovery of land may be joined with an action for declaration of title, mesne profit or arrears of rent, damages for breach of any contract under which the land or any part thereof is held, or for any wrong or injury to the premises.

(2) An action for foreclosure or redemption may be joined with a claim for delivery of possession of the mortgaged property and a claim for payment of principal money or interest secured by or any other relief in respect of the mortgage of or charge on such land.

3. Executor and Administrator

Claims by or against an executor or administrator as such may be joined with claims by or against him personally, provided the last-mentioned claims are alleged to arise with reference to the estate in respect of which the claimant or defendant sues or is sued as executor or administrator.

4. Claims by Joint-claimants

Claims by claimant jointly may be joined with claims by the them separately against the same defendant.

ORDER 15

PLEADINGS

1. Filing of pleadings

(1) A statement of claim shall include the relief or remedy to which a claimant claims to be entitled

(2) A defendant shall file his statement of defence, set-off or counter-claim, if any, not later than 42 days after service on him of the claimant's originating process and accompanying documents. A counter-claim shall have the same effect as a cross action, so as to enable the court pronounce a final judgment in the same proceedings. A set-off must be specifically pleaded.

(3) A claimant shall within 14 days of service of the statement of defence and counter-claim if any, file his reply, if any, to such defence or defence to counter-claim:

provided that where a defendant sets up a counter-claim, if a claimant or any other person named as party to such counter-claim contends that the claim thereby raised ought not to be disposed of by way of counter-claim, but in an independent proceeding, a judge may at anytime order that such counter-claim be excluded.

2 Pleadings to state material facts and not evidence.

Every pleading shall contain a statement in a summary form of the material facts on which the party pleading relies for his claim or defence, as the case may be, but not the evidence by which they are to be proved and shall, when necessary be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively. Dates, sums and numbers shall be expressed in figures. pleadings shall be signed by a legal practitioner or by the party if he sues or defends in person.

3 Particulars to be given where necessary

(1) In all cases in which the party pleading relies on any misrepresentation, frauds, breach of trust, willful default, or undue influence and in all other cases, in which particulars may be necessary, particulars (with dates and items if necessary) shall be stated in the pleadings.

(2) In an action for libel or slander, if the claimant alleges that the words or matters complained of were used in a defamatory sense other than their ordinary meaning, he shall give particulars of the facts and matters on which he relies in support of his allegation.

4 Further and better statement or particulars

An application for a further and better statement of the nature of the claim or defence or further and better particulars of any matter stated in any pleadings requiring particulars shall be made to a judge at the trial. The Judge may grant such application upon such terms as may be just.

5 Denial

(1) Every allegation of fact in any pleadings, if not specifically denied in the pleadings of the opposite party, shall be taken as admitted except as against a person under legal disability.

(2) A general denial in any pleadings shall not operate as denial of any specific fact in the pleadings of the opposing party.

6 Conditions precedent

Each party shall specify distinctly in his pleadings, any condition precedent, the performance or occurrence of which is intended to be contested.

7 Defence, certain facts, surprise to be specifically pleaded

(1) All grounds of defence or reply which make an action not maintainable or if not raised will take the opposite party by surprise or will raise issues of facts not arising out of the proceedings to the pleadings, shall be pleadings, shall be specifically pleaded.

(2) Where a party raises any ground which makes a transaction void or voidable or such matters as fraud, Limitation Law, release, payment, performance, facts showing insufficiency in contract or illegality, either by any enactment or by common law, he shall specifically plead same.

8 Pleadings to be consistent

No pleadings shall raise any new ground of claim or contain any allegation of fact inconsistent with the previous pleadings of the party pleading the same.

9 Joinder of Issues

A party may, by his pleadings, join issues upon the pleadings of the opposing party and such joinder of issues shall operate as a denial of every material allegation of fact in the pleadings upon which issue is joined except any fact which the party may be willing to admit.

10 Effect of documents to stated

Wherever the contents of any documents are material, it shall be sufficient in any pleadings to state the effect thereof as briefly as possible, without setting out the whole or any part thereof, unless the precise words of the document or any part thereof are material.

11 Notice

Wherever it is material to allege notice to any person of any fact, matter or thing, shall be sufficient to allege such notice as a fact, unless the form or the precise terms of such notice or the circumstances from which such notice is to be inferred are material.

12. Implied contract or relationship

Wherever any contract or any relation between any persons is to be implied from a series of letters or conversations, or otherwise from a number of circumstances, it shall be sufficient to allege such contract or relation as a fact, and to refer generally to such letters, conversation or circumstances without setting them out in details. If in such case, the person so pleading desires to rely, in the alternative, upon more contracts or relationship than one as to be implied from such circumstances, he may state the same in the alternative.

13. Presumption of Law

A party may not allege in any pleadings any matter of fact the law presumes in his favour or as to which the burden of proof lies upon the other side, unless the same has first been specifically denied.

14. Stated or settled account

In every case in which the cause of action is a stated or settled account, the same shall be alleged with particulars but in every case in which a statement of account is relied on by way of evidence or admission of any other cause of action which is pleaded, the same shall not be alleged in the pleadings.

15. Technical objection

No technical objection shall be raised to any pleading on the ground of any alleged want of form.

16. Striking out of pleadings

A Judge may, at the trial in any proceedings, order to be struck out or amended, any matter in any endorsement or pleadings which may be unnecessary or scandalous or which may tend to prejudice, embarrass or delay the fair trial of the action; and may in any such case, if the Judge shall deem fit, order costs of the application to be paid as between legal practitioner and client.

17. Defamation

(1) Wherever it is material to allege malice, fraudulent intention, knowledge or other condition of the mind of any person, it shall be sufficient to allege the same as a fact without setting out the circumstances from which the same is to be inferred.

(2) Where in an action for libel or slander, the defendant pleads that any of the words or matters complained of are fair comment on a matter of public interest or were published upon a privileged occasion, the claimant shall, if he intends to allege that the defendant was actuated by express malice, deliver a reply giving particulars of the facts and matters from which such malice is to be inferred.

(3) Where in an action for libel or slander a defendant alleges that in so far as the words complained of consist of statement of fact, that are true in substance and in fact, and in so far as they consist of expressions of opinion, they are fair comment on a matter of public interest, or pleads to the like effect, he shall give particulars stating which of the facts and matters he relies on in support of the allegation that the words are true.

18. Where pleadings disclose no reasonable cause of action

(1) The Judge, may at any stage of the proceedings, order to be struck out or amended any pleading or the endorsement of any writ in the action, or anything in any pleading or in the endorsement, on the ground that:

(a) it discloses no reasonable cause of action or defence, as the case may be; or

(b) it is scandalous, frivolous or vexatious; or

(c) it may prejudice, embarrass or delay the fair trial of the action; or

(d) it is otherwise an abuse of the process of the Court;

And may order the action to be stayed or dismissed or judgment to be entered accordingly, as the case may be.

(2) No evidence shall be admissible on application under paragraph (1) (a).

(3) This rule shall, so far as applicable, apply to an originating summons and a petition as if the summons or petitions, as the case may be, were pleadings.

19. Close of pleadings

(1) Where pleadings subsequent to reply is not ordered, then, at the expiration of 7 days from the service of the defence or reply (if a reply has been filed) pleadings shall be deemed closed.

(2) Where pleadings subsequent to reply is ordered, and the party who has been ordered or given leave to file same, fails to do so within the period limited for that purpose, then, at the expiration of the period so limited, the pleadings shall be deemed closed:

Provided that this rule shall not apply to a defence to counter-claim and unless the claimant files a defence to counter-claim, the statements of fact contained in such counter-claim shall at the expiration of 14 days from the service thereof or of such time (if any), as may by order be allowed for filing of a defence thereto be deemed to be admitted, but the Judge may, at any subsequent time, give leave to the claimant to file a defence to counter-claim.

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

1. Statement of claim

(a) Every statement of claim, or counter-claim shall state specifically the relief claimed either singly or in the alternative and it shall not be necessary to ask for general or other relief, which may be given as a Judge may think just as if it had been asked for.

(b) Where the claimant seeks relief in respect of several distinct claims or causes of complaint founded upon separate and distinct grounds, they shall be stated, as far as may be, separately and distinctly. The same rule shall apply where the defendant relies upon several distinct grounds of defence, set-off or counter-claim founded upon separate and distinct facts.

2. Claim beyond endorsement

Whenever a statement of claim is filed, the claimant may alter, modify or extend his claim without any amendment of the endorsements of the writ:

Provided that the claimant may not completely change his cause of action endorsed on the writ without amending the writ.

ORDER 17

STATEMENT OF DEFENCE AND COUNTER-CLAIM

1. Statement of defence

The statement of defence shall be a statement in summary form and shall be supported by copies of documentary evidence, list of witnesses and their written statements on oath.

2. Evasive denial

When a party in any pleadings denies an allegation of fact in the previous pleadings of the opposite party, he shall not do so evasively, but answer the point of substance.

3. Denial generally

(1) In an action for debt or liquidated money demand, a mere denial of the debt shall not be sufficient defence.

(2) In an action for money had and received a defence in denial must deny the receipt of the money or the existence of those facts which are alleged to make such receipt by the defendant a receipt to the use of the claimant.

(3) In an action for goods sold and delivered, the defence must deny the order or contract, the delivery, or the amount claimed.

(4) In an action upon a bill of exchange, promissory note or cheque, a defence in denial must deny some matter of fact, e.g., the drawing, making, endorsing, accepting, presenting or notice of dishonour of the bill or note.

4. Persons in representative capacity

If either party wishes to deny the right of any other party to claim as executor, or a trustee or in any representative or other alleged capacity, or the alleged constitution of any partnership firm, he shall deny the same specifically.

5. Pleading to damages

No denial or defence shall be necessary as to damages claimed or their amount; they are deemed to be in issue in all cases, unless expressly admitted.

6. Set-off and counter-claim

Where any defendant seeks to rely upon any ground as supporting a right of set-off or counter-claim, he shall in his defence state specifically that he does so by way of supporting a right of set off or counter-claim.

7. Title of counter-claim

Where a defendant by his defence sets up any counter-claim which raises questions between himself and the claimant along with any other persons, he shall add to the title of his defence a further title similar to the title in a statement of claim, setting forth the names of all persons who, if such counter-claim were to be enforced by cross action, would be defendants to such cross action, and shall deliver his defence to such number of them as are parties to the action within the period which he is required to deliver it to the claimant.

8. Claim against persons not part of (Civil Form 12)

Where any such person as in rule 7 of this Order is not a party to the action, he shall be summoned to appear by being served with a copy of the defence and counter-claim, and such service shall be regulated by the same rules as those governing the service of the originating process and every defence and counter-claim so served shall be endorsed in Form 12 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require.

9. Appearance

Any person not already a party to the action, who is served with a defence and counter-claim as aforesaid, must appear thereto as if he had been served with an originating process to appear in an action.

10. Reply to counter-claim

Any person not already a party to the action, who is named in a defence as a party to a counter-claim thereby made, shall deliver a defence in a mode and manner prescribed under this order and the provisions of the order shall apply to such a person.

11. Discontinuance: the claimant's claim

If, in any case in which the defendant sets up a counter-claim, the action of the claimant is stayed, discontinued or dismissed, the counter-claim may nevertheless be proceeded with.

12. Judgment balance

Where in an action, a set-off or counter-claim is established as a defence against the Claimant's claim, the Judge may, if the balance is in favour of the defendant, give judgment for the defendant for such balance, or may otherwise adjudge to the defendant such relief as he may be entitled to upon the merits of the case.

13. Ground of defence after action brought

(1) Any ground of defence which arises after the action has been filed, but before the defendant has delivered his defence and before the time limited for doing so has expired, may be raised by the defendant in his defence, either alone or together with other grounds of defence.

(2) If after a defence has been delivered along with a set-off or counter-claim, any basis for answer or ground of defence arises to any such set-off or counter-claim respectively, it may be raised by the claimant in his reply (in the case of a set-off) or defence to counter-claim, either alone or together with any other ground of reply or defence to counter-claim.

14. Further defence or reply

Where any ground of defence arises after the defendant has delivered a defence, or after the time limited for his doing so has expired, the defendant may and where any ground of defence to any set-off or counter-claim arises after reply, or after the time limited for delivery of a reply has expired, the claimant may, within 8 days after such ground of defence has arisen or at any subsequent time by leave of a Judge deliver a further defence or further reply, as the case may be setting forth the same.

15. Concession to defendant (Civil Form 13)

Whenever any defendant in his defence or in any further defence pursuant to rule 14 of this Order alleges any ground of defence which has arisen after the commencement of the action, the claimant may concede to such defence (which concession may be in Form 13 with such modification as circumstances may require) and may thereupon obtain judgment up to the time of the pleading of such defence, unless the Judge either before or after the delivery of such concession otherwise orders.

16. Defence to originating summons

A respondent to an originating summons shall file a counter-affidavit together with all the exhibits he intends to rely upon and a written address within 21 days after service of the originating summons.

REPLY

1. Filing of reply

Where the claimant desires to make a reply, he shall file it within 14 days from the service of the defence.

2 Reply to counter-claim

Where there is a counter-claim, a reply thereto is called a defence to counter-claim and shall be subject to the rules applicable to defences.

ORDER 19

ADMISSIONS

Any party to a proceedings may give notice by his pleadings or otherwise in writing, that he admits the truth of the whole facts or any part of the case of the other party.

2. Notice to admit document

(1) Either party may, not later than 7 days before trial by notice in writing filed and served, require any other party to admit any document and the party so served shall not later than 4 days after service give notice of admission or non-admission of the document, failing which he shall be deemed to have admitted it unless a Judge otherwise orders.

(2) When a party decides to challenge the authenticity of any document, he shall before trial give notice that he does not admit the document and requires it to be provided at the trial.

(3) Where a party gives notice of non-admission and the document is proved at the trial, the cost of proving the document, which shall not be less than a sum of five thousand naira, (N5,000.00) shall be paid by the party who has challenged it, unless at the trial or hearing, the Judge shall certify that there were reasonable grounds for not admitting the authenticity of the document.

3. Notice to admit facts

(1) Either party may not later than 7 days before trial, by notice in writing filed and served, require any other party to admit any specific fact or facts mentioned in the notice, and the party so served shall not later than 4 days after service give notice of admission or non-admission of the fact or facts failing which he shall be deemed to have admitted it unless a Judge otherwise orders.

(2) Where there is a refusal or neglect to admit the same within 4 days after service of such notice or within such further time as may be allowed by the Judge, the cost of proving such fact or facts which shall not be less than a sum of five thousand naira (N5,000), shall be paid by the party so refusing or neglecting whatever the result of the proceedings, unless the Judge certifies that the refusal to admit was reasonable or unless the Judge at any time otherwise orders or directs.

4. Judgment or Order upon admission of facts

The Judge may, on application, at trial or at any other stage of the proceedings where admissions of facts have been made, either on the pleadings or otherwise, make such orders or give such judgment as upon such admissions a party may be entitled to, without waiting for the determination of any other question between the parties.

5. Cost of notice where documents are unnecessary

Where a notice to admit or produce comprises documents that are not necessary, the costs occasioned thereby which shall not be less than five thousand naira (N5,000) shall be borne by the party giving such notice.

DEFAULT OF PLEADINGS

1. Claim for debt or liquidated demand

If the claim is only for a debt or liquidated demand and the defendant does not, within the time allowed for the purpose, file a defence, the claimant may, at the expiration of such time, apply for final judgment for the amount claimed with costs.

2. Several defendants: default of one

When in any such action as in rule 1 of this Order, there are several defendants, if one of them makes default as mentioned in rule 1 of this Order, the claimant may apply for final judgment against the defendant making default and issue execution upon such judgment without prejudice to his right to proceed with his action against the other defendants.

3. Damages and detention of goods

If the claimant's claim be for pecuniary damages or for detention of goods with or without a claim for pecuniary damages only and the defendant or all the defendants, if more than one, make default as mentioned in rule 1 of this Order, the claimant may apply to a Judge for interlocutory judgment against the defendant or defendants and the value of the goods and the damages, or the damages only as the case may be, shall be ascertained in any way which, the Judge may order.

4. Default of one or more defendants

When in any such action as in rule 3 of this Order, there are several defendants, if one or more of them make default as mentioned in rule 1 of this Order, the claimant may apply to a Judge for interlocutory judgment against the defendant or defendants so making default and proceed with his action against the others. In such case, the value and amount of damages against the defendant making default shall be assessed at the trial of the action or issues therein against the other defendants, unless the Judge shall otherwise order.

5. Debt or damages and detention of goods

Where the claim is for debt or liquidated demand and also for pecuniary damages or for detention of goods with or without a claim for pecuniary damages and includes a liquidated demand and any defendant makes default as mentioned in rule 1, the claimant may apply to a Judge for final judgment for the debt or liquidated demand, and may also apply for interlocutory judgment for the value of the goods and damages, or the damages only as the case may be and proceed as mentioned in rules 3 and 4.

6. Recovery of land

In an action for the recovery of land, if the defendant makes default as mentioned in rule 1, the claimant may apply for a judgment that the person whose title is asserted in the writ of summons shall recover possession of the land with costs.

7. Claim for mesne-profits, arrears or damages.

Where the claimant has endorsed a claim for mesne profits or arrears of rent in respect of the premises claimed, or any part of profits, or damages for breach of contract or wrong or injury to the premises claimed upon a writ for the recovery of land, if the defendant makes default as mentioned in rule 1, or if there be more than one defendant, some or one of the defendants make such default, the claimant may apply for final judgment against the defaulting defendant or defendants and proceed as mentioned in rules 3 and 4.

8. Setting aside judgment

The Court may, on such terms as it thinks just, set aside or vary any judgment entered in pursuance to this Order:

Provided that the unanswered part consists of a separate cause of action or is severable from the rest, as in the case of part of a debt or liquidated demand.

That where there is a counter-claim, execution on any such judgment as above mentioned in respect of the claimant's claim shall not issue without leave of the Judge.

9. Defendant in default

In all actions other than those in the preceding rules of this Order, if the defendant makes default in filing a defence, the claimant may apply to a Judge for judgment and such judgment shall be given upon the statement of claim as the Judge shall consider the claimant to be entitled to.

10. One of several defendants in default

Where in any such action as mentioned in rule 9 of this Order, there are several defendants, if one of such defendants makes such default as aforesaid, the claimants may apply for judgment against the defendant so making default, and proceed against the other defendants.

11. Default of third party

In any case in which issues arise in a proceedings other than that between claimant and defendant, if any party to any such issue makes default in filing any pleadings, the opposite party may apply to a Judge for such judgment, if any, as upon the pleadings he may appear to be entitled to, and the Judge may order judgment to be entered accordingly or may make such other order as may be necessary to do justice between the parties.

12. Default of defence to counter-claim

A defendant who counter-claims against a claimant shall be treated for the purposes of rules 2 to 10, as if he were a claimant who had made a claim against a defendant and accordingly, where the claimant or any other person against whom the counter-claim is made, fails to serve a defence to the counter-claim rules 2 to 10 shall apply as if:

(a) the counter-claim were a statement of claim;

(b) the defence to the counter-claim a defence;

(c) the parties making the counter-claim and against whom it is made were claimants and defendants respectively; and

(d) references to the period fixed under these rules for service of the defence were references to the period so fixed for service of the defence to the counter-claim.

13. Setting aside judgment by default

Any judgment by default whether under this Order or under any Order of these rules shall be final and remain valid and may only be set aside upon application to the Judge on grounds of fraud, non-service or lack of jurisdiction upon such terms as the Court may deem .fit

PAYMENT INTO AND OUT OF COURT

1. Payment into and out of Court

(1) Where after service in any proceedings for debt or damages, a defendant evinces an intention to pay money into Court in respect of the proceedings, he shall notify the Chief Registrar, who will thereupon direct him to pay the money into an interest yielding account opened by the Chief Registrar in a commercial bank and he shall file the teller for such payment with the Chief Registrar.

(2) Where a teller for payment is filed with the Chief Registrar, he shall forthwith give notice of the payment to the claimant who may apply to a Judge for an order to withdraw the amount so paid.

(3) Where a defence of tender before action is set up, the sum of money alleged to have been tendered shall be brought into Court.

(4) The defendant may without leave give a written notice to the Registrar of an intention to increase the amount of any sum paid into Court.

(5) Where the money is paid into court in satisfaction of one or more of several causes of action, the notice shall specify the cause or causes of action in respect of which payment is made and the sum paid in respect of such cause of action unless a Judge otherwise directs.

(6) Civil Form 14

The notice shall be in Form 14 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require. The receipt of the notice shall be acknowledged in writing by the claimant within 3 days. The notice may be modified or withdrawn or delivered in an amended form by leave of a Judge upon such terms as may be just.

(7) Where money is paid into Court with denial of liability, the claimant may proceed with the action in respect of the claim and if he succeeds, the amount paid shall be applied so far as is necessary in satisfaction of the claim and the balance, if any, shall on the order of a Judge be repaid to the defendant. Where the defendant succeeds in respect of such claim, the whole amount paid into Court shall be repaid to him on the order of a Judge.

2. Claimant may take out money: (Civil Form 15)

(1) Where money is paid into Court under rule 1, the claimant may within 14 days of the receipt of the notice of payment into Court, or where more than one payment into Court has been made, within 14 days of the receipt of the notice of the last payment into Court, accept the whole sum or any one or more of the specific sum in satisfaction of the cause or causes of action to which the specified sum or sums relate, by giving notice to the defendant in Form 15 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require and thereupon shall be entitled to receive payment of the accepted sum or sums in satisfaction as aforesaid.

(2) Payment shall be made to the claimant or on his written authority, to his legal practitioner and thereupon proceedings in the action or in respect of the specified cause or causes of action (as the case may be) shall abate.

(3) If the claimant accepts money paid into Court in satisfaction of his claim, or if he accepts a sum or sums paid in respect of one or more specified causes of action and gives notice that he abandons the other causes of action, he may after 4 days of payment out and unless a Judge otherwise orders, tax his costs incurred to the time of payment into Court, and 48 hours after taxation may sign judgment for his taxed costs.

(4) Where in an action for libel or slander, the claimant accepts money paid into Court, either party may apply by summons to a Judge for leave for the parties or either of them to make a statement in open Court in terms approved by the Judge.

3. Money remaining in Court

If the whole of the money in Court is not taken out under rule 2, the money remaining in Court shall not be paid out except in satisfaction of the claim or specified cause or causes of action in respect of which it was paid in pursuance of an order of a Judge which may be made at any time before, at or after trial.

4. (1) Several defendants

Money may be paid into Court under rule 1 of this Order by one or more of several defendants sued jointly, or in the alternative, upon notice to the other defendant or defendants.

(2) Form 16

If the claimant elects within 14 days after receipt of notice of payment into Court to accept the sum or sums paid into Court, he shall give notice as in Form 16 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require to each defendant and thereupon all further proceedings in the action or in respect of the specified cause or causes of action (as the case may be) shall abate.

(3) The money shall not be paid out except in pursuance of an order of a Judge dealing with the whole cause or causes of action.

(4) Civil Form 15

In an action for libel or slander against several defendants sued jointly, if any defendant pays money into Court, the claimant may within 14 days elect to accept the sum paid into Court in satisfaction of his claim against the defendant making the payment and shall give notice to all the defendants as in Form 15 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require. The claimant may tax his costs against the defendant who has made such payment in accordance with Rule 2(3) of this Order and the action shall abate against the defendant.

(5) The claimant may continue with the action against any other defendant but the sum paid into Court shall be set-off against any damages awarded to the claimant against the defendant or defendants against whom the action is continued.

5. Counter-claims

A person made a defendant to a counter-claim may pay money into Court in accordance with the foregoing rules, with necessary modification.

6. Persons under legal disability

(1) In any proceedings in which money or damages is or are claimed by or on behalf of a person under legal disability suing either alone or in conjunction with other parties, no settlement or compromise or payment or acceptance of money paid into Court, whether before, at or after the trial, shall as regards the claims of any such person, be valid without the approval of a Judge.

(2) No money (which expression for the purposes of this rule includes damages) in any way recovered or adjudged or ordered or awarded or agreed to be paid in any such proceedings in respect of the claims of any such person under legal disability whether by judgment, settlement, compromise, payment into Court or otherwise, before, at or after the trial, shall be paid to the claimant or to the guardian of the claimant or to the claimant's legal practitioner unless a Judge shall so direct.

(3) All monies so recovered or adjudged or ordered or awarded or agreed to be paid shall be dealt with as the Judge shall direct. The directions thus given may include any general or special directions that the Judge may deem fit to give, including directions on how the money is to be applied or dealt with and as to any payment to be made either directly or out of money paid into Court to the claimants or to the guardian in respect of monies paid or expenses incurred or for maintenance or otherwise for or on behalf of or for the benefit of the person under legal disability or otherwise or to the claimant's legal practitioner in respect of costs or of the difference between party and party and legal practitioner and client costs.

7. Payment into and withdrawal of money from Court

Every application or notice for payment into or transfer out of Court shall be made on notice to the other side.

PROCEEDINGS IN LIEU DEMURRER

1. Demurrer abolished

No demurrer shall be allowed.

2. Points of law may be raised by pleadings

Any party shall be entitled to raise by his pleadings any point of law and any points so raised shall be disposed of by the Judge who tries the cause at or after the trial:

Provided that by consent of the parties, or by order of the Court or a Judge on the application of either party, it may be set down for hearing and disposed of at any time before the trial.

3. Dismissal of action

If, in the opinion of the Court or a Judge; the decision of the point of law substantially disposes of the whole action, or of any distinct cause of action, ground of defence, set-off, counter-claim, or reply therein, the Court or Judge may thereupon dismiss the action or make such other order therein as may be just.

4. Striking out pleadings where no reasonable cause of action is disclosed

The Court or a Judge may order any pleadings to be struck out on the ground that it discloses no reasonable cause of action or answer, and in any such case or in case of the action or defence being shown by the pleadings to be frivolous or vexatious, the Court or Judge may order the action to be stayed or dismissed, or judgment to be entered accordingly, as may be just.

5. Declaratory judgment

No action or proceedings shall be open to objection on the ground that a merely declaratory judgment or order is sought thereby, and the Court may make binding declarations of right whether any consequential relief is or could be claimed or not.

ORDER 23

NOTICE OF DISCONTINUANCE

1. Claimant may discontinue before defence

(1) The claimant may at any time before receipt of the defence or after the receipt thereof, before taking any other proceedings in the action, by notice in writing duly filed and served, wholly discontinue his claim against all or any of the defendants or withdraw any part or parts of his claim. He shall thereupon pay such defendant's costs of the action, or if the action be not wholly discontinued, the costs occasioned by the matter so withdrawn.

(2) A discontinuance or withdrawal as the case may be, shall not be a defence to any subsequent claim.

(3) Where a defence has been filed, the claimant may with the leave of a Judge discontinue the proceedings or any part thereof on such terms and conditions as the Judge may order.

(4) Where proceedings have been stayed or struck out upon a claimant's withdrawal or discontinuance under this Order, no subsequent claim shall be heard on the same or substantially the same facts until the terms imposed on him by the Judge have been fully complied with.

(5) The Judge may in like manner and like discretion as to terms, upon the application of a defendant order the whole or any part of his alleged grounds of defence or counter-claim to be withdrawn or struck out.

2. Withdrawal by consent

When a cause is ready for trial, it may be withdrawn by either claimant or defendant upon producing to the Registrar, consent in writing signed by the parties and thereupon a Judge shall strike out the matter without the necessity of attendance of the parties or their legal practitioner.

Issues, Inquires, Accounts and Reference to Referees

1. Issues of Facts

(1) In all proceedings, issues of facts in dispute shall be defined by each party and filled within 7 days after close of pleadings.

(2) If the parties differ on the issue, the trial judge may settle the issue.

2. Reference to referee

In any legal proceedings, the judge may at my time, order the whole cause or matter or any question or issue of facts arising therein, to be tried before an official referee or officer of the court, notwithstanding that it may appear that there is a special or other relief sought or some special issue to be tried, as to which it may be proper that the cause or matter should proceed in the ordinary manner.

3. Instructions to referee

In any case in which a matter is referred to a referee, the Courts shall furnish the referee with such part of the proceedings and such information and detailed instructions as may appear necessary for his guidance, and shall direct the parties if necessary to attend upon the referee during the inquiry.

4. General Powers of referee

The referee may, subject to the order of the judge, hold the inquiry at or adjourn it to any place which he may deem most expedient, and have any inspection or view which he may deem most expedient, for the disposal of the controversy before him. He shall, so far as practicable, proceed with the inquiry from day to day.

5. Evidence

(1) Subject to any order made by the Judge ordering the inquiry, evidence shall be taken at any inquiry before a referee, and the attendance of witnesses to give evidence before a referee may be enforced by the Judge in the same manner as such attendance may be enforced before the Court; and every such inquiry shall be conducted in the same manner or as nearly as circumstances will admit as trials before a Court.

(2) The referee shall have the same authority in the conduct of any inquiry as a Judge when presiding at any trial.

(3) Nothing in these rules shall authorise any referee to commit any person to prison or to enforce any order by attachment or otherwise; but the Judge may, in respect of matters before a referee, make such order of attachment or commitment as he may consider necessary.

6. Report made in pursuance of reference under order

(1) The report made by a referee in pursuance of a reference under this Order shall be made to the Judge and notice thereof served on the parties to the reference.

(2) A referee may by his report submit any question arising therein for the decision of the Judge or make a special statement of facts from which the Judge may draw such inferences as he deems fit.

(3) On the receipt of a referee's report, the Judge may:

(a) adopt the report in whole or in part;

(b) vary the report;

(c) require an explanation from him;

(d) remit the whole or any part of the question or issue originally referred to him for further Consideration by him or any other referee;

(e) decide the question or issue originally referred to him on the evidence taken before him, either with or without additional evidence.

(4) When the report of the referee has been made, an application to vary the report or remit the whole or any part of the question or issue originally referred, may be made on the hearing by the Judge for the further consideration of the cause or matter, after giving not less than 4 days notice thereof and any other application with respect to the report may be made on that hearing without notice.

(5) Where on a reference under this Order, a Judge orders that the further consideration of the cause or matter in question shall not stand adjourned until the receipt of the referee's report, the order may contain directions with respect to the proceedings on the receipt of the report and the foregoing provisions of this rule shall have effect subject to any such directions.

7. Special directions as to mode of taking account

The Judge may order or direct an account to be taken or by any subsequent order, give special directions with regard to the mode in which the account is to be taken or vouched and in particular may direct that in taking the account, the books of accounts in which the accounts in question have been kept shall be taken as prima facie evidence of the truth of their contents, with liberty to the interested parties to object.

8. Accounts to be verified by affidavit, numbered and left in the registry

Where any account is directed to be taken, the accounting party shall make out his account and verify the same by affidavit. The items on each side of the account shall be numbered consecutively, and the account shall be referred to by the affidavit as an exhibit and left in the Registry.

9. Mode of vouching accounts

Upon the taking of any account, the Judge may direct that the voucher be produced at the chambers of the accounting party's legal practitioner or at any other convenient place and that only such items as may be contested or surcharged shall be brought before the Judge.

10. Surcharge

Any party seeking to charge any accounting party beyond what he has by his account admitted to have received, shall give notice to the accounting party, stating so far as he is able, the amount sought to be charged with particulars.

11. Accounts and inquiries to be numbered: Civil Form 20

Where by any judgment or order, any accounts are directed to be taken or inquiries to be made, each such direction shall be numbered so that as far as may be, each distinct account and inquiry may be designated by a number and such judgment or order shall be in Form 20 with such modifications or variations as the circumstances of the case may require.

12. Just allowance

In taking any account directed by any judgment or order, all just allowances shall be made without any direction for that purpose.

13. Expediting proceedings in case of undue delay

If it shall appear to the Judge that there is any undue delay in the prosecution of any proceedings, the Judge may require the party having the conduct of the proceedings or any other party, to explain the delay and may thereupon make such order with regard to expediting the proceedings or the conduct thereof, or the stay thereof and as to the costs of the proceedings as the circumstances of the case may require, and for the purposes aforesaid any party may be directed to summon the persons whose attendance is required and to conduct any proceedings and carry out any directions which may be given.

SPECIAL CASE

1. Special case by consent

At the trial, parties may concur in stating the questions of law arising in their case in the form of a special case for the opinion of the Judge. Every such special case shall be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively and shall concisely state such facts and documents as may be necessary to enable the Court to decide the questions. Upon the argument of such case, the Judge and the parties may refer to all the contents of such documents and the Judge may draw from the facts and documents stated in any such special case any inference, whether of fact or law, which might have been drawn from them if proved at a trial.

2. Special case by order before trial

If at the trial it appears to the Judge that there is in any cause or matter a question of law, which could be conveniently decided before any evidence is given or any question or issue of fact is tried, the Judge may make an order accordingly, and may raise such questions of law or direct them to be raised at the trial either by special case or in such other manner as the Judge may deem expedient, and all such further proceedings as the decision of such question of law may, render unnecessary, may thereupon be stayed.

3. Special case to be signed

Every special case agreed pursuant to rule 1 shall be signed by the several parties or their legal practitioners and shall be filed by the claimant or other party having conduct of the proceedings.

4. Application to set down where a person under disability is a party

An application to set down a special case in any cause or matter to which a person under legal disability is a party shall be supported by sufficient evidence that the statements contained in such case, so far as the same affects the interest of such persons under legal disability are true.

5. Agreement to payment of money and cost

(1) The parties to a special case may, if they think fit, enter into an agreement in writing, which shall not be subject to any stamp duty, that on the judgment of the Court being given in the affirmative or negative on the questions of law raised by the special case, a sum of money fixed by the parties or to be ascertained by the Court or in such manner as the Court may direct, shall be paid by one of the parties to the other, either with or without costs as the case may be.

(2) The judgment of the Court may be entered for the sum so agreed or ascertained with or without costs, as the case may be, and execution may issue upon such judgment forthwith, unless otherwise agreed or unless stayed on appeal.

6. Direction

A Judge may give direction as he may deem fit on any issue arising from the trial or special case upon the application of the parties or suo motu.

7. Application of order

This Order shall apply to every special case stated in a cause or matter and in any proceedings incidental thereto.

PROCEEDINGS AT TRIAL

1. Attendance by proxy

(1) In every cause or matter pending before the Court, in case it appears to the satisfaction of the Court that any party who may not be represented by a legal practitioner is prevented by some good or sufficient cause from attending the Court in person, the Court may in its discretion permit any master, servant, clerk or member of the family of such claimant or defendant, or officer of the claimant or defendant company, who shall satisfy the Court that he has authority in that behalf, to appear in Conn for such party.

2. Non - appearance: both parties

When a cause on the Weekly Cause List has been called for hearing and neither party appears, the Judge shall, unless he sees good reason to the contrary, strike the cause out.

3. Default of appearance by defendant at trial

When a cause is called for hearing if the claimant appears and the defendant does not appear, the claimant may prove his claim, so far as the burden of proof lies upon him.

4. Default of appearance by claimant

When a cause is called for hearing, if the defendant appears and the plaintiff does not appear, the defendant, if he has no counter-claim, shall be entitled to judgment dismissing the action, but if he has a counter-claim, then he may prove such counter-claim, so far as the burden of proof lies upon him. Provided that if the defendant shall admit the cause of action to the full amount claimed, the Court may if it thinks fit, give judgment as if the claimant had appeared.

5. Judgment by default may be set aside on terms

(1) Where a cause is struck out under rule 2 of this Order, either party may apply that the cause be replaced on the cause list on such terms as the Judge may deem fit.

(2) Any judgment obtained where any party does not appear at the trial may be set aside by the Judge upon such terms as he may deem fit for good cause shown.

(3) An application to re-list a cause struck out or to set aside a judgment shall be made within 6 days after the order or judgment or such other longer period as the Judge may allow for good cause shown.

6. Adjournment of trial

(1) The Judge may, if he thinks it expedient for the interests of justice, postpone or adjourn a trial for such time and upon such terms, if any, as he may think fit, provided that such adjournments shall be subject to the following guidelines or such longer period as the circumstances may dictate:

(a) an adjournment shall not be granted more than five (5) times at the instance of a party to the action from the date of filing to the conclusion of the case.

(b) an adjournment shall not exceed 30 days at one instance.

(2) Or such longer period as the circumstances may dictate.

7. Times of commencement and termination of trial

The Registrar or other proper officer present at any trial or hearing, shall make a note of the times at which the trial or hearing commences and terminates respectively and the time actually occupied on each day it goes on for communication to the taxing officer if required.

8. Burden of proof by party to begin

9. Documentary evidence

Documentary evidence shall be put in and may be read or taken as read.

10. Additional witness

(1) A party who desires to call any witness not being witness whose deposition on oath accompanied his pleadings shall apply to the Judge for leave to call such witness.

(2) An application for leave in sub-rule 1 above shall be accompanied by the deposition on oath of such witness.

11. Close of case of parties

(1) A party shall close his case when he has concluded his evidence. Either the claimant or defendant may make oral application to have the case closed.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-rule 1 above, the Judge may suo motu where he considers that either party fails to conclude his case within a reasonable time, close the case for the party.

12. Exhibits during trial

(1) The Registrar shall take charge of every document or object put in as an exhibit during the trial of an action, and shall mark or label every exhibit with a letter or letters indicating the party by whom the exhibit is put in (or where more convenient, the witness by whom the exhibit is proved) and with a number, so that all the exhibits put in by a party (or proved by a witness) are numbered in one consecutive series.

(2) The Registrar shall cause a list of all the exhibits in the action to be made.

(3) The list of exhibits when completed shall form part of the record of the action.

(4) For the purpose of this rule a bundle of documents may be treated and counted as one exhibit.

(5) In this rule, a witness by whom an exhibit is proved includes a witness in the course of whose evidence the exhibit is put in.

13. Written address by party beginning

When the party beginning has concluded his evidence, the Judge shall ask the other party if he intends to call evidence. If the other party does not intend to call evidence, the party beginning shall within 21 days after close of evidence file a written address. Upon being served with the written address, the other party shall within 21 days file his own written address.

14. Written address by the other party

Where the other party calls evidence, he shall within 21 days after the close of evidence file a written address.

15. Written address of party beginning

Upon being served with other party's written address, the party beginning shall within 21 days file his own written address.

16. Right of reply

The party who files the first address shall have a right of reply on points of law only. The reply shall be filed within 7 days after service of the other party's address.

17. Custody of exhibit after trial

(1) An exhibit shall not be released after the trial to the party who has tendered it unless the period during which notice of appeal may be given has elapsed without such notice having been given, and then only if the trial Judge (or in his absence, another Judge) grants leave to release such exhibit on being satisfied:

(a) that the exhibit will be kept duly marked and labeled and will be produced if required, at the hearing of an appeal (if any such appeal is lodged); or

(b) that the release of the exhibit will not in any way prejudice any other party.

(2) After a notice of appeal has been filed, an exhibit produced at the trial shall not be released by the High Court unless leave to release such exhibit is granted by the Court of Appeal.

18. Office copy of list of exhibits

(1) Any party may apply for and on payment of the prescribed fee, obtain an office copy of the list and certified true copies of exhibits.

(2) Where there is an appeal, an office copy of the list of exhibits shall be included amongst the documents supplied for the purpose of the appeal.

19. Indolent prosecution

A Judge may, suo motu or on application strike out any proceedings not being prosecuted diligently.

ORDER 30

When the examination of any witness before any examiner under rule 7 above shall have been conducted, the original depositions authenticated by the signature of the examiner, shall be transmitted by him to the registry and filed,

15. Depositions not to be given in evidence without consent or by leave of a Judge

Except where by this Order otherwise provided or directed by a Judge, no deposition shall be given in evidence at the hearing or trial of the cause or matter without the consent of the party against whom the same may be offered, unless the Judge is satisfied that the deponent is dead or beyond the jurisdiction of the court or unable from sickness or other infirmity to attend the hearing or trial, in any of which case, the depositions certified under the hand of the person taking the examination shall be admissible in evidence, saving all just exceptions, without proof of the signature to such certificate.

16. Oaths

Any officer of the Court or other person directed to take the examination of any witness or person, or any person nominated or appointed to take the examination of any witness or person pursuant to the provisions of any convention now made or which may hereafter be made with any foreign country, may administer oaths.

17. Attendance of witness under a subpoena

A party may by subpoena ad testificandum or duces tecum require the attendance of any witness before an officer of the Court or other person appointed to take the examination, for the purpose of using his evidence upon any proceedings in the cause or matter in like manner as such witness would be bound to attend and be examined at the hearing or trial; and any party or witness having made an affidavit to be used in any proceedings in the cause or matter shall be bound on being so subpoenaed to attend before such officer or person for cross-examination.

18. Practice as to taking of evidence at any stage of cause or matter

The practice with reference to the examination, cross-examination and re-examination of witnesses at a trial shall extend and be applicable to evidence taken in any cause or matter at any stage.

19. Special directions to taking evidence.

The practice of the Court with respect to evidence at a trial, when applied to evidence to be taken before an officer of the Court or other person in any cause or matter after the hearing or trial, shall be subject to any special directions which may be given in any case.

20. Evidence in proceedings subsequent to trial

Subject to the provisions of Section 34 of the Evidence Act, all evidence taken at the hearing or trial of any cause or matter may be used in any subsequent proceedings in the same cause or matter.

21. Form of praecipe of a subpoena: Civil Form 24

Where it is intended to issue out a subpoena, a praecipe for that purpose in Form 24 containing the name or firm and the place of business or residence of the legal practitioner intending to issue out the same, and where such legal practitioner is an agent only, then also the name or firm and place of business or residence of the principal legal practitioner, shall in all cases be delivered and filed at the registry. No subpoena shall be issued unless all Court fees have been paid (including fee for service) and unless sufficient money on the prescribed scale is deposited to cover the first day's attendance.

22. Form of subpoena: Civil Forms 25,26,27

A subpoena shall be in one of Forms 25,26, or 27 with such variations as circumstances may require.

23. Subpoena attendance of witness in chambers

Where a subpoena is required for the attendance of a witness for the purpose of proceedings in chambers, such subpoena shall be issued from the Registry upon the Judge's directive.

24. Correction of errors in subpoena

In the interval between the issue and service of any subpoena, the legal practitioner issuing it may make any correction and may have the writ resealed upon leaving a corrected copy of the subpoena marked with the words "altered and resealed", with the signature, name and address of the legal practitioner.

25. Personal service of subpoena

A subpoena shall be served personally unless substituted service has been ordered by a Judge in a case where a person evades service. The provisions of Order 7 shall so far as possible apply to service and proof of service of a subpoena.

26. Duration of subpoena

Any subpoena shall remain in force from the date of issue until the trial of the action or matter in which it is issued.

27. Action to perpetuate testimony

Any person who would under the circumstances alleged by him to exist, become entitled, upon the happening of any future event to any honour, title, dignity or office, or to any estate or interest in any property, real or personal, the right claim to which cannot be brought to trial by him before the happening of such event, may commence an action to perpetuate any testimony which may be material for establishing such right or claim.

28. Examination of witnesses to perpetuate testimony

A witness shall not be examined to perpetuate his testimony unless an action has been commenced for that purpose.

29. Such action not to be set down for trial

No action to perpetuate the testimony of a witness shall be set down for trial.

30. Recall of witness

Upon application of either party to a suit, the Court may recall any witness where it deems fit in the interest of justice.

AFFIDAVITS

1. Evidence on motions, etc.

Upon any motion, petition, summons or other application, evidence may be given by affidavit but the Judge may, suo motu or on application, order that attendance for cross-examination of the deponent and where, after such an order has been made the person in question does not attend, his affidavit shall not be used as evidence save by leave of the Court or Judge in chambers.

2. Title of affidavit

Every affidavit shall bear the title in the cause or matter which it is sworn but in every case in which there is more than one claimant or defendant, it shall be sufficient to state the full name of the first claimant or defendant respectively and that there are other claimants or defendants, as the case may be.

3. Use of defective affidavit

The Judge may receive any affidavit sworn for the purpose of being used in any cause or matter, notwithstanding any defect by misdescription of parties or otherwise in the title or jurat, or any other irregularity in the form thereof, and may direct a memorandum to be made on the document that it has been so received.

4. Special time for filing affidavits

Where time is limited for filing affidavits, no affidavit filed after that time shall be used, unless by leave of Court or Judges in chambers.

5. Affidavit in support of ex-parte application

Except by leave of the Court or Judge in chambers, no order made ex-parte in Court founded on any affidavit shall be of any force unless the affidavit on which the application was based was made before the order was applied for, and produced or filed at the time of making the application.

6. Notice of intention to use affidavit

Save for ex-parte application, a party intending to use any affidavit in support of any application made by him shall give notice to the other parties concerned.

7. Alterations in accounts to be initiated

Every alteration in any account verified by affidavit shall be marked with the initials of the commissioner before whom the affidavit is sworn and such alterations shall not be made by erasure.

8. Exhibits

Accounts, extracts from registers, particulars of creditors' debt, and other documents referred to by affidavit, shall not be annexed to the affidavit or referred to as annexed, but shall be referred to as exhibits.

(a) the issue of any writ other than a writ of attachment;

(b) the amendment of any writ or pleadings;

(c) the filing of any document; or

(d) any act to be done by any officer of the Court other than a legal practitioner, it shall not be necessary to draw up such order unless the Judge otherwise directs; but the production of a note or memorandum of such order signed by a Judge shall be sufficient authority for such enlargement of time, issue, amendment, filing or other act.

(2) A direction that the costs of such order, shall be costs in any cause or matter, shall not be deemed to be a special direction within the meaning of this rule.

3. Form of order

An order shall be sealed, and shall be marked with the name of the Judge by whom it is made.

TRANSFER AND CONSOLIDATION TRANSFER

1. Order transferring proceedings to High Court, Cap. 97

Where a Judge has in exercise of any powers conferred on him by any relevant law, ordered the transfer of any action or matter from a lower Court to the High Court, a copy of the order duly certified by the Registrar shall forthwith be sent to the Registrar of the lower Court and the latter shall forthwith transmit to the High Court, the documents referred to in the relevant law and other necessary documents and processes.

2. Payment of filing fees

(1) On receipt by the Court of the relevant documents and processes, the Registrar shall notify the party who applied for the transfer, or where the transfer was not made on the application of any party, the claimant shall attend the registry and pay the fees for filing the documents. Such payment shall be without prejudice to the question of how the costs shall ultimately be borne.

(2) Such notification shall be effected by serving a notice personally on the party concerned, or, where an address for service has been given by such party, at that address.

3. Duties of Registrar

(1) The Registrar shall on payment of the prescribed fees, in any case not later than 7 days:

(a) file the documents received from the lower Court;

(b) make an entry of the filing in the Cause Book; and

(c) transmit the documents to the Chief Judge or such other Judge appointed by the Chief Judge.

(2) The Registrar shall then give notice to the parties to attend in person or by counsel before a named Judge on the day and at the time specified in the notice. The fees for the service of this notice shall be borne in the first instance by the party who has paid the fees for filing as provided by rule 2 of this Order.

4. Directions

(1) The Judge or such other Judge appointed by him shall, not later than 14 days after receiving the documents referred to in rule 3 of this Order:

- (a) hear the parties or their legal practitioners;
- (b) take cognisance of the documents thereafter; and
- (c) give directions for the trial or hearing of the action or matter.

(2) Directions given under this rule may include directions for the filing and service of pleadings.

5. Party failing to attend

(1) If the claimant fails to attend in compliance with a notice given under sub-rule 2 of rule 3 of this Order, the Judge shall record his default and may, suo motu or on application, dismiss the action or matter. Upon an application by a defendant to dismiss the action or matter, the Judge may either dismiss the action or matter upon such terms as may be just or make such other order on such terms as he deems just.

(2) If the defendant fails or all of several defendants fail to attend in compliance with a notice given under sub-rule 2 of rule 3, the claimant may obtain judgment with costs or obtain the order prayed for in the transferred proceedings by an application in the open Court.

6. Construction

In the preceding rule of this Order, the references to the claimant and the defendant shall, in relation to proceedings commenced otherwise than by writ, be construed as references to the applicant and the respondent.

7. Transfer of cause or matter

A cause or matter may, before evidence is taken, and at the request of either party to the suit, be transferred by a Judge before whom the cause or matter is pending, to another Court of the same division.

8. Re-assignment of cause or matter

A cause or matter may at any stage of the proceedings upon application by either party, be re-assigned to another Judge of the same division or of any other division by the Chief Judge whether or not the cause or matter is being heard before him.

9. Action by the Chief Judge on transfer

If for any reason, a Judge hearing a cause or matter, and who has taken any step in the proceedings, considers it necessary, either in his own opinion or upon application of any party to the proceedings, to have the cause or matter transferred to another Judicial Division, the Judge shall refer the cause or matter to the Chief Judge who may direct that the matter be transferred to the appropriate Judicial Division, in accordance with these Rules.

10. Consolidation

(1) Where actions are pending before different Judges, a party desiring consolidation shall first apply to the Chief Judge for transfer of the matter to a Judge before whom one or more of the matters are pending.

(2) An order to consolidate may be made where two or more actions are pending between the same claimant and the same defendant or between the same claimant, different defendants or between different claimants and the same defendant or between different claimants and different defendants:

Provided that where the same claimant brings actions against different defendants, they will not be consolidated without the consent of all parties unless the issues to be tried are identical.

(3) Where an order for consolidation has been made, it shall be drawn up, at the expense of the party or parties who applied for consolidation and shall be recorded in the Cause Book.

(4) The Judge may on application, consolidate several actions pending before him where it appears that the issues are the same in all the actions and can therefore be properly tried and determined at the same time.

ORDER 36

INTERLOCUTORY AND INTERIM INJUNCTIONS

Preservation of property

1. Application for injunction

(1) An application for the grant of an injunction may be made by any party to an action before or after the trial of the action, whether or not a claim for injunction was included in that party's action. .

(2) Where the applicant is the claimant and the case is one of urgency, such application for the grant of an injunction may be made ex-parte on affidavit but, except as aforesaid, such application shall be made by motion on notice or summons.

(3) The claimant may not make such an application for the grant of an injunction before the issue of the process by which the action is to be begun, except where the case is one of urgency, and in that case, the injunction applied for may be granted on terms provided for the issue of the process and such other terms, if any, as the Court thinks fit.

(4) An application for injunction made ex-parte shall be considered and determined not later than 7 days from the date of filing while one made on notice may be considered and determined not later than 60 days from the date of filing.

2. Detention, preservation, etc., of subject-matter of action

(1) On the application of any party to an action, the Court may make an order for the detention, custody or preservation of any property which is the subject-matter of the action or as to which any question may arise therein or for the inspection of any such property in the possession of a party to the action.

(2) For the purpose of enabling any order under sub-rule (1) to be carried out, the Court may by the order, authorise any person to enter upon any land or building in the possession of any party to the action.

(3) Where the right of any party to a specific fund is in dispute in an action, the Court may, on the application of the party, order the fund to be paid into Court or otherwise secured.

(4) An order under this rule may be made on such terms, if any, as the Court thinks just.

(5) An application for an order under this rule shall be made by summons or motion on notice.

(6) Unless the Court otherwise directs, an application by the defendant for such an order may not be made before he enters an appearance.

3. Power to order samples to be taken

(1) Where the Court considers it necessary or expedient for the purpose of obtaining full information or evidence in any action, it may, on the application of a party and on such terms, if any, as it thinks just, by order authorise or require any sample to be taken of any property which is the subject-matter of the action or as to which any question may arise therein, any observation to be made on such property or any experiment to be tried on or with such property.

(2) For the purpose of enabling any order under sub-rule (1) to be carried out, the Court may by an order, authorise any person to enter any land or building in the possession of any party.

(3) Sub-rules (5) and (6) of rule 2 shall apply in relation to an application for an order under this rule as they apply in relation to an application for an order under that rule.

4. Sale of perishable property, etc.

(1) The Court may on the application of any party, make an order for the sale by such person, in such manner and on such terms (if any) as may be specified in the order, of any property (other than land) which is the subject-matter of the action or as to which any question arises therein and which is of a perishable nature or likely to deteriorate if kept or which for any other reason, it is desirable to sell forthwith.

(2) Sub-rules (5) and (6) of rule 2 shall apply in relation to an application for an order under this rule as they apply in relation to an application for an order under rule 2.

5. Order for an early trial

Where on the hearing of an application made before the trial of a cause or matter, for an injunction or appointment of a receiver or an order under rules 2, 3 or 4, or it appears to the Court that the matter in dispute can be better dealt with by an early trial than by considering the whole merit thereof for the purposes of the application, the Court may make an order accordingly and may also make such order with respect to the period before trial as the justice of the case requires.

6. Order for recovery of specific property other than land subject to lien, etc.

Unless the Court otherwise directs, an application by the defendant for such an order may not be made before he enters an appearance.

7. Directions

Where an application is made under any of the foregoing provisions of this Order, the Court may give directions as to further proceedings in the action.

8. Allowance of income of property pendente lite

Where any real or personal property forms the subject-matter of any proceedings, and the Court is satisfied that it will be more than sufficient to answer all the claims thereon for which provision ought to be made in the proceedings, the Court may at any time allow the whole or part of the income of the property to be paid, during such period as it may direct, to any or all of the parties who have an interest therein or may direct that any part of the personal property be transferred or delivered to any or all such parties.

Part 11 Receivers

9. Application for receiver and injunction

(1) An application for the appointment of a receiver may be made by motion on notice.

(2) An application for an injunction ancillary or incidental to an order appointing a receiver, may be joined with the application for the order.

(3) Where the applicant wishes to apply for the immediate grant of such an injunction, he may do so ex-parte on affidavit in an appropriate case.

(4) The Court hearing an application under sub-rule (3) may grant an injunction restraining the party beneficially entitled to any interest in the property of which a receiver is sought from assigning, charging or otherwise dealing with that property pending the hearing of a summons for the appointment of a receiver and may require such a summons, returnable on such date as the Court may direct, to be issued.

10. Giving of security by receiver

(1) Where a judgment is given, or order made, directing the appointment of a receiver, then, unless the judgment or order otherwise directs, a person shall not be appointed a receiver in accordance with the judgment or order until he has given security in accordance with this rule.

(2) Where, by virtue of sub-rule (1), or any judgment or order appointing a person named therein to be receiver, a person is required to give security in accordance with this rule, he shall give security approved by the Court duly to account for what he receives as a receiver and to deal with it as the Court directs.

(3) Unless the Court otherwise directs, the security shall be by guarantee or, if the amount for which the security is to be given does not exceed N2,000 (two thousand naira), by an undertaking.

(4) The guarantee or undertaking shall be filed in the Court registry.

(5) The requirement of security shall not apply to court official or other public officers appointed.

11. Remuneration of a receiver

A person appointed a receiver shall allowed such proper remuneration, if any, as may be fixed by the Court.

12. Receiver's Account

(1) A receiver shall submit account to the court at such intervals or on such dates as the Court may direct, in order that they may be passed.

(2) Unless the court otherwise direct, each account submitted a received shall be accompanied by an affidavit verifying it. The receiver's account and affidavit (if any) shall be left at the registrar's office, and the claimant or party having the conduct of the cause or matter shall thereupon obtain an appointment for the purpose of passing the account.

(3) The passing of a receiver's account shall be certified by the registrar.

13. Payment of balance, etc, by receiver

The days on which a receiver shall pay into Court the amount show by his account as due from him or such part thereof as the court may certify as proper to be paid in by him, shall be fixed by the court.

14. Default by receiver

(1) Where a receiver fails to attend for the passing of any account of his, or fails to submit any account, makes any affidavit or does any other thing which he is required to submit, make or do, he and any or all of the parties to the cause or matter in which he was appointed, may be required to attend in chambers to show cause for the failure, and the court may, either in chambers or after adjournment into court, give such directions as it thinks proper including, if necessary, directions for the discharge of the receiver and the appointment of another and the payment of costs.

(2) Without prejudice to sub-rule (1), where a receiver fails to attend for the passing of any account of his or fails to submit any account or fails to pay into court on the date fixed by the court, any sum shown by his account as due from him, the Court, may disallow a remuneration claimed by the receiver in any subsequent account and may, where he has failed to pay any such sum into court, charge him with interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum on that sum while in his possession as a receiver.

Motions Generally

1. Time to apply

Interlocutory applications may be made at any stage of an action.

2. Application by motion

(1) Whereby these Rules, any application is authorised to be made to the Court or a Judge in chambers or a Registrar, such application may be made by motion which may be supported by affidavit and shall state under what Rule of Court or Law the application is brought. Every motion shall be served within 5 days of filing.

(2) Where the other party intends to oppose the application, he shall within 7 days of the service on him of such application, file his written address and may accompany it with a counter-affidavit.

3. Affidavit to be served with motion

(1) Where service of a motion is required by these Rules or directed by the Court or Judge, such motion shall be served together with all affidavit on which the party moving intends to rely.

(2) The applicant may on being served with the written address of the opposing party, file and serve an address in reply on point of law within 7 days of being served. Where a counter-affidavit is served on the applicant, he may file further-affidavit with his reply.

4. Adjournment

The hearing of any motion may, from time to time, be adjourned upon such terms as the Court may think fit.

Ex-parte Motion

5. When Notice of Motion should be given

(1) Except where an application ex-parte is required or permitted under any Law or Rules, every motion shall be on notice to the other party.

(2) No application for an injunction shall be made ex-parte unless the applicant files with it, a motion on notice in respect of the application.

(3) An order of injunction made upon an application ex-parte shall abate after 14 days.

6. Affidavit in support of ex-parte motion

(1) A motion ex-parte shall be supported by affidavit, which shall state sufficient grounds why delay in granting the order sought would entail irreparable damage or serious mischief to the party moving.

(2) The Court, if satisfied that to delay the motion till after notice is given to the parties affected would entail irreparable damage or serious mischief to the party moving or it is impossible to serve the parties affected within seven days, may hear an application ex-parte and make an order accordingly upon such terms as to cost or otherwise and subject to such reasonable undertakings, as the justice of the case demands.

7. Arguments on motion

Any party moving the Court ex-parte shall support his motion with a written address and any party to the suit or proceedings, who is present, is entitled to be heard.

8. Orders on ex-parte motions

Where a motion is made ex-parte, the Court may make, or refuse to make the order sought, or may grant an order to show cause why the order sought should not be made.

9. Court may vary or discharge order

(1) Where an order is made on a motion ex-parte, any party affected by it may within seven days after service of it, or within such further time as the Court shall allow, apply to the Court by motion to vary or discharge it; and the Court, on notice to the party obtaining the order, either may refuse to vary or discharge with or without imposing terms as to costs or security, or otherwise, as seems just.

(2) The hearing and determination of either the motion to vary or discharge or the motion on notice, must be within a maximum period of sixty days.

(3) Unless the Court gives special leave to the contrary, there shall be at least two clear days between the service of any affidavit including counter-affidavit or a notice of a motion and the day fixed for hearing of the motion.

(4) Service by a solicitor on another

Notice of motion may, without leave of the Court, be served by a solicitor, on the opposing solicitor, and such service shall be good service. Where the above procedure is used, an affidavit of service sworn to by the person who effected the service, exhibiting the endorsement of the service copy, shall be sufficient proof of service.

3 - Orders to show cause

10. Return - day to be specified

An order to show cause shall specify a day when cause is to be shown, to be called the return-day to the order, which shall not be less than three days after service.

11. Counter-evidence

A person served with an order to show cause may, before the return-day, produce evidence to contradict the evidence used in obtaining the order, or setting forth other facts on which he relies to induce the Court to discharge or vary such order.

12. Further service in certain cases

On the return-day, if the person served does not appear and it appears to the Court that the service on all proper parties has not been duly effected, the Court may enlarge the time and direct further service or make such other order as seems just.

13. Appearance or proof of service

If the person served appears, or the Court is satisfied that service has been duly effected, the Court may proceed with the matter.

14. General powers as to orders

The Court may either discharge the order or make the same absolute, or adjourn the consideration thereof, or permit further evidence to be produced in support of or against the order, and may modify the terms of the order so as to meet the merits of the case.

4 - Notice of motion

15. Service of notice

Unless the Court gives special leave to the contrary, there shall be at least two clear days between the service of a notice of motion and the day named in the notice for hearing the motion.

16. Serving of motion

Notice of motion may, without leave of the Court, be served by any person, notwithstanding that such person is not an officer of the Court.

17. Service on solicitor

Where a party acts by a solicitor, service of notice of motion on the solicitor shall be deemed good service on that party.

18. Copy of affidavit to be served with notice

Along with the notice of motion, there shall be served a copy of an affidavit on which the party moving intends to rely at the hearing of the motion.

19. Order for service

If at the hearing of any motion, the Court shall be of opinion that any person, to whom notice has not been given, ought to have or to have had the notice, the Court may either dismiss the motion, or adjourn the hearing thereof in order that the notice may be given, upon such terms as the Court may seem fit.

20. Service with writ of summons

The claimant may, by leave of the Court, cause any notice of motion to be served upon any defendant with the writ of summons.

5 - Evidence in Interlocutory Proceedings

21. Oral evidence

Oral evidence shall not be heard in support of any motion unless by leave of the Court. Where the party moving is illiterate, the Court may direct evidence to be taken by the Registrar, or other fit officer of Court, and the minutes of such evidence may be used as an affidavit.

22. Evidence in addition to or in lieu of affidavits

In addition to or in lieu of affidavits the Court may, if it thinks it expedient, examine any witness viva voce, or receive documents in evidence, and may summon any person to attend to produce documents before it, or to be examined or cross-examined before it in like manner as at the hearing of a suit.

23. Notice to parties and interested persons

Such notice as the Court in each case, according to the circumstances, considers reasonable, shall be given to the persons summoned, and to such persons (parties to the cause or matter or otherwise interested) as the Court considers entitled to inspect the documents to be produced, or to examine the person summoned, or to be present at his examination, as the case may be.

24. Evidence: how taken

The evidence of a witness on any such examination shall be taken in like manner as nearly as may be as at the hearing of a suit.

25. Affidavit not filed with motion paper

Upon the hearing of any motion, the Court may, on such terms as to cost and adjournment as it may think fit, allow any additional affidavit to be used, after such affidavit has been duly filed and served on the opposite side.

26. Registrar to have powers of a Judge

A registrar hearing any application by virtue of the provisions of these Rules, shall have and exercise all the powers conferred by these Rules on the Court or a Judge when dealing with such applications.

27. Only legally qualified Registrar to hear application

No Registrar other than one who is also a qualified legal practitioner shall have the power to hear and determine any application which by these Rules is conferred upon a Registrar.

28. Application

In any Judicial Division where there is no legally qualified Registrar, any application which by these Rules is authorised to be determined by a Registrar, shall be made to a Judge who in his absolute discretion may take such application in Court or in chambers.

29. Persons dissatisfied with ruling of Registrar may apply to the Court or a Judge in chambers

(1) Upon the determination of any application by a Registrar, any party dissatisfied with the ruling or decision of the Registrar in the matter, may within fourteen days of the decision or ruling, apply to the Court or to a Judge in chambers for a redress in the following manner and circumstances:

(a) Where the aggrieved party is the mover of the application before the Registrar, he shall renew his application before the Court or a Judge;

(b) Where the aggrieved party is the respondent to the application before the Registrar, he shall apply to the Court or a Judge for an order setting aside the order of the Registrar, about which he is dissatisfied.

(2) (a) Any application under paragraph (a) or (b) of sub-rule (1) of this rule shall be supported by affidavit showing the grounds upon which redress is sought

(b) There shall be attached to the application, a copy of the ruling or decision of the Registrar with which the party is dissatisfied and copies of all affidavits and documents used in support of the application before the Registrar.

APPLICATION FOR JUDICIAL REVIEW

1. Cases Appropriate for Application for Judicial Review

(1) An Application for:

(a) an order of mandamus, prohibition or certiorari; or

(b) an injunction restraining a person from acting in any office in which he is not entitled to act; shall be made by way of an application for Judicial Review in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

(2) An application for a declaration or an injunction (not being an injunction mentioned in paragraph (b) of sub-rule (1)) may be made by way of an application for Judicial Review and on such an application, the Court may grant the declaration or injunction claimed if it considers that having regard to:

(a) the nature of the matters in respect of which relief may be granted by way of an order of mandamus, prohibition or certiorari;

(b) the nature of the persons and bodies against whom relief may be granted by way of such an order; and

(c) all the circumstances of the case.

It would be just and convenient for the declaration or injunction to be granted on an application for Judicial Review.

2. Joinder of claims for relief

On an application for Judicial Review, any relief mentioned, in rule (1) or (2) may be claimed as an alternative or in addition to any other relief so mentioned, if it arises out of or relates to or is connected with the same matter.

3. Grant of leave to apply for judicial review

(1) No application for Judicial Review shall be made unless the leave of the Court has been obtained in accordance with this rule.

(2) An application for leave shall be made ex-parte to the Court, except during vacation when it may be made to a Judge in chambers, and shall be supported by:

(a) a statement, setting out the name and description of the applicant, the relief sought and the grounds on which it is sought;

(b) an affidavit, to be filed with the application, verifying the facts relied on; and

(c) a written address in support of application for leave.

(3) The applicant shall file the application not later than the day before the motion is heard and shall at the same time lodge copies of the statement and every affidavit in support.

(4) The Court hearing an application for leave may allow the applicant's statement to be amended, whether by specifying different or additional grounds or relief or otherwise on such terms, if any, as it thinks fit.

(5) The Court shall not grant leave unless it considers that the applicant has a sufficient interest in the matter to which the application relates.

(6) Where leave is sought to apply for an order of certiorari to any judgement, order, conviction or other proceedings which is subject to appeal and a time is limited for the bringing of the appeal, the Court may adjourn the application for leave until the appeal is determined or the time for the appealing is expired.

(7) If the Court grants leave, it may impose such terms as to costs and as to giving security as it thinks fit.

(8) Where an application for leave is refused by a Judge the applicant may make a fresh application to another Judge.

(9) An application to a Judge under sub-rule (8) shall be made within 10 days after the Judge's refusal to give leave.

(10) Where leave to apply for judicial review is granted, then:

(a) if the relief sought is an order of prohibition or certiorari and the Court so directs, the grant shall operate as a stay of the proceedings to which the application relates until the determination of the application or until the Court otherwise orders.

(b) if any relief is sought, the Court may at any time in the proceedings grant such interim relief as could be granted in an action begun by writ.

4. Delay in applying for relief

(1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, where in any case the Court considers that there has been undue delay in making an application for judicial review or, in a case to which sub-rule (2) applies, the application for leave under rule 3 is made after the relevant period has expired, the Court may refuse to grant:

(a) leave for the making of the application; or

(b) any relief sought on the application; if in the opinion of the Court the granting of the relief sought is likely to cause substantial hardship to, or substantially prejudice the rights of any person or would be detrimental to administration of justice.

(2) In the case of an application for an order of certiorari to remove any judgment, order, conviction or other proceeding for the purpose of quashing it, the relevant period for the purpose of sub-rule (1) is three months after the date of the proceedings.

(3) Sub-rule (1) is without prejudice to any statutory provision which has the effect of limiting the time within which an application for judicial review may be made.

5. Mode of Applying for Judicial Review

(1) Subject to sub-rule (2), when leave has been granted to make an application for judicial review, the application shall be made by originating motion.

(2) Where leave has been granted and the Judge or Court so directs, the application may be made by motion to a Judge sitting in open court.

(3) The notice of motion shall be served on all persons directly affected and where it relates to any proceedings in or before a Court and the object of the application is either to compel the Court or an officer of the Court to do any act in relation to the proceedings or to quash them or any order made therein, the notice or summons shall also be served on the clerk or Registrar of the Court and, where any objection to the conduct of the Judge is to be made, same shall be served on the Judge.

(4) Unless the Court granting leave has otherwise directed, there shall be at least 8 days between the service of the notice of motion and the day named therein for the hearing.

(5) A motion shall be entered for hearing within 14 days after the grant of leave.

(6) An affidavit giving the names and addresses of, and the places and dates of service on all persons who have been served with the notice of motion, shall be filed before the motion is entered for hearing and, if any person who ought to be served under this rule has not been served, the affidavit shall state that fact and the reason for it, and the affidavit shall be before the Court on the hearing of the motion.

(7) If on the hearing of the motion, the Court is of opinion that any person who ought, whether under this rule or otherwise, to have been served has not been served, the Court may adjourn the hearing on such terms (if any) as it may direct in order that the notice may be served on that person.

6. Statement and affidavits

(1) Copies of the statement in support of an application for leave under rule 3 shall be served with the notice of motion and, subject to sub-rule (2), no grounds shall be relied upon or any relief sought at the hearing except the grounds and relief set out in the statement.

(2) The Court may on the hearing of the motion, allow the applicant to amend his statement whether by specifying different or additional grounds of relief or otherwise, on such terms, if any, as it thinks fit and may allow further-affidavits to be used if they deal with new matters arising out of an affidavit of any other party to the application.

(3) Where the applicant intends to ask to be allowed to amend his statement or to use further-affidavits, he shall give notice of his intention and of any proposed amendment to every other party.

(4) Each party to the application shall supply to every other party on demand and on payment of the proper Court charges, copies of every affidavit which he proposes to use at the hearing including, in the case of the applicant, the affidavit in support of the application for leave under rule 3.

7. Claim for damages

On an application for judicial review, the Court may, subject to sub-rule (2), award damages to the applicant if:

(a) he has included in the statement in support of his application for leave under rule 3, a claim for damages arising from any matter to which the application relates; and

(b) the Court is satisfied that if the claim had been made in an action begun by the applicant at the time of making his application, he could have been awarded damages.

JURISDICTION OF CHIEF REGISTRAR

1. Chief Registrar

In this Order, any reference to the Chief Registrar means the Chief Registrar of the High Court and includes the Deputy-Chief Registrar.

2. Business to be transacted by Chief Registrar

The Chief Registrar may transact such business and exercise all such authority and jurisdiction as may be transacted or exercised by a Judge in respect of the following matters:

(a) Applications for the taxation and delivery of bills of costs and applications for the delivery by any legal practitioner of deeds, documents and papers;

(b) The taking of an account in any case where a Judge has ordered that the account be taken by the Chief Registrar;

(c) The taxation of bills of costs and

(d) Applications leading to the issue of the grant of probate of the Wills or Letters of Administration of the estates of deceased persons in non-contentious or common form probate business.

3. Chief Registrar may refer matters to the Chief Judge

If any matter appears to the Chief Registrar, proper for the decision of a Judge, he may refer same to the Chief Judge or the Judge who referred the matter to the Chief Registrar. The Chief Judge or the Judge may either dispose of the matter or refer the same back to the Chief Registrar with such directions as he may deem fit.

4. Appeal from order of Chief Registrar

Any person affected by an order or decision of the Chief Registrar in the exercise of the jurisdiction conferred upon him by this Order may appeal therefrom to a Judge. Such appeal shall be by notice in writing to attend before the Judge without a fresh summons within 5 days after the decision complained of or such further time as may be allowed by the Judge. Unless otherwise ordered, there shall be at least 2 clear days between service of the notice of appeal and the day of hearing. An appeal from the decision of the Chief Registrar shall not operate as a stay of proceedings unless so ordered by the Judge.

5. Chief Registrar's list

Lists of matters to be heard by the Chief Registrar shall be made out and published by being posted on the Courts' notice boards.

6. Legal practitioner may represent party

In any proceedings before the Chief Registrar under the jurisdiction vested in him by this Order, a legal practitioner may represent any party.

1 - Chief Registrar's certificate

7. Certificate

The accounts and transcripts (if any) referred to by the certificate shall be filed therewith.

10. When certificate becomes binding

Every certificate with the accounts (if any) to be filed therewith, shall be transmitted by the Chief Registrar to the Registry for filing and shall henceforth be binding on all parties to the proceedings unless discharged or varied upon an application made to a Judge before the expiration of 8 clear days after the filing of the certificate.

11. Bill of costs

When taxing a bill of costs, the Chief Registrar shall insert in red ink against every item disallowed, reduced or altered by him, the substance of the modification made by him and at the bottom of the bill of costs, he shall certify the net result of the taxation. The bill of costs shall then be transmitted by the Chief Registrar to the Registry for filing and the provisions of rule 10 of this Order shall apply in respect of such certificate.

12. Discharge or variation of certificate after lapse of any time

The Judge may, if the special circumstances of the case require, upon an application, direct a certificate to be discharged or varied at any time after same has become binding on the parties.

A document shall not be filed unless it has endorsed on it, the name and number of the case, the date of filing and whether filed by claimant or defendant, and on being filed such endorsement shall be initialed by the Registrar.

12. How processes are addressed

All warrants and orders of whatever description shall be sufficiently addressed for execution by being directed to the Sheriff; but this provision shall not prevent any order or warrant from being addressed to person by name or to a person named or to officers of Court generally or to a Local Government Authority.

13. No fees where proceedings by government department

No fees are to be taken in respect of any proceedings where such fees would be payable by any Government Department.

14. Regulations

The Regulations regarding fees shall govern the payment and disposal of fees and the duties of Court officers in regard thereto.

15. Saving

Where no provision is made by these Rules or by any other written law, the Court shall adopt such procedure, as will in its view, do substantial justice between the parties concerned.

ARREST OF ABSCONDING DEFENDANT

1. Application

The following rules shall apply to proceedings under Section 31 of the Law.

2. Defendant leaving Nigeria

If in any action where the defendant is about to leave Nigeria, the claimant may, either at the institution of the suit or at any time thereafter until final judgment, apply by ex-parte motion to the Judge for an order that the defendant do show cause why security should not be taken for his appearance to answer and satisfy any judgment that may be passed against him in the suit.

3. Warrant to arrest

(1) If the Court after making such investigation as he may consider necessary shall be of the opinion that there is probable cause for believing that the defendant is about to leave Nigeria and that by reason thereof, the execution of any judgment which may be made against him is likely to be obstructed or delayed, the Judge shall issue a warrant as in Form 32 to bring the defendant before him, that he may show cause why he should not give good and sufficient bail for his appearance.

(2) Civil Form 32

The defendant shall be brought to Court within 2 days of the execution of the warrant.

4. Bail for appearance or satisfaction

If the defendant fails to show cause, the Judge shall order him to give bail for his appearance at any time when called upon while the suit is pending and until execution or satisfaction of any judgment that may be passed against him in the suit or to give bail for the satisfaction of such judgment, and the surety or sureties shall undertake in default of such appearance or satisfaction to pay any sum of money that may be adjudged against the defendant in the suit with costs.

5. Deposit in lieu of bail

(1) Where a defendant offers to deposit a sum of money in lieu of bail for his appearance, sufficient to answer the claim against him, with costs of the suit, the Judge may accept such deposit and direct that same be paid into an interest yielding account in a bank.

(2) Where a defendant offers security other than money in lieu of bail for his appearance, sufficient to answer the claim against him, the Judge may accept such security and make such order as he may deem fit in the circumstance.

6. Committal in default

(1) If the defendant fails to furnish security or offer a sufficient deposit, the Judge may commit him to custody until the decision of the suit or if judgment has been given against the defendant until the execution of the judgment.

(2) Committal to custody under this rule shall not exceed a period of 6 months.

(3) The Judge may at any time upon reasonable cause being shown and upon such terms as to security or otherwise as may seem just, release the defendant.

7. Cost of subsistence of person arrested

The expenses incurred for the subsistence in prison of the person so arrested shall be paid by the claimant- in the action in advance, and the amount so disbursed may be recovered by the claimants in the suit, unless the Judge shall otherwise order. The Judge may release the person so imprisoned on failure by the claimants to pay the subsistence money, or in case of serious illness, order his removal to hospital.

PROCEEDINGS IN FORMA PAUPERIS

1. Application

This Order shall apply to proceedings, in respect of which there is no statutory provision for legal aid.

2. Who may sue or defend in forma pauperis

A Judge may admit a person to sue or defend in forma pauperis if satisfied that his means do not permit him to employ legal representation in the prosecution of his case and that he has reasonable grounds for suing or defending as the case may be.

3. Conditions to be fulfilled

(1) A person seeking relief under this Order shall write an application to the Chief Judge accompanied by an affidavit, signed and sworn to by the applicant himself, stating that by the reason of poverty, he is unable to afford the services of a legal practitioner.

(2) If in the opinion of the Chief Judge, the application is worthy of consideration, the Chief Judge shall appoint a legal practitioner to act for the applicant.

(3) Where a legal practitioner is so appointed, the applicant shall not discharge the legal practitioner except with the leave of the Chief Judge.

4. Fees and costs

Court fees payable by a person admitted to sue or defend in forma pauperis may be remitted either in whole or in part as a Judge may deem fit and a person so admitted to sue or defend shall not, unless the Judge otherwise orders, be liable to pay or be entitled to receive any costs.

5. Procedure to be followed

(1) The legal practitioner shall not, except by leave of the Chief Judge, take or agree to take any payment whatsoever from the applicant or any other person connected with the applicant to the action taken or defended thereunder.

(2) If the applicant pays or agrees to pay any money to any person whatsoever, either in connection with his application or the action taken or defended thereunder, the order appointing the legal practitioner shall be revoked.

(3) If the legal practitioner assigned to the applicant discovers that the applicant is possessed of means beyond those stated in the affidavit, if any, he shall at once report the matter in writing to the Registrar.

6. Revocation of order, discontinuance, etc.

(1) The Chief Judge may, at any time, revoke the order granting the application and thereupon the applicant shall not be entitled to the benefit of this Order in any proceedings to which the application relates unless otherwise ordered.

(2) Neither the applicant nor the legal practitioner assigned to him shall discontinue, settle or compromise the action without the leave of the Judge.

7. Payment to legal practitioner

The Judge may order payment to be made to the legal practitioner out of any money recovered by the applicant or may charge in favour of the legal practitioner, who shall take care that no application or notice is made or given without reasonable cause.

8. Duty of legal practitioner

Every order, notice or application on behalf of the applicant, except an application for the discharge of his legal practitioner, shall be signed by his legal practitioner, who shall take care that no application or notice is made or given without reasonable cause.

9. Appeals

No person shall be permitted to appeal in forma pauperis except by leave of the trial or the Appellate Court and then only on grounds of law; but if so permitted, the provisions of this Order shall apply mutatis mutandis to all proceedings in the appeal.

CHANGE OF LEGAL PRACTITIONER

1. Legal practitioner to conduct cause or matter to final judgment

Every legal practitioner who shall be engaged in any cause or matter, shall be bound to conduct same on behalf of the claimant or defendant as the case may be, by or for whom he shall have been so engaged until final judgment, unless allowed for any special reason to cease acting therein.

2. Application for change of legal practitioner or withdrawal

An application for a change of legal practitioner or withdrawal maybe made by the claimant or defendant or the legal practitioner as the case may be, not less than 3 clear days before the date fixed for hearing.

3. Service of application by legal practitioner

ORDER 47

COSTS

1. Security for costs by defendant

(1) Where on the application of the defendant to an action or other proceedings in the Court, it appears to the Court that:

(a) the claimant is ordinarily resident out of jurisdiction; or

(b) the claimant (not being a claimant who is suing in a representative capacity) is a nominal claimant who is suing for the benefit of some other person and that there is reason to believe that he will be unable to pay the costs of the defendant if ordered to do so; or

(c) subject to sub-rule (2), the claimant's address is not stated in the writ or other originating process or is incorrectly stated therein; or

(d) the claimant has changed his address during the course of the proceedings with a view to evading the consequences of the litigation, then if, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, the Court thinks it just to do so, it may order the claimant to give such security for the defendant's costs of the action or other proceedings as it thinks just.

(2) The Court shall not require a claimant to give security by reason only of paragraph (c) of sub-rule (1) if he satisfies the Court that the failure to state his address or the mis-statement thereof was made innocently and without intention to deceive.

(3) The references in the foregoing rule to a claimant and defendant, shall be construed as references to the person (howsoever on the record) who is in the position of claimant or defendant, may be, in the proceedings in question, including a proceedings on a counter-claim.

2. Manner of giving security

Where an order is made requiring any party to give security for costs, i he security shall be given in such manner, at such time, and on such terms (if any), as the Court may direct.

Costs between Parties

3. Costs in discretion of Court

In every suit, the costs of the whole suit, and of each particular proceedings therein, and the costs of every proceedings in the Court, shall be in the discretion of the Court as regards the person by whom they are to be paid.

4. Powers of Court

The Court shall not order the successful party in a suit to pay to the unsuccessful party, the costs of the whole suit, although the Court may order the successful party, notwithstanding his success in the suit to pay the costs of any particular proceedings therein.

5. Costs out of funds or property

The Court may order any costs to be paid out of any fund or property to which a suit or proceedings relate.

6. Court to determine amount of costs

When the Court adjudges or orders any costs to be paid, the amount of such costs shall be, if practicable, summarily determined by the Court at the time of making the judgment or order named therein.

7. Principles to be observed in fixing costs

In fixing the amount of costs, the principle to be observed is that the party who is right is to be indemnified for the expenses to which he has been necessarily put in establishing his claim, defence or counter-claim, but the Court may take into account all the circumstances of the case.

8. Stay of proceedings till costs paid

Where the Court orders costs to be paid, or security to be given for costs by any party, the Court may if it thinks fit, order all proceedings by or on behalf of that party in the same suit or proceedings, or connected therewith, to be stayed until the costs are paid or security given accordingly, but such order shall not supersede the use of any other lawful method of enforcing payment.

9. Cost against counsel

(1) Where a cause or matter is delayed due to the fault of a counsel, the Court shall award costs as it may deem fit and any costs so awarded shall be paid by the counsel.

(2) A Court may order payment to be made to a counsel, assigned out of any money recovered by the applicant, or may charge in favour of the counsel, assigned on any property recovered by the applicant, such sum as circumstances may require.

10. Taxation of costs

When the Court deems it to be impracticable to determine summarily the amount of any costs which it has adjudged or ordered to be paid, all questions relating thereto may either be determined upon by taxation by the Court itself or may be referred by the Court to a taxing master and be ascertained by him and approved by the Court.

11. Discretion of taxing master

Upon any taxation of costs, the taxing master may, in determining the remuneration to be allowed, have regard, subject to any rule of Court, to the skill, labour and responsibility involved.

12. Taxation

In taxation of costs between parties, nothing shall be allowed in respect of fees paid to the Court beyond what was necessary, having regard to the amount recovered on judgment.

13. Where more than one-sixth of amount of bill of costs deduced on taxation

If upon the taxation of any bill of cost, more than one-sixth is deduced from the amount claimed, the Court may either make no order as to the costs of the taxation or may order the party who filed the bill of costs to pay to the other party or parties the costs of taxation.

14. Costs in action which could have been taken in inferior Court

Where a claimant is successful in any action which might have been brought by him in an inferior tribunal, the Court may take into account, the smaller costs which would have been involved to the parties to the action, if it had been taken in such inferior tribunal and may, in its discretion, grant to the successful claimant, modified costs or no costs and may grant to any other party such extra costs as the court is satisfied, such other party has incurred by reason of the action being taken in the Court instead of in the inferior tribunal, unless the court is of opinion that the action was one which for some special reasons it was proper to bring in the Court.

(2) A copy of every such Will, and of the probate or administration, shall be preserved in a book kept for the purpose in the Registry

18. Will not given out without order of court

(1) No original Will shall be delivered out for any purpose without the direction in writing of the Court where the Will is filed

(2) A certified transcript, under the seal of the Court of the probate or administration with the Will annexed, may be obtained from the Court.

Probate or Administration with Will Annexed

19. Examination of Will as to its execution

(1) On receiving an application for the administration with Will annexed, the Court shall inspect the Will, and see whether it appears to be signed by the testator, or by some other person in his presence, and by his direction, and to be subscribed by two witnesses according to enactment relative thereto, and shall not proceed further if the Will does not appear to be so signed and subscribed.

(2) If the Will appears to be signed and subscribed, the Court shall then refer to the attestation clause (if any), and consider whether the wording thereof states the Will to have been, in fact, executed in accordance with those enactment

20. Proof of execution where attestation clause is the defective

(1) If there is no attestation clause, or if the attestation clause is insufficient, the Court shall require an affidavit from at least one of the subscribing witnesses, if either of them is living, to prove that the Will was, in fact, executed in accordance with those enactments.

(2) The affidavit shall be engrossed and form part of the probate, so that the probate may be a complete document on the face of it.

21. Where Will was not executed according to law

If on perusal of the affidavit, it appears that the Will was not, in fact, executed in accordance with those enactments, the Court shall refuse probate.

22. Evidence on failure of attesting witnesses

If both the subscribing witnesses are dead, or if from other circumstances, such an affidavit cannot be obtained from either of them, resort for such an affidavit shall be had to other persons (if any) present at the execution of the Will; but if no such affidavit can be obtained, proof shall be required of that fact, and of the handwriting of the deceased and of the subscribing witnesses and also of any circumstances raising a presumption in favour of the due execution of the Will

23. Will of blind or illiterate testator

Where the testator is blind or illiterate, the Court shall not grant administration with the Will annexed, unless the Court is first satisfied, by proof or by what appears on the face of the Will, that the Will was read over to the deceased before its execution, or that he had at the time the knowledge of its contents.

24. Interlineations, erasures, obliterations

(1) The Court, on being satisfied that the Will was duly carefully inspected to see whether there are any or alterations, or erasures, or obliterations appearing in to be accounted for.

(2) Interlineations, alterations, erasures, and obliterations are invalid unless they existed in the Will at the time of its execution or unless, if made afterwards, they have been executed and attested in the mode required by the said enactments; or unless they have been made invalid by the re-execution of the Will, or by the subsequent execution of some codicil thereto

(3) Where interlineations, alterations, erasures, or obliterations appear in the Will (unless duly executed or recited in or otherwise identified by the attestation clause), an affidavit in proof of their having existed in the Will before its execution, shall be filed.

(4) If so, satisfactory evidence is adduced respecting the time when an erasure or obliteration was made, and the words erased or obliterated are not entirely defaced, and can, on inspection of the Will, be ascertained, they shall form part of the probate.

(5) Where any words have been erased which might have been of importance, an affidavit shall be required.

25. Documents referred to in a Will: or annexed or attached

(1) Where a Will contains a reference to any document of such a nature as to raise the questions whether it ought or ought not to form a constituent part of the Will, the Court shall require the production of the document, with a view to ascertaining whether or not it is entitled to probate; and if it is not produced, a satisfactory account of its non-production shall be proved.

(2) A document cannot form part of a Will unless it was in existence at the time when the Will was executed.

(3) If there are vestiges of sealing wax or wafers, or other marks on the Will, leading to the inference that some documents have been at sometime annexed or attached thereto, a satisfactory account of them shall be proved, or the production of the document shall be required, and if it is not produced, a satisfactory account of its non-production shall be proved.

26. Executor dying without proving or not appearing

Where a person appointed executor in a Will survives the testator, but either dies without having taken probate, or having been called on by the Court to take probate; does not appear, his right in respect of the executorship wholly ceases; and without further renunciation, the representation to the testator and the administration of his property may go on and be committed as if that person had not been appointed executor.

27. Marking of Will or copy sworn to

(1) Every Will or copy of a Will to which an administrator with the V fill annexed is sworn, shall be marked by the executor or administrator and by the person before whom he is sworn.

(2) Codicils

The provisions respecting Wills apply equally to codicils

28. Viva voce examination of persons making affidavits

(1) In every case where evidence is directed or allowed to be given by affidavit, the Court may require the personal attendance of the deponent, if within the jurisdiction, before the Court, to be examined viva voce respecting the matter of his affidavit.

(2) The examination may take place before any affidavit has been sworn or prepared, if the Court thinks fit.

Administration (not with Will)

29. Form of administration not with Will annexed

(1) The Court in granting letters of administration, shall proceed as far as may be as in cases of probate.

(2) The Court shall ascertain the time and place of the deceased's death, and the value of the property to be covered by the administration

30. Administration bond

(1) The person to whom administration is granted shall give a bond, with two or more responsible sureties, to the Probate Registrar of the Court, conditioned for duly collecting, getting in and administering the personal property of the deceased, such sureties to be to the satisfaction of the Probate Registrar.

(2) The Court may, if it thinks fit, take one surety only.

(3) The bond shall be in a penalty of double the amount under which the personal estate of the deceased is sworn, unless the Court, in any case, thinks it expedient to reduce the amount.

(4) The Court may also in any case, direct that more bonds than one shall be given, so as to limit the liability of any surety to such amount as the Court thinks reasonable.

31. Assignment of bond

The Probate Registrar may, on being satisfied that the condition of the bond has been broken, assign the same to some person, and that person may thereupon sue on the bond in his own name as if it had been originally given to him instead of the Probate Registrar, and may recover thereon, as trustee for persons interested, the full amount recoverable in respect of any breach of the bond.

Administration of Property

32. Administration summons

Any person claiming to be a creditor or legatee, or the next-of-kin, or one of the next-of-kin of a deceased, may apply for and obtain a summons from the Court requiring the executor or administrator (as the case may be) of the deceased to attend before* the Court, and show cause why an order for the administration of the property of the deceased should not be made.

33. Order for administration

(1) On proof of service of the summons or on appearance of the executor or administrator, and on proof of all such other things (if any) as the Court may direct, the Court may, if it thinks fit, make an order for the administration of the property of the deceased.

(2) The Court shall have discretionary power to make or refuse any such order or to give any special directions respecting the carriage or execution of it, and in the case of applications for such an order by two or more different persons or classes of persons, to grant same such one or more of the claimants or classes of claimants, as the Court thinks fit.

(3) If the Court thinks fit, the carriage of the order may subsequently be given to such person, and on such terms, as the court thinks fit

34. Orders relating to property

On making such an order, or any time afterwards, the Court may, if it thinks fit, make any further or other order which may appear requisite to secure the proper collection, recovery for safe keeping and disposal of the property or any part thereof.

35. Administration may be granted to officer

In a case of intestacy, where the special circumstances of the case appear to the Court so to require, the court may, if it thinks fit on the application of any person having interest in the estate of the deceased, or of its own motion, grant letters of administration to an officer of the Court, to a consular officer, or to a person in the service of the Government.

36. Officer to act under direction of court

(1) The officer or person so appointed, shall act under the direction of the court, and shall be indemnified thereby.

(2) The Court shall require and compel him to file in the court, his accounts of his administration at intervals exceeding three months.

37. Court may appoint persons to be administrator

Where a person has died intestate as to his personal estate or leaving a Will affecting personal estate, but without having appointed an executor thereof willing and competent to take probate, or where the executor shall at the time of the death of such person, be resident out of the jurisdiction, and it shall appear to the Court to be necessary or convenient in any such case to appoint some person to be administrator of the personal estate of the deceased or of any part thereof, the Court may appoint such person as it shall think fit, to be such administrator upon his giving such security, if any, as the Court shall direct, and every such administrator may be limited as the Court shall think fit

38. Remuneration of administrator

The Court may direct that any administrator, (with or without the Will annexed), shall receive out of the personal and real estate of the deceased, such reasonable remuneration as the Court shall think fit, not exceeding a fee of N50,000.00 (fifty thousand naira) and in addition thereto, a sum not exceeding five per centum-on the amount of the realised property, or when not converted into money, on the value of the property duly administered and accounted for by him:

Provided that where the Court shall be satisfied that by reason of exceptional circumstances, the administration of the property has required an extraordinary amount of labour to be bestowed on it, the Court may allow, in respect of such property, a higher rate of remuneration.

Administration of Estate of Foreign Citizen

39. Securing and collection of estate

(1) Where any citizen of any country other than Nigeria, dies within the jurisdiction without leaving within the jurisdiction, a High Court (Civil Procedure) Rules of Edo State, 2012 199 widow or next-of-kin, then, if any such person dies within a Government station or had his usual place of residence therein, the Magistrate having jurisdiction within such station, or if he does not die within a Government station, or had not his usual place of residence therein, then the Local Government Secretary in charge of the station in which he died, shall collect and secure all monies and other property belonging to the deceased, and shall then request the Secretary to the Government to inform the nearest consular officer of such country, of the death of the deceased, and transmit to him a list of the money and property of the deceased.

(2) In the case last mentioned in which it is declared that a Local Government Secretary shall collect and secure all money and other property of the deceased, such Local Government Security may appoint any administrative officer attached to his local government or, with his consent, any magistrate or any administrative officer attached to any other Local Government to act in his place.

40. Application by consular officer pr, Person authorised by him to administer estate

Application may be made to the Court by any such consular officer, or by any person authorised by him in writing and under the consular seal, for leave to administer the estate of the deceased, and the Court may make such order as to security for payment of debts and the method of administration as the Court shall think fit, and vary such order when and so often as is expedient.

Administration Generally

41. Accounts to be filed

(1) Every person to whom a grant of probate or letters of administration shall have been made, and every administrator appointed by the Court shall, if called upon by the Court so to do, file in Court the accounts of his administration, and shall thereafter file such further periodic accounts as the Court may direct until the completion of the administration.

(2) Any such executor or administrator who fails within any such period to file his accounts as aforesaid, shall be liable to such penalty not exceeding N 1,000.00 (one thousand naira) as the Court may think fit to impose. Every such fine shall, on non-payment be enforceable by distress, and failing sufficient distress, by imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

(3) When an account is filed in Court under this rule, the Court shall scrutinize such account and if it appears to the Court that by reason of improper unvouched or unjustifiable entries or otherwise, such account is not a full and proper account, the Court may give written notice to the person filing the account, to remedy such defects as there may be within such time as the Court may seem reasonable for the purpose; and on failure to remedy such defects within such time, the person who filed such defective account shall be deemed to have failed to file an account within the meaning of this rule and proceedings may be taken against such person accordingly.

(4) The Court may, on the motion of any party interested, or of its own motion, summon any executor or administrator failing as aforesaid, to show cause why he should not be punished.

(5) The Court may for good cause shown, extend the time for such filing of accounts.

(6) Any executor or administrator who has been granted an extension of time to file such accounts, and who fails within such extended time to file such accounts, shall be liable to the penalty set out above, and the procedure for bringing him before the Court shall be as set out above.

(7) It is the duty of the Probate Registrar to bring to the notice of the Court, the fact that any executor or administrator has failed to file his accounts as required by this rule.

(8) Such accounts shall be open free of charge to the inspection of all persons satisfying the Probate Registrar that they are interested in the administration.

(9) In this rule, the word "accounts" shall mean and include an inventory, an account of the administration, the vouchers in the hands of the executor or administrator relating thereto, and an affidavit in verification.

42. Duties and powers to be performed and exercised by Probate Registrar

The duties imposed and powers conferred upon the Court by rules 5,6,7,9,10,11,12,14,17,18,19,20,21,22,28,31,38,40 and 4(1), (3), (5), (7) and (8) shall be performed and exercised by the Probate Registrar on behalf of the Court, subject to any directions which the Chief Judge may give, restricting or enlarging this delegation to the Probate Registrar of the duties and powers of the Court under this Order:

Provided always that the Court shall have power, either of its own motion, or on the application of any person interested, to review any exercise by the Probate Registrar of the powers delegated to him. On such review, the Court shall have power to cancel anything which may have been done by the Probate

Registrar in such exercise of his delegated powers or otherwise, and make such order on the premise as the Court may seem just.

43. Court may refuse application

The Court may refuse to entertain any application under the last preceding rule, if it considers that there has been unreasonable delay by the applicant in making his application.

44. Grant to be signed by Probate Registrar

The grant of letters of administration under this Order shall be signed by the Probate Registrar on behalf of the Court.

PROBATE (NON-CONTENTIOUS) PROCEDURE

1. Production of testamentary papers

Any person having in his possession or under his control, any paper or writing of any deceased person, being or purporting to be testamentary, shall forthwith deliver the original to the Probate Registrar of the Court. If any person fails to do so for fourteen days after having had knowledge of the death of the deceased, he shall be liable to such fine not exceeding N50,000.00 (fifty thousand naira) as the Court, having regard to the condition of such person so in default and the other circumstances of the case, thinks fit to impose.

2. Court may order production

Where it appears that any paper of the deceased, being or purporting to be testamentary, is in the possession, or under the control of any person, the Court may in a summary way, whether a suit or proceedings respecting probate or administration is pending or not, order him to produce the paper and bring it into Court.

3. Examination respecting paper

Where it appears that there are reasonable grounds for believing that any person has knowledge of any paper being or purporting to be testamentary (although it is not shown that the paper is in his possession or under his control), the Court may in a summary way, whether a suit or proceedings for probate or administration is pending or not, order that he may be examined in respect of same in Court, or on interrogatories, and that he attends for that purpose, and after examination that he produces the paper and brings it into Court.

4. Notice to executor to come in and prove

The Court may of its own motion, or on the application of any person claiming an interest under a Will, give notice to the executors (if any) therein named, to come in and prove the Will, or to renounce probate, and they, or one of them, shall, within fourteen days after notice, come in and prove or renounce accordingly.

5. Liability of executor to come in and prove

If any person named executor in the Will of the deceased takes possession and administers or otherwise deals with any part of the property of the deceased, and does not apply for probate within one month after the death, or after the termination of any suit or dispute respecting probate or administration, he may, independently of any other liability, be deemed guilty of a contempt of Court, and shall be liable to such fine, not exceeding N50,000.00 (fifty thousand naira), as the Court thinks fit to impose.

6. Petition to be made to Probate Registrar

(1) When any person subject to the jurisdiction of the Court dies, all petitions for the grant of probate of his Will and all applications on other matters connected with it, shall be made to the Probate Registrar of the Court at Benin City.

(2) In regard to any such application, the Chief Judge shall have power to request the Court of any Judicial Division, to take measures and make such order as may appear necessary or expedient for the interim preservation of the property of the deceased within such Judicial Division, for the discovery or preservation of the Will of the deceased or for any other purposes connected with the duties of the Court under this Order, and every Court shall carry out any such request as far as practicable and report to the Chief Judge.

7. Application for grants through legal practitioners

(1) A person applying for a grant through a legal practitioner, may apply otherwise than by post at the Probate Registry.

(2) Every legal practitioner through whom an application for a grant is made, shall give the address of his place of business within jurisdiction.

8. Personal applications

(1) A personal applicant may apply for a grant otherwise than by post at the Probate Registry.

(2) A personal applicant may not apply through an agent, whether paid or unpaid, and may not be attended by any person acting or appearing to act as his adviser.

(3) No personal application shall be received or proceeded with if:

(a) it becomes necessary to bring the matter before the Court on motion or by action.

(b) an application has already been made by a legal practitioner on behalf of the applicant and has not been withdrawn.

(c) the Registrar otherwise directs.

(4) After a Will has been deposited in the Registry by a personal applicant, it may not be delivered to the applicant or to any other person unless in special circumstances the Registrar so directs.

(5) A personal applicant shall produce a certificate of the death of the deceased or such other evidence of the death as the Registrar may approve.

(6) A personal applicant shall supply all information necessary to enable the papers leading to the grant to be prepared in the Registry, or may himself prepare such papers and lodge them unsworn.

(7) Unless the Registrar otherwise directs, every oath, affidavit or guarantee required of a personal application shall be shown or executed by all the deponents or sureties before an authorized officer.

9. Duty of Registrar on receiving application for grant

(1) The Registrar shall not allow any grant to be issued until all inquiries which he may deem fit to make have been answered to his satisfaction.

(2) The Registrar may require proof of the identity of the deceased or of the applicant for the grant beyond that contained in the oath.

(3) No grant of probate or of administration with the Will annexed shall be issued within seven days of the death of the deceased.

10. Oath in support of grant

(1) Every application for a grant shall be supported by an oath in the form applicable to the circumstances of the case, which shall be contained in any affidavit sworn by the applicant and by such other persons as the Registrar may require.

(2) Unless otherwise directed by the Registrar, the oath shall state where the deceased died domiciled.

11. Grant in additional name

Where it is necessary to describe the deceased in a grant by some name in addition to his true name, the applicant shall state in the oath, the true name of the deceased and shall depose that some part of the estate, specifying it, was held in the other name, or as to any other reason that there may be for the inclusion of the other name in the grant.

12. Marking of Wills

Every Will in respect of which an application for a grant is made, shall be marked by the signatures of the applicants and the person before whom the oath is sworn, and shall be exhibited to any affidavit which may be required under this Order as to the validity, terms, condition or date of execution of the Will:

Provided that where the Registrar is satisfied that compliance with this rule might result in the loss of the Will, he may allow a Photostat copy thereof to be marked or exhibited in lieu of the original document

13. Engrossment for purpose of record

(1) Where the Registrar considers that in any particular case, a photostat copy of the original Will would not be satisfactory for the purpose of the record, he may require an engrossment suitable for Photostat reproduction to be lodged

(2) Where a Will contains alterations which are not admissible to proof, there shall be lodged an engrossment of the Will in the form in which it is to be proved

(3) Any engrossment lodged under this rule shall reproduce the punctuation, spacing and division into paragraphs of the Will and, if it is one to which sub-rule (2) of this rule applies, it shall be made book wise on durable paper following continuously from page to page.

(4) Where any pencil writing appears on a Will, there shall be lodged a copy of the Will or of the pages or sheets containing the pencil writing, in which there shall be underlined in red ink those portions which appear in pencil in the original.

14. Evidence as to due execution of Will

(1) Where a Will contains no attestation clause or the attestation clause is insufficient or where it appears to the Registrar that there is some doubt about the due execution of the Will, he shall before admitting it to proof, require an affidavit as to due execution from one or more of the attesting witnesses or, if no attesting witness is conveniently available, from any other person who was present at the time the Will was executed.

(2) If no affidavit can be obtained in accordance with the last foregoing paragraph, the Registrar may, if he thinks fit, having regard to the desirability of protecting the interest of any person who may be prejudiced by the Will, accept evidence on affidavit from any person he may think fit, to show that the signature on the Will is the handwriting of the deceased, or of any other matter which may raise a presumption in favour of the due execution of the Will.

(3) If the Registrar, after considering the evidence:

(a) is satisfied that the Will was not duly executed, he shall refuse probate and shall mark the Will accordingly.

(b) is doubtful whether the Will was duly executed, he may refer the matter to the Court on motion.

15. Execution of Will of blind or illiterate testator

Before admitting to proof, a Will which appears to have been signed by a blind or illiterate testator or by another person by direction of the testator, or which for any other reason gives rise to doubt as to the testator having had knowledge of the contents of the Will at the time of its execution, the Registrar shall satisfy himself that the testator had such knowledge.

16. Evidence as to terms, conditions and date of execution of Will

(1) Where there appears in a Will any obliteration, interlineations, or other alteration which is not authenticated in the manner prescribed by law, or by the re-execution of the Will or by the execution of a codicil, the Registrar shall require evidence to show whether the alteration was present at the time the Will was executed and shall give directions as to the form in which the Will is to be proved:

Provided that this sub-rule shall not apply to any alteration which appears to the Registrar to be of no practical importance.

(2) If from any mark on the Will, it appears to me Registrar that some other document has been attached to the Will, or if a Will contains any reference to another document in such terms as to suggest that it ought to be incorporated in the Will, the Registrar may require the document to be produced and may call for such evidence in regard to the attaching or incorporation of the document as he may think fit.

(3) Where there is doubt as to the date on which a Will was executed, the Registrar may require such evidence as he thinks necessary to establish the date.

17. Attempted revocation of Will

Any appearance of attempted revocation of a Will by burning, tearing or otherwise, and every other circumstance leading to a presumption of revocation by the testator, shall be accounted for, to the Registrar's satisfaction.

18. Affidavit as to due execution, terms, etc, of Will

The Registrar may require an affidavit from any person he may think fit, for the purpose of satisfying himself as to any of the matters referred to in rules 15, 16, and 17 and in any such affidavit sworn by an attesting witness or other person present at the time of the execution of a Will, the deponent shall depose to the manner in which the Will was executed.

19. Wills of persons on military service and seamen

If it appears to the Registrar that there is prima facie evidence that a Will is one to which Section 9 of the Wills Act, 1837, or any provision of the equivalent enactment in force in the State applies, the Will may be admitted to proof, if the Registrar is satisfied that it was made by the testator in accordance with the provisions of that section or enactment, as the case may be.

20. Evidence of foreign law

Where evidence as to law of any country or territory outside the State is required on any application for a grant, the Registrar may accept an affidavit from any person whom, having regard to the particulars of his knowledge or experience given in the affidavit, he regards as suitably qualified to give expert evidence of the law in question.

21. Order of priority for grant where deceased left a Will

Where the deceased died after the commencement of this Order, the person or persons entitled to a grant of probate or administration with the Will annexed, shall be determined in accordance with the following order of priority:

- (1) The executor;
- (2) Any residuary legatee or devisee holding in trust for any other person;
- (3) Any residuary legatee or devisee for life;
- (4) The ultimate residuary legatee or devisee, including one entitled on the happening of any contingency, or where the residue is not wholly disposed of by the Will, any person entitled to share in the residue not so disposed of, or the personal representative of any such person:

Provided that-

- (a) unless the Registrar otherwise directs, a residuary legatee or devisee whose legacy or devise is vested in interest, shall be preferred to one entitled on the happening of a contingency; and
- (b) where the residue is not in terms wholly disposed of, the Registrar may, if he is satisfied that the testator has nevertheless disposed of the whole or substantially the whole of the estate as ascertained at the time of the application for the grant, allow a grant to be made (subject however to rule 53) to any legatee or devisee entitled to, or to a share in the estate so disposed of, without regard to the persons entitled to share in any residue not disposed of by the Will;

(5) Any specific legatee or devisee or any creditor or subject to sub-rule (3) of rule 44, the personal representative of any such person or, where the estate is not wholly disposed of by Will, any person who, notwithstanding that the amount of the estate is such that he has no immediate beneficial interest therein, may have a beneficial interest in the event of an accretion thereto;

(6) Any specific legatee or devisee entitled on the happening of any contingency, or any person having no interest under the Will of the deceased who would have been entitled to a grant if the deceased had died wholly intestate.

22. Grant to attesting witnesses, etc.

Where a gift to any person fails by reason of the fact that he is an attesting witness or the spouse of an attesting witness, such person shall not have any right to a grant as a beneficiary named in the Will, without prejudice to his right to a grant in any other capacity.

23. Value of property

Every applicant for a grant of probate or letter of administration with the Will attached, shall file in the Court a true declaration of all the personal property of the deceased and the value thereof:

Provided that for the purpose of the fees payable on probate and such letters of administration, the value of the property in respect of which the grant is made shall be deemed not to include-

(a) any gratuity payable by the Government of the Federation of Nigeria, or the Government of a State to the estate of any person formerly employed by either of such Governments or by a Statutory Corporation; and

(b) any sum of money payable to an estate from a provident fund established under the provisions of any written law.

24. Answers required before grant

In no case, shall the Court issue probate or letters of administration with the Will attached until all inquiries which the Court deems fit to institute, have been answered to its satisfaction. The Court shall, however, afford as great, a facility for the obtaining of probate or such letters of administration as is consistent with due regard to the prevention of error and fraud.

25. Notice to prohibit grant

A notice to prohibit a grant of probate or administration with the Will attached, may be filed in the Court.

26. Effect of notice

(1) The notice shall remain in force three months only from the day of filing, but it may be renewed from time to time. The notice shall not affect a grant made on the day on which the notice is filed. The person filing the notice shall be warned in writing, delivered at the place mentioned in the notice as his address.

(2) Citations

27. Form of suits

Suits respecting probate or administration shall be instituted and carried on as nearly as may be in the like manner and subject to the same rules of procedure as suits in respect of ordinary claims.

Custody of Wills

28. Testator may deposit Will

Any person may, in his lifetime, deposit for safe custody in the Court at Benin City his own Will, sealed up under his own seal and the seal of the Court.

29. Custody of Wills of which probate is granted

Every original Will, of which probate or administration with Will annexed is granted, shall be filed and kept in the probate registry, in such manner as to secure at once, the due preservation and convenient inspection of same. A copy of every such Will, and of the probate or administration, shall be preserved in a book kept for the purpose in the registry.

30. Will not given out without order of Court

No original Will shall be delivered out for any purpose without the direction in writing of the Court where the Will is filed. A certified transcript, under the seal of the Court of the Probate or Administration with the Will annexed, may be obtained from the Court.

Probate or Administration with Will Annexed

31. Examination of Will as to its execution

(1) On receiving an application for probate or for administration with Will annexed, the Court shall inspect the Will, and see whether it appears to be signed by the testator, or by some other person in his presence, and by his direction, and to be subscribed by two witnesses according to the enactments relative thereto, and shall not proceed further if the Will does not appear to be so signed and subscribed.

(2) If the Will appears to be so signed and subscribed, the Court shall then refer to the attestation clause (if any), and consider whether the wording thereof states the Will to have been, in fact, executed in accordance with those enactments.

32. Proof of execution where attestation clause is defective

If there is no attestation clause, or if the attestation clause is insufficient, the Court shall require an affidavit from at least one of the subscribing witnesses, if either of them is living, to prove that the Will was, in fact, executed in accordance with those enactments. The affidavit shall be engrossed and form part of the probate, so that the probate may be a complete document on the face of it.

33. Where Will not executed according to law

If on perusal of the affidavit it appears that the Will was not, in fact, executed in accordance with those enactments, the Court shall refuse probate.

34. Evidence on failure of attesting witnesses

If both subscribing witnesses are dead, or if from other circumstances, such an affidavit cannot be obtained from either of them, resort to such an affidavit shall be had from other persons (if any) present at the execution of the Will; but if no such affidavit can be obtained, proof shall be required of that fact, and of the handwriting of the deceased and of the subscribing witnesses, and also of any circumstances raising a presumption in favour of the due execution of the Will.

35. Will of blind or illiterate testator

Where the testator was blind or illiterate, the Court shall not grant probate of the Will, or administration with the Will annexed, unless the Court is first satisfied, by proof or by what appears on the face of the Will, that the Will was read over to the deceased before its execution, or that he had at that time knowledge of its contents.

36. Interlineations, erasures, obliterations

The Court, on being satisfied that the Will was duly executed, shall carefully inspect it to see whether there are any interlineations or alterations, or erasures, or obliterations appearing in it, and requiring to be accounted for. Interlineations, alterations, erasures, and obliterations are invalid unless they existed in the Will at the time of its execution or unless, if made afterwards, they have been executed and attested in the mode required by the said enactments, or unless they have been made valid by the re-execution of the Will, or by the subsequent execution of some codicil thereto. Where interlineations, alterations, erasures or obliterations appear in the Will (unless duly executed or recited in or otherwise identified by the attestation clause), an affidavit in proof of their having existed in the Will before its execution, shall be filed. If no satisfactory evidence is adduced respecting the time when an erasure or obliteration was made, and the words erased or obliterated are not entirely effaced, and can, on inspection of the Will, be ascertained, they shall form part of the probate. Where any words have been erased which might have been of importance, an affidavit shall be required.

37. Documents referred to in a Will

(1) Where a Will contains a reference to any document of such a nature as to raise a question whether it ought or ought not to form a constituent part of the Will, the Court shall require the production of the document, with a view to ascertaining whether or not it is entitled to probate and if it is not produced, a satisfactory account of its non-production shall be proved. A document cannot form part of a Will unless it was in existence at the time when the Will was executed.

(2) If there are vestiges of sealing wax or wafers, or other marks on the Will, leading to the inference that some document has been at some time annexed or attached thereto, a satisfactory account of them shall be proved, or the production of the document shall be required, and if not produced, a satisfactory account of its non-production shall be proved.

38. Executor dying without proving or not appearing

Where a person appointed executor in a Will survives the testator, but either dies without having taken probate, or having been called on by the Court to take probate, does not appear, his right in respect of the executorship wholly ceases, and without further renunciation, the representation to the testator and the administration of his property may go on and be committed as if that person had not been appointed executor.

39. Marking of Will or copy sworn to

(1) Every Will or copy of a Will to which an executor or an administrator with the Will annexed is sworn, shall be marked by the executor or administrator and by the person before whom he is sworn.

(2) Codicils

The provisions respecting Wills apply equally to codicils.

40. Viva voce examination of persons making affidavits

In every case where evidence is directed or allowed to be given by affidavit, the Court may require the personal attendance of the deponent, if within the jurisdiction, before the Court, to be examined viva voce respecting the matter of his affidavit. The examination may take place before any affidavit has been sworn or prepared if the Court thinks fit.

41. Right of assignee to a grant

(1) Where all the people entitled to the estate of the deceased under a Will have assigned their whole interest in the estate to one or more persons, the assignee or assignees shall replace in the order of priority for a grant of probate, the assignor or if there are two or more assignors, the assignors with the highest priority, in the absence of a proving executor.

(2) Where there are two or more assignees, probate may be granted with the consent of the others to anyone or more (not exceeding four) of them.

(3) In any case where probate is applied for by an assignee, a copy of the instrument of assignment shall be lodged in the registry.

42. Joinder of administrator

In the absence of a proving executor:

(a) an application to join with a person entitled to a grant of administration with the Will attached, by a person in a lower degree shall, in default of renunciation by all persons entitled in priority to such last-mentioned person, be made to the Registrar and shall be supported by an affidavit by the personal representative and such other evidence as the Registrar may require.

(b) an application to join with a person entitled to a grant of administration with the Will attached, by a person having the right thereto, shall be made to the Registrar and shall be supported by an affidavit by the person entitled, the consent of the person proposed to be joined as personal representative and such other evidence as the Registrar may require:

Provided that there may, without any such application, be joined with a person entitled to administration with the Will attached-

(a) on the renunciation of all other persons entitled to join in grant, any kin of the deceased having no beneficial interest in the estate;

(b) unless the Registrar otherwise directs, any person whom the guardian of an infant may nominate for the purpose;

(c) a trust corporation.

43. Additional personal representatives

(1) An application to add a personal representative, shall be made to the Registrar and shall be supported by an affidavit by the applicant, the consent of the person proposed to be added as personal representative and such other evidence as the Registrar may require.

(2) On any such application, the Registrar may direct that a note shall be made on the original grant, of the addition of a further personal representative, or he may impound or revoke the grant or make such other order as the circumstances of the case may require.

44. Grants where two or more persons entitled in same degree

(1) A grant may be made to any person entitled thereto without notice to other persons entitled in the same degree.

(2) A dispute between persons entitled to a grant in the same degree, shall be brought by application before the Registrar.

(3) If an application under this rule is brought before the Registrar, he shall not allow any grant to be sealed until such application is fully disposed of.

(4) Unless the Registrar otherwise directs, probate or administration with the Will attached, shall be granted to a living person in preference to the personal representative of a deceased person who would, if living, be entitled in the same degree, and to a person not under disability in preference to an infant entitled in the same degree.

45. Exceptions to rules as to priority

(1) Nothing in rules 21, 42 or 44 shall operate to prevent a grant being made to any person to whom a grant may, or may require to be made under any enactment.

(2) The rules mentioned in the last foregoing sub-rules shall not apply where the deceased died domiciled outside the State, except in a case to which the proviso to rule 47 applies.

46. Grants where two or more persons entitled in same degree

When the beneficial interest in the whole estate of the deceased is vested absolutely in a person who has renounced his right to a grant of administration with the Will attached, and has consented to such administration being granted to the person or persons who would be entitled to his estate if he himself had died intestate, administration may be granted to such person or one or more (not exceeding four) of such persons:

Provided that a surviving spouse shall not be regarded as a person in whom the estate has vested absolutely unless he would be entitled to the whole of the estate, whatever its value may be.

47. Where the deceased died domiciled outside the State

Where the deceased died domiciled outside the State, the Registrar may order that a grant be issued:

(1) to the person entrusted with the administration of the estate by the Court having jurisdiction at the place where the deceased dies domiciled;

(2) to the person entitled to administer the estate by the law of the place where the deceased died domiciled;

(3) if there is no such person as is mentioned in sub-rule (1) or (2) of this rule or if in the opinion of the Registrar, the circumstances so require, to such person as the Registrar may direct;

(4) if a grant is required to be made to, or if the Registrar in his discretion considers that a grant should be made to, not less than two administrators, to such person as the Registrar may direct jointly with such person as is mentioned in sub-rule (1) or (2) of this rule or with any other persons provided that without any such order as aforesaid;

(a) probate of any Will which is admissible to proof may be granted-

(i) if the Will is in English or in the local vernacular, to the executor named therein;

(ii) if the Will describes the duties of a named person in terms sufficient to constitute him executor according to the tenor of the Will, to that person;

(b) where the whole of the estate in the State consists of immovable property, a grant limited thereto may be made in accordance with the law would have been applicable if the deceased had died domiciled in the State

48. Grant to attorneys

(1) Where a person entitled to a grant resides outside the

State, a grant may be made to his lawfully constituted attorney, for his use and benefit, limited until such person shall obtain a grant or in such other way as the Registrar may direct:

Provided that where the person so entitled is an executor, administration shall not be granted to his attorney without notice to the other executors, if any.

(2) Where the Registrar is satisfied by affidavit that it is desirable for a grant to be made to the lawfully constituted attorney of a person entitled to a grant and resident in the State, he may direct that a grant be made to the attorney for the use and benefit of such person, limited until such person shall obtain a grant or in such other way as the Registrar may direct.

49. Grants on behalf of infants

(1) Where the person to whom a grant would otherwise be made is an infant, a grant for his use and benefit until he attains the age of eighteen years shall, subject to sub-rules (3) and (5) of this rule, be granted:

(a) to both parents of the infant jointly, or to any guardian appointed by a Court of competent jurisdiction; or

(b) if there is no such guardian able and willing to act and the infant has attained the age of sixteen years, to any next-of-kin nominated by the infant or, where the infant is a married woman, to any such next-of-kin or to her husband, if nominated by her.

(2) Any person nominated under paragraph (b) of the last foregoing sub-rule, may represent any other infant whose next-of-kin he is, being an infant below the age of sixteen years entitled in the same degree as the infant who made the nomination.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in this rule, administration for the use and benefit of the infant until he attains the age of eighteen years may be granted to any person assigned as guardian, by order of a Court in default of, or jointly with, or to the exclusion of, any such person as is mentioned in sub-rule (1) of this rule; and such an order may be made on application by the intended guardian, who shall file an affidavit in support of the application and, if required by the Court, an affidavit of fitness sworn by a responsible person.

(4) Where a grant is required to be made to not less than two persons and there is only one person competent and willing to take a grant under the foregoing provisions of this rule, a grant may, unless the Registrar otherwise directs, be made to such person jointly with any other person nominated by him as a fit and proper person to take the grant.

(5) Where an infant who is sole executor has no interest in the residuary estate of the deceased, administration with the Will attached for the use and benefit of the infant until he attains the age of eighteen years shall, unless the Registrar otherwise directs, be granted to the person entitled to the residuary estate.

(6) An infant's right to administration may be renounced only by a person assigned as guardian under sub-rule (3) of this rule authorised to renounce by the Registrar.

50. Grants where infant is co-executor

(1) Where one of two or more executors is an infant, probate may be granted to the other executor or executors not under disability, with power reserved for making the like grant to the infant on his attaining the age of eighteen years, and administration for the use and benefit of the infant until he attains the age of eighteen years may be granted under rule 49 if and only if the executors who are not under disability renounce or, on being cited to accept or refuse a grant, fail to make an effective application therefore.

(2) An infant executor's right to probate on attaining the age of eighteen years may not be renounced by any person on his behalf.

51. Grants in case of mental or physical incapacity

(1) Where the Registrar is satisfied that a person entitled to a grant is by reason of mental or physical incapacity, incapable of managing his affairs, a grant for his use and benefit, limited during his incapacity or in such other way as the Registrar may direct, may be made:

(a) in the case of mental incapacity, to the person authorised by the Court to apply for the grant; or

(b) where there is no person so authorised, or in the case of physical incapacity-

(i) if the person incapable is entitled as executor and has no interest in the residuary estate of the deceased, to the person entitled to such residuary estate;

(ii) if the person incapable is entitled otherwise than as executor or is an executor having an interest in the residuary estate of the deceased, to the person who would be entitled to a grant in respect of his estate if he has died intestate; or to such other person as the Registrar may by order direct.

(2) Unless the Registrar otherwise directs, no grant shall be made under this rule unless all persons entitled in the same degree as the person incapable, have been cleared off.

(3) In the case of mental incapacity, notice of intended application for a grant under this rule shall, unless the Registrar otherwise directs, be given to the person alleged to be so incapable

52. Renunciation of the probate and administration

(1) Renunciation of probate by an executor, shall not operate as renunciation of any right which he may have to grant of administration in some other capacity unless he expressly renounces such right

(2) Unless the Registrar otherwise directs, no person who has renounced a grant in one capacity may obtain a grant in some other capacity

(3) A renunciation of a probate or administration may be retracted at any time on the order of the Registrar

Provided that, only in exceptional circumstances, may leave be given to an executor to retract a renunciation of probate after a grant has been made to some other person entitled in a lower degree

53. Notice to state of intended application for grant

In any case in which it appears that the state is or may be beneficially interested in the estate of a deceased person, notice of intended application for a grant, shall be given by the applicant to the Attorney-General, and the Registrar may direct that no grant shall be issued within a specified time after the notice has been given.

54. Guarantee

(1) The Registrar shall not require a guarantee as a condition of making a grant except where it is proposed to make it:

(a) by virtue of sub-rule (5) of rule 21; to a creditor or the personal representative of a creditor, or to a person who has no immediate beneficial interest in the estate of the deceased, but may have such an interest in the event of an accretion to the estate;

- (b) under rule 46; to a person or some of the persons who would, if the person beneficially entitled to the whole of the estate died intestate, be entitled to his estate;
- (c) under rule 48; to the attorney of a person entitled to a grant;
- (d) under rule 49; for the use and benefit of a minor,
- (e) under rule 51; for the use and benefit of a person who is by reason of mental or physical incapacity, incapable of managing his affairs;
- (f) to an applicant who appears to the Registrar, to be resident elsewhere other than in the State; or
- (g) except where the Registrar considers that there are special circumstances making it desirable to require a guarantee.

(2) Notwithstanding that it is proposed to make a grant as aforesaid, a guarantee shall not be required, except in special circumstances, on an application for administration where the applicant or one of the applicants is the Administrator-General or trust corporation.

(3) Every guarantee entered into by a surety for the purposes of this Order, shall be in Form 38.

Civil Form 38

(4) Except where the surety is a corporation, the signature of the surety on every such guarantee shall be attested by an authorised officer, commissioner for oaths or any other person authorised by law to administer an oath.

(5) Unless the Registrar otherwise directs:

(a) if it is decided to require a guarantee, it shall be given by two sureties, except where the gross value of the estate does not exceed N50,000.00 (fifty thousand naira) or a corporation is a proposed surety, and in those cases one will suffice;

(b) no person shall be accepted as a surety unless he is resident in the State;

(c) no officer of the judiciary shall become a surety;

(d) the limit of the liability of the surety or sureties under a guarantee, shall be the gross amount of the estate, as sworn on the application for the grant;

(e) every surety, other than a corporation, shall justify his status by an affidavit of means.

(6) Where the proposed surety is a corporation, there shall be filed an affidavit by the proper officer of the corporation to the effect that, it has power to act as surety and has executed the guarantee in the manner prescribed by its constitution and containing sufficient information as to the financial position of the corporation to satisfy the Registrar, that its assets are sufficient to satisfy all claims which may be made against it under any guarantee which it has given or is likely to give.

55. Reseating

(1) An application for the resealing of probate or administration with the Will attached, granted by the Court of a place not within the State, shall be made by the person to whom the grant was made or by any person authorised in writing to apply on his behalf.

(2) On any such application:

(a) an Inland Revenue affidavit shall be lodged as if the application were one for a grant in the State;

(b) the application shall be advertised in such manner as the Registrar may direct, and shall be supported by an oath sworn by the person making the application.

(3) On an application for the resealing of such a grant:

(a) the Registrar shall not require sureties except where it appears to him that, the grant is made to a person, or for a purpose mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (f) of sub-rule (1) of rule 54, or except where he considers that there are special circumstances making it desirable to require sureties;

(b) sub-rule (4) of rule 8 and sub-rules (2), (4), (5) and (6) of rule 54 shall apply with any necessary modifications; and

(c) a guarantee entered into by a surety shall be in Form 38.

Civil Form 39

(4) Except by leave of the Registrar, no grant shall be resealed unless it was made to such a person as is mentioned in sub-rule (1) or (2) of rule 47 or to a person to whom a grant could be made under a proviso to that rule.

(5) No limited or temporary grant, shall be resealed except by leave of the Registrar.

(6) Every grant lodged for resealing, shall include a copy of any Will to which the grant relates or shall be accompanied by a copy thereof, certified as correct by or under the authority of the Court by which the grant was made.

(7) The Registrar shall send notice of the resealing to the Court which made the grant.

(8) Where notice is received in the registry from outside the State of the resealing of a grant made in the State, notice of any amendment or revocation of the grant, shall be sent to the Court by which it was resealed.

56. Amendment and revocation of grant

If the Registrar is satisfied that a grant should be amended or revoked, he may make an order accordingly:

Provided that, except in special circumstances, no grant shall be amended or revoked under this rule except on the application or with the consent of the person to whom the grant was made.

57. Caveats

(1) Any person who wishes to ensure that no grant is sealed without notice to himself, may enter a caveat in the registry.

(2) Any person who wishes to enter a caveat (in this rule called "the caveator") may do so by completing Form 40 in the appropriate book at the registry and obtaining an acknowledgment or entry from the proper officer, or by sending through the post, at his own risk, a notice in Form 38 to the registry in which he wishes the caveat to be entered.

Civil Form 40

(3) Where the caveat is entered by a legal practitioner on the caveator's behalf, the name of the caveator shall be stated in Form 40.

Civil Form 40

(4) Except as otherwise provided by this rule, a caveat shall remain in force for six months from the date on which it is entered, and shall then cease to have effect without prejudice to the entry of a further caveat.

(5) The Registrar shall maintain an index of caveats entered in the Registry, and on receiving an application for a grant in the Registry, he shall cause the index to be searched, and shall notify the applicant in the event of a caveat having been entered against the sealing of a grant for which application has been made.

(6) The Registrar shall not allow any grant to be sealed if he has knowledge of an effective caveat in respect thereof:

Provided that no caveat shall operate to prevent the sealing of a grant on the day on which the caveat is entered.

(7) A caveator may be warned by the issue from the Registry, of a warning in Form 41, at the instance of any person interested (in this rule called "person warning") which shall state his interest (in this rule called "the person warning") which shall state his interest and, if he claims under a Will the date of the Will, and shall require the caveator to give particulars of any contrary interest which he may have in the estate of the deceased; and every warning or a copy thereof, shall be served on the caveator.

Civil Form 41

(8) A caveator who has not entered an appearance to a warning, may at any time withdraw his caveat, by giving notice at the registry and the caveat shall thereupon cease to have effect, and if he has been warned, the caveator shall forthwith give notice of withdrawal of the caveat to the person warning.

(9) A caveator having an interest contrary to that of the person warning may, within eight days of service of the warning upon him inclusive of the day of such service, or at any time thereafter if no affidavit has been filed under sub-rule (11) if this rule, enter an appearance in the Registry by filling Form 42, and making an entry in the appropriate book, and shall forthwith thereafter serve on the person warning, a copy of Form 42 sealed with the seal of Registrar

(10) A caveator having no interest contrary to that of the person warning but wishing to show cause against the sealing of a grant warning but wishing to show against the sealing of a grant to that's person may, within eight of service of the warning upon him inclusive of the day of such service, or at any time

thereafter if no affidavit has been filed under sub-rule (11) of this rule, issue and serve a summons for directions, which shall be returnable before the Registrar

(11) If the time limited for appearance has expired, and the caveator has not entered an appearance, the person warning may file in the Registry, an affidavit showing that the warning was duly served and that he has not received a summons for directions under the last foregoing sub-rule, and thereupon the caveat shall cease to have effect.

(12) Upon the commencement of a probate action, the Probate Registrar shall, in respect of each caveat then in force (other than a caveat entered by the claimant), give to the caveator, notice of the commencement of the action and, upon the subsequent entry of a caveat at any time when the action is pending, shall likewise notify the caveator, of the existence of the action.

(13) Unless the Registrar otherwise directs:

(a) Any caveat in force at the commencement of proceedings by way of citation or motion shall, unless withdrawn pursuant to sub-rule (8) of this rule, remain in force until an application for a grant is made by the person shown to be entitled thereto by the decision of the Court in such proceedings, and upon such application, any caveat entered by a party who had notice of the proceedings, shall cease to have effects;

(b) Any caveat in respect of which an appearance to a warning has been entered, shall remain in force until the commencement of a probate action;

(c) The commencement of a probate action shall, whether or not any caveat has been entered, operate to prevent the sealing of a grant until application for a grant is made by the person shown to be entitled thereto by the decision of the Court in such action, and upon such application, any caveat entered by a party who had notice of the action or by a caveator who was given notice under sub-rule (12) of this rule, shall cease to have effect.

(14) Except with the leave of the Registrar, no further caveat may be entered by or on behalf of any caveator whose caveat has ceased to have effect under sub-rule (11) or (13) of this rule.

58. Citations

(1) Every citation shall be settled by the Registrar before being issued.

(2) Every averment in a citation and such other information as the Registrar may require, shall be certified by an affidavit sworn to by the person issuing the citation (in this Order called "the citor") or, if there be two or more citors, by one of them:

Provided that the Registrar may, in special circumstances, accept an affidavit sworn to by the citor's legal practitioner.

(3) The citor shall enter a caveat before issuing a citation.

(4) Every citation shall be served personally on the person cited unless the Registrar, on cause shown affidavit, directs some other mode of service, which may include notice by advertisement.

(5) Every Will referred to in a citation, shall be lodged in the Registry before the citation is issued, except where the Will is not in the citor's possession and the Registrar is satisfied that it is impracticable to require it to be lodged.

(6) A person who has been cited to appear may, within eight days of service of the citation upon him inclusive of the day of such service, or at any time thereafter if no application has been made by the citor under sub-rule (5) of rule 59 or sub-rule (2) of rule 60, enter an appearance in the Registry, by filing Form 42 and making an entry in the appropriate book and shall forthwith thereafter serve the citor, a copy of Form 42 held with the seal of the Registry.

Civil Form 42

59. Citation to accept or refuse to take a grant

(1) A citation to accept or refuse a grant may be issued at the instance of any person who would himself be entitled to a grant, in the event of the person cited renouncing his right thereto.

(2) Where power to make a grant to an executor has been reserved, a citation calling on him to accept or refuse a grant, may be issued at the instance of the executors who have proved the Will or the executors of at least survivor of deceased executors who have proved.

(3) A citation calling on an executor who has intermeddled in the estate of the deceased, to show cause why he should not be ordered to take a grant, may be issued at the instance of any person interested in the estate at any time after the expiration of six months from the death of the deceased.

(4) A person cited, who is willing to accept or take a grant, may apply ex-parte to the Registrar for an order for a grant, on filing an affidavit showing that he has entered an appearance and that he has not been served by the citor, with notice of any application for a grant to himself.

(5) If the time limited for appearance has expired and the person cited has not entered an appearance, the citor may:

(a) in the case of a citation under sub-rule (1) of this rule, apply to the Registrar for an order for a grant to himself;

(b) in the case of a citation under sub-rule (2) of this rule, apply to the Registrar for an order that a note be made on the grant that the executor in respect of whom power was reserved, has been duly cited and has not appeared and that all his rights in respect of the executorship have wholly ceased;

(c) in the case of a citation under sub-rule (3) of this rule, apply to the Registrar by summons, (which shall be served on the person cited), for an order requiring such person to take a grant within a specified time or a grant to himself or some other person specified in the summons.

(6) An application under the last foregoing sub-rule (5) shall be supported with an affidavit showing that the citation was duly served and that the person cited has not entered an appearance.

(7) If the person cited has entered an appearance but has not applied for a grant under sub-rule (4) of this rule, or has failed to prosecute his application with reasonable diligence, the citor may:

(a) in the case of a citation under sub-rule (1) of this rule, apply by summons to the Registrar, for an order for a grant to himself;

(b) in the case of a citation under sub-rule (2) of this rule, apply by summons to the Registrar, for an order striking out the appearance and for the endorsement on the grant of such a note as is mentioned in paragraph (b) of sub-rule (5) of this rule;

(c) in the case of a citation under sub-rule (3) of this rule, apply by summons to the Registrar, for an order requiring the person cited, to take a grant within a specified time or for a grant to himself or some other person specified in the summons and the summons shall be served on the person cited in each case.

60. Citation to propound a Will

(1) A citation to propound a Will, shall be directed to the executors named in the Will and to all persons interested thereunder and may be issued at the instance of any citor having an interest contrary to that of the executors or such other persons.

(2) If the time limited for appearance has expired, the citor may:

(a) in the case where no person cited has entered an appearance, apply to the Registrar, for an order for a grant as if the Will were invalid;

(b) in the case of a citation under sub-rule (2) of rule 59, apply by summons to the Registrar, for an order striking out the appearance and for the endorsement on the grant, of such a note as is mentioned in paragraph (b) of sub-rule (5) of rule 59;

(c) in the case of a citation under sub-rule (3) of rule 59, apply by summons to the Registrar, for an order requiring the person cited, to take a grant within a specified time or for a grant to himself or some other person specified in the summons, and the summons shall be served on the persons cited in each case.

61. Address for service

All caveats, citations, warnings and appearances shall contain an address for service within the jurisdiction.

62. Application for order to bring in a Will or to attend for examination

(1) An application for an order, requiring a person to bring in a Will or to attend for examination may, unless a probate action has been commenced^ be made to the Court by summons, which shall be served on every such person as aforesaid.

(2) An application for the issue by the Registrar, of a subpoena to bring in a Will shall be supported by an affidavit setting out the grounds of the application, and if any person served with the subpoena denies that the Will is in his possession or control, he may file an affidavit to that effect.

63. Limited grants

An application for an order for a grant limited to part of an estate, may be made to the Registrar and shall be supported by an affidavit stating:

(a) whether the application is made in respect of the real estate only or any part thereof, or real estate together with personal estate, or in respect of a trust estate only;

(b) whether the estate of the deceased is known to be insolvent;

(c) that the persons entitled to a grant in respect of the whole estate in priority to the applicant, have been cleared off.

64. Grants of administration ad colligenda bona

An application for an order, for grant of administration ad colligenda bona, may be made to the Registrar, and shall be supported by an affidavit setting out the grounds of the application.

65. Application for leave to swear to death

An application for leave to swear to the death of a person in whose estate, a grant is sought, may be made to the Registrar and shall be supported by an affidavit setting out the grounds of the application and containing particulars of any policies of insurance effected on the life of the presumed deceased.

66. Grants in respect of codicils and copies of Wills

(1) An application for an order, admitting to proof a codicil, or a Will contained in a copy, a completed draft, a reconstruction or other evidence of its contents where the original Will is not available, may be made to the Registrar:

Provided that, where a Will is not available owing to its being retained in the custody of a foreign court or official, a duly authenticated copy of the Will may be admitted to proof without any such order as aforesaid.

(2) The application shall be supported by an affidavit setting out the grounds of the application and by such evidence on affidavit as the applicant can adduce as to:

(a) the due execution of the Will;

(b) its existence after the death of the testator; and

(c) the accuracy of the copy or other evidence of the contents of the Will; together with any consent in writing to the application given by any person not under disability who would be prejudiced by the grant.

67. Grants durante absentia

An application for an order, for a grant of special administration where a personal representative is residing outside the State, shall be made to the Court, on motion.

68. Notice of election by surviving spouse to redeem life interest

(1) Where a surviving spouse who is the sole personal representative of the deceased is entitled to a life interest in part of the residuary estate, and elects to have the life interest redeemed, he may give written notice of the election to the Registrar, by filing a notice in Form 43 in the Registry.

Civil Form 43

(2) A notice filed under this rule shall be noted on the grant and the record which shall be open to inspection.

69. Issue of copies of original Wills and other documents

(1) Where copies are required of original Wills or other documents deposited under the provisions of any written law, such copies may be photostat copies sealed with the seal of the registry and issued as office copies and, where such office copies are available, copies certified under the hand of a Registrar to be true copies shall be issued only if it is required that the seal of the Court be affixed thereto.

- (3) Evidence taken in pursuance of rule 18 shall be taken as if it were evidence taken at the trial before the lower court.

(4) When forwarding to the Court, any additional evidence taken by a lower court in pursuance of rule 18, the lower court may express its opinion on the demeanour of the witnesses and of the value of their evidence and may also, if it is the same court against whose decision the appeal has been made, state whether or not it would have come to a different decision had the additional evidence been brought forward at the trial.

20. Fees

The fees in the second schedule shall be chargeable in civil appeals, save where same would have to be paid by a government officer acting in his official capacity or where the lower court or the Court waives or remits same on the ground of poverty of the person chargeable therewith where it appears that there are substantial grounds of appeal.

2nd Schedule

21. Allowances to witnesses

Allowances may be made to witnesses in accordance with the provisions of the third schedule.

3rd Schedule

22. Stay of execution

(1) On application being made for stay of execution under any enactment establishing the lower court, the lower court or the Court, may impose one or more of the following conditions:

(a) That the appellant shall deposit a sum fixed by the Court not exceeding the amount of money or the value of the property affected by the decision or judgment appealed from, or give security to the satisfaction of the Court for the said sum;

(b) That the appellant shall deposit a sum equal to the amount of the costs allowed against him or give security to the satisfaction of the Court for the said sum;

(c) That the appellant shall, where the decision or judgment appealed from relates to possession of land or houses, give security to the satisfaction of the Court for the performance of the decision or judgment in the event of the appeal being dismissed;

(d) That the appellant's property shall be seized and attached pending the making of a deposit or the giving of security as aforesaid, including a deposit or security for the expenses incidental to the seizure and attachment;

(e) That the appellant's property shall be seized and attached and sold and the net proceeds deposited in Court pending determination of the appeal.

(2) Any order made on any such application, shall limit the time (not being more than thirty days) for the performance of the conditions imposed, and direct that in default of such performance within the time so limited, execution may be issued or proceeded.

(3) An application for stay of execution under the enactment establishing the lower court, may be made at any time after judgment of the notice of appeal and shall in the first instance, be made to the lower court:

Provided that, where execution has been ordered by the Court the application shall not be made to the lower court but to the Court.

(4) The application may be made ex-parte but the Court may direct notice thereof to be given to the other party to the appeal; and where an order is made ex-parte, the Registrar of the Court shall notify the other party of the order made.

(5) Where the appellant proposes to give security instead of making a deposit, the application shall state the nature of the security and the name of the surety proposed (if any).

(6) Any party dissatisfied with an order made by the lower court, may apply to the Court by motion (original or interlocutory, as it may require) with notice to the other party, for a review of the order and the Court may thereupon make such order as may seem just.

(7) An appeal shall not operate as a stay of execution under the decision or judgment appealed from except so far as the lower court or the Court may order; and no intermediate act or proceedings shall be invalidated except so far as either court may direct.

23. Costs

The Court may make such order as to the payment of costs by or to the appellant, as it may deem to be just and such order may be made also in any case where an appeal has not been entered into or prosecuted.

24. Security for costs

(1) The Court may, in special circumstances, upon application on notice by motion (original or interlocutory as the case may require), supported by affidavit, order the appellant to deposit such sum or give such security as may seem fit for the respondent's costs of appeal, including the costs incidental to the application.

(2) The order shall limit the time (not exceeding thirty days) within which the deposit or security shall be made or given and may direct that in default of its being made or given within the time so limited, the appeal shall without further order stand dismissed.

(3) Where an appeal so stands dismissed, the respondent shall be entitled to all reasonable costs occasioned by the appeal and the amount of such costs may be stated in the order in anticipation or may be assessed at any time by the Court of its own motion or on notice given within (30 days) of such dismissal (but not otherwise).

(4) Where an appeal so stands dismissed, the appellant shall take no further step or proceedings therein, save by leave of the Court for reinstatement of the appeal, which may be granted on such terms (if any) as may seem fit upon application by motion on notice given within (30 days) of such dismissal (but not otherwise).

(5) Subject and without prejudice to the discretion of the Court to grant costs where it seems proper on an application made under sub-rule (1), costs shall not normally be granted to the applicant save where the net proceeds of execution levied on the appellant's goods are sufficient to satisfy the amount payable under the judgment or decision appealed from.

25. Orders of High Court to be certified to Magistrate's Court

(1) When a case is decided on appeal, the Court shall certify its judgment or order to the lower court in which the decision appealed against was pronounced.

(2) The lower court to which the Court certifies its judgment or order, shall thereupon make such orders as are in conformity with the judgment or order of the Court, and, if necessary, the records shall be amended in accordance therewith.

26. Enforcing of Judgment

After the pronouncement of the judgment of the Court, the lower court from which the appeal came, shall have the same jurisdiction and power to enforce and shall enforce, any decision which may have been affirmed, modified, amended, or substituted by the Court, or any judgment which may have been pronounced by the Court, in the same manner in all respects as if such decision or judgment had been pronounced by itself.

27. Enforcement of orders

Any order given or made by the Court, may be enforced by the Court or by the lower court as may be most expedient.

28. High Court may enlarge time

The Court may, if it deems fit, enlarge any period of time prescribed by this Order.
