SUMMARY JUDGMENT

1. Where plaintiff believes there is no defence

Where a plaintiff believes that there is no defence to his claim, he shall file with his originating process the statement of claim, the exhibits, the depositions of his witnesses and an application for summary judgment, which application shall be supported by an affidavit stating the grounds for his belief and a written address in respect thereof.

2. Delivery of extra copies

A plaintiff shall deliver to the Registrar as many copies of all the processes and documents referred to in Rule 1 of this Order as there are defendants.

3. Service

Service of all the processes and documents referred to in Rule 1 of this Order shall be effected in the manner provided under Order 7.

4. Where defendant intends to defend

Where a party served with the processes and documents referred to in Rule 1 of this Order intends to defend the suit he shall, not later than the time prescribed for defence, file

- (a) his statement of defence;
- (b) depositions of his witnesses;
- (c) the exhibits to be used in his defence; and
- (d) a written address in reply to the application for summary judgment.

5. Where defendant has good defence, or has no good defence or has good defence to part of the claim

(1) Where it appears to a Judge that a defendant has a good defence and ought to be permitted to defend the claim he may be granted leave to defend.

(2) Where it appears to a Judge that the defendant has no good defence the Judge may thereupon enter judgment for the plaintiff

(3) Where it appears to a Judge that the defendant has a good defence, to part of the claim but no defence to other parts of the claim, the Judge may thereupon enter judgment for that part of the claim to which there is no defence and grant leave to defend that part to which there is a defence.

6. Where there are several defendants

Where there are several defendants and it appears to a Judge that any of the defendants defendant has good defence and ought to be permitted to defend the claim and other defendants have no good defence and ought not to be permitted to defend, the former may be permitted to defend and the Judge shall enter judgment against the latter.

7. Oral submission on written address

Where provision is made for written briefs under these Rules, each party shall be at liberty to advance before a Judge oral submission to expatiate his written address.

ORDER 12

APPLICATION FOR ACCOUNT

1. Order for Account

Where in an originating process a plaintiff seeks an account under Order 4 Rule 5 or where the claim involves taking an account, if the defendant either fails to appear, or after appearing fails to satisfy a Judge that there is a preliminary question to be tried, the Judge shall, on application, make an order for the proper account with all necessary inquiries and directions.

2. Application: How made

An application for account shall be supported by an affidavit filed on a plaintiff's behalf, stating concisely the grounds of his claim to an account. The application may be made at any time after the time prescribed for defence.

3. Account may be taken by a Judge or Referee

Where an order is made for account under this Order, the account may be taken by a Judge or a Judge or Referee appointed by the Judge.

PARTIES GENERALLY

1. General

1. Person claiming jointly or severally

All persons may be joined in one action as plaintiffs in whom any right to relief is alleged to exist whether jointly or severally and judgment may be given for such plaintiff(s) as may be found to be entitled to relief and for such relief as he or they may be entitled to, without any amendment.

2. Action in name of wrong plaintiff

Where an action has been commenced in the name of a wrong person as plaintiff or where Action it is doubtful whether it has been commenced in the name of the right plaintiff, a judge may order the substitution or addition of any other person as plaintiff on such terms as may be just.

3. Misjoinder and counter claim

Where in commencing an action any person has been wrongly or improperly included as a plaintiff and a defendant has set up a counter claim or set-off, such defendant may establish his set-off or counter claim as against the parties other than a plaintiff so included, notwithstanding the inclusion of such plaintiff or any proceedings based thereon.

4. Any person may be joined as a defendant

Any person may be joined as defendant against whom the right to any relief is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally or in the alternative. Judgment may be given against one or more of the defendant as may be found to be liable, according to their respective liabilities, without any amendment.

5. Action in name of wrong defendant

Where an action has been instituted against a wrong defendant or where the name of a defendant has been incorrectly stated, a Judge may upon application, order a substitution or addition of any person as Edam defendant or correction of any such name on any term as may be just.

6. Defendant need not be interested in all the reliefs sought

(1) It shall not be necessary that every defendant shall be interested as to all the reliefs prayed for, or as to every Defendant cause of action included in any proceedings against him.

(2) A Judge upon considering the defence filed by any defendant may on application by that defendant, make such order as may appear just to prevent him from being embarrassed or put to expense by being required to attend any proceedings in which he may have no interest.

7. Joinder of persons severally or jointly and severally liable

A plaintiff may, at his option, join as parties to the same action, all or any of the persons

Joinder of persons severally, or jointly and severally liable on any one contract, including parties to bills of exchange and promissory notes.

8. Plaintiff in doubt as to person from whom redress is to be sought

Where a plaintiff is in doubt as to the person from whom he is entitled to redress, he may, in such manner as hereinafter mentioned, or as may be prescribed by any special order, two or more defendants, to the extent that the question as to which, if any, of the defendants is liable and to what extent, may be determined as between all parties.

9. Persons under legal disability: Form 5

Persons under legal disability may, with leave of the Court, sue by their guardians or defend by guardians appointed for that purpose.

10. Guardian

Where any person's name is to be used in any action as guardian of a person under legal disability or other party or as relation, a written authority for that purpose signed by that person shall be filed in the registry.

11. Trustees, executors, etc may be sued as representing the estate

Trustees, executors and administrators may sue and be sued on behalf of or as representing the property or estate of which are trustees or representatives, without joining any of the persons beneficially interested in the trust or estate, and shall be considered as representing such person, but a Judge may, at any stage of the proceedings order any of such persons to be made parties in addition to or in lieu of the previously existing parties. This rule shall apply to trustees, executors and administrators in proceedings to enforce a security by foreclosure or otherwise.

12. Numerous persons

(1) Where there are numerous persons the same interest in one suit, one or more of such persons may sue or be sued with the consent and on behalf of or for the benefit of all persons so interested.

(2) Where there are numerous persons having the same interest in one suit and they seek to defend the action, a Judge may allow one or more of such persons to defend the action on behalf, or for the benefit of all persons so interested.

13. Representation of persons or class of persons in certain proceedings

(1) Where in any proceedings concerning

a) the administration of an estate; or

b) property subject to a trust; or

c) land held under customary law as family or community property; or

d) the construction of any written instrument, including a status, a Judge is satisfied that

(i) the person, the class or some members of the class interested cannot be ascertained; or

(ii) the person, the class or some members of the class interested if ascertained cannot be found; or

(iii) though the person or the class and the members thereof can be ascertained and found, it is expedient for the purpose of efficient procedure that one or more persons be appointed to represent that person or class or member of the class; the Judge may make the appointment.

(2) The decision of the Judge in the proceedings shall be binding on the person or class of persons so represented.

(3) Notice of appointment made by a Judge under this Rule and all processes filed in court shall be served on any person(s) so appointed.

(4) If in any proceedings mentioned in sub rule (1) of this Rule, several persons having the same interest in relation to the matter to be determined attend the hearing by separate Legal Practitioners, then, unless the Judge considers that the circumstances justify separate representation, not more than one set of costs of the hearing shall be allowed to these persons, and the judgment or order shall be framed accordingly.

(5) In this Rule, the word "class" includes the persons recognized by Customary Law as members of a family or as members of a land owning community.

14 Power to approve compromise

Where in any proceedings mentioned in sub rule (1) of Rule 13 of this Order, a compromise is proposed and some of the absent persons who are interested in or may be affected by the compromise are not parties to the proceedings (including unborn or unascertained persons) but where

(i) there are some other persons having the same interest before the court who assent to the compromise or on whose behalf the court sanctions the compromise; or

(ii) the absent persons are represented by a person under Rule 13 of this Order who so assent;

a Judge, if satisfied that the compromise will be for the benefit of the absent persons and that it is expedient to exercise this power, may approve the compromise and order that such compromise shall be binding on the absent persons, and they shall be bound accordingly, except where the order has been obtained by fraud or non-disclosure of material facts.

15. Where there is no personal representative

(1) If in any proceedings it appears to a Judge that any deceased person who was interested in the proceedings has no legal representative, the Judge may proceed in the absence of any person representing the estate of the deceased person, or may appoint some person to represent his estate for the purpose of the proceedings, on such notice to such persons (if any) as the Judge shall deem fit, either specifically or generally by public advertisement, and the order so made and any order consequent thereon shall bind the estate of the deceased person in the same manner in every respect as if a duly constituted legal personal representative of the deceased had been a party to the proceedings.

(2) Where a sole or sole surviving plaintiff or defendant in a proceeding dies and the cause of action survives but the person entitled to proceed fails to proceed, a Judge may on the application of either the deceased's Legal Practitioner or the opposing party, order any person to take the place of the said deceased and proceed with the suit.

(3) In default of such application or where the person substituted fails to proceed, judgment may be entered for the defendant or, as the case may be, for the person against whom the proceedings might have been continued.

16. Proceedings not defeated by mis-joinder or non-joinder

(1) No proceedings shall be defeated by reason of mis-joinder or non-joinder of parties, and a Judge may deal with the matter in controversy so far as regards the rights and interest of any parties actually before him.

(2) A Judge may at any stage of the proceedings, either upon or without the application of either party, and on such terms as may appear to the Judge to be just, order that the names of any parties improperly joined be struck out.

(3) A Judge may order that the names of any party who ought to have been joined whose presence before the court is necessary to effectually and completely adjudicate upon and settle the question involved in the proceedings be added.

(4) No person under legal disability shall be added as a plaintiff suing without a guardian and no person shall be added as the guardian of a plaintiff under legal disability without his own consent in writing

(5) Every party whose name is added as defendant shall be served with the originating process or notice in the manner prescribed in these rules or in such manner as may be prescribed by a Judge and the proceedings against such person shall be deemed to have begun on the service of such originating process or notice.

17. Application to add or strike out

(1) Any application to add or strike out or substitute or vary the name of a plaintiff or defendant may be made to a Judge by motion.

(2) Where the application is to add a plaintiff or a defendant, the application shall be accompanied by the statement of claim or defence, as the case may be, all the exhibits intended to be used and the depositions of all the witnesses:

Provided that where the application is to substitute a deceased party with another party the application may not be accompanied by the documents specified above.

18. Where defendant is added

Where a defendant is added or substituted the originating process shall be amended accordingly and the plaintiff shall, unless otherwise ordered by a Judge, file an amended originating process and cause the new defendant to be served in the same manner as the original defendant.

19. Third Parties may be joined by any of the parties

(1) Where it appears to a Judge that any person not a party in the proceedings may bear eventual liability either in whole or in part, the Judge may upon an ex parte application allow that person to be joined as a Third Party by any of the defendants. The application shall state the grounds for the applicant's belief that such Third Party may bear the eventual liability.

(2) The order and existing processes shall be served on the Third Party within the time prescribed for delivering the defence.

20. Appearance by Third Party

Where a party is joined to any proceedings as a Third Party, he may after service, enter appearance within 8 days or within 30 days if he resides or carries on business outside jurisdiction or within such further time as a Judge may order.

21. Default by Third Party

If a Third Party duly served with the order and all existing processes does not enter appearance or makes default in filing any pleading, he shall be deemed to admit the Validity of the action and shall be bound by any judgment given therein, whether by consent or otherwise.

22. Subsequent Third Party

A party joined as a Third Party in any proceedings may join any other party in the same manner as he was joined and the expression "Third Party" shall apply to and include every person so joined.

23. Claim against co-defendant

A defendant may in his pleading make a claim against a co-defendant.

II. Actions against firms and persons carrying on business in names other than their own.

24. Actions by and against firms

Any two or more persons claiming or alleged to be liable as partners and doing business within the jurisdiction may sue or be sued in the name of the firms, if any, of which they were partners when the cause of action arose and any party to an action may in such case apply to the Judge for a statement of the names and addresses of the persons who were partners in the firm when the cause of action arose, to be furnished in such manner, and verified on oath or otherwise as the Judge may direct.

25. Disclosure of partners' names

(1) When an originating process is issued by partners in the name of their firm, the plaintiffs or their Legal Practitioner(s) shall, on demand in writing by or on behalf of any defendant declare in writing the names and residential addresses of all the persons constituting the firm on whose behalf the action is brought.

(2) Where the plaintiffs or their Legal Practitioner(s) fail to comply with such demand, all proceedings in the action may, upon an application for that purpose, be stayed upon such terms as a Judge may direct.

(3) Where the names of the partners are so declared, the suit shall proceed in the same manner and the same consequences in all respects shall follow as if they had been named as plaintiffs in the originating process: Provided that the proceedings may continue in the name of the firm.

26. Appearance of partners

(1) Where persons are sued as partners in the name of their firm, they shall appear individually in their own names, but all subsequent proceedings shall continue in the name of the firm.

(2) Where an originating process is served upon a person having the control or management of the partnership business, no appearance by him shall be necessary unless he is a member of the firm sued.

27. Application of rules to actions between co-partners

The above rules in this part shall apply to proceedings between a firm and one or more of its partners and between firms having or more partners in common, provided such firm or firms carry on business within the jurisdiction.

28. Persons trading as firms

Any person carrying on business within the jurisdiction in a name or style other than his own name may be sued in such name or style as if it were a firm name, and, so far as the nature of the case will permit, all rules relating to proceedings against firms shall apply.

III. Change of parties by Death or otherwise

29. Action not abated where cause of action survives

No proceedings shall abate by reason of death or bankruptcy of any of the parties if the cause of action survives and shall not become defective by the assignment, creation or devolution of any estate or title pendent lite, and, whether the cause of action survives or not, there shall be no abatement by reason of death of either party between the finding on issues of fact and judgment, but judgment may in such case be entered notwithstanding his death.

30. Order to carry on proceedings

(1) Where by reason of death or bankruptcy, or any other event occurring after the commencement of a proceeding and causing a change or transmission of interest or liability, or by reason of any person interested coming into existence after the commencement of the proceeding, it becomes necessary or desirable that any person not already a party should be made a party or that any person already a party should be made a party in another capacity, an order that the proceedings shall be carried on between the continuing parties and such new party or parties may be obtained ex parte upon an allegation of such change, or transmission of interest or liability, or of any such person interested having come into existence.

(2) An order obtained under this rule shall be served upon the continuing party or parties, or their Legal Practitioner(s) and also upon such new party unless the person making the application is the new party.

(3) Every person served who is not already a party to the proceedings shall, where applicable, enter an appearance thereto within the same time and in the same manner as if he had been served with the originating process. He shall thereupon be served with the originating and all existing processes.

(4) Any party served under this rule who was not already a party to the proceedings shall file his pleadings and other documents as if he had been an original party in the proceedings.

31. In case of assignment, creation or devolution of estate or title

In case of assignment, creation or devolution of any estate or title pendant lite, the cause or matter may be continued by or against the person to or upon whom such estate or title has come or devolved.

32. Application to discharge order by person under disability having a guardian

Where any person who is under no legal disability or being under any legal disability but having a guardian in the proceeding is disability served with an order under Rule 30, such person may apply to a Judge to discharge or vary such order at any time within 14 days from the service of the order.

33. Person under disability having no guardian

Where any person under any legal disability and not having a guardian in the proceedings is served with an order under Rule 30, such a person may apply a judge to discharge or vary such order at any time within 14 days from the date of service of the order on the guardian and until such period of 14 days has expired, such order shall have no force or effect as against the person under legal disability.

IV. Legal Practitioners or Agents

34. Acts may be done by Legal Practitioner or Agent

Where by these rules any act may be done by any party in any proceedings, such act may be done either by the party in person, or by his Legal Practitioner, or by his Agent (unless an agent is expressly barred under these rules).

JOINDER OF CAUSES OF ACTION

1. All causes of action may be joined

Subject to the following rules of this Order the plaintiff may unite in the same action several causes of action; but if it appears that they cannot be conveniently tried or disposed of together, a Judge may order separate trials of any such cause of action or may make such order as may be necessary or expedient for the separate disposal thereof.

2. Recovery of land

(1) An action for recovery of land may be joined with an action for declaration of title, mesne profit or arrears of rent, damages for breach of any contract under which the land or any part thereof is held, or for any wrong or injury to the premises.

(2) An action for foreclosure or redemption may be joined with a claim for delivery of possession of the mortgaged property and a claim for payment of principal or interest secured by or any other relief in respect of the mortgage of or charge on such land.

3. Executor and administrator

Claims by or against an executor or administrator as such may be joined with claims by or against him personally provided the last-mentioned claims are alleged to arise with reference to the estate in respect of which the plaintiff or defendant sues or is sued as executor or administrator.

4. Claims by joint plaintiffs

Claims by plaintiffs jointly may be joined with claim by them or any of them separately against the same defendant:

Provided that such claims can be conveniently tried together.

PLEADINGS

1. Filing of pleadings

- (1) A statement of claim shall include the relief or remedy to which a plaintiff claims to be entitled.
- (2) A defendant shall file his statement of defence, set-off or counter claim, if any, not later than 40 days after service on him of the plaintiffs originating process and accompanying documents. A counter claim shall have the same effect as a cross action, so as to enable the court to pronounce a final judgment in the same proceedings. A set-off must be specifically pleaded.
- (3) A plaintiff shall within 14 days of service of the statement of defence and counter claim if any, file his reply, if any, to such defence or counter claim:

Provided that where a defendant sets up a counterclaim, if a plaintiff or any other person named as party to such counter claim contends that the claim thereby raised ought not to be disposed of by way of counterclaim, but an independent proceeding, a Judge may at any time order that such counterclaim be excluded.

2. Pleadings to state material facts and not evidence

Every pleading shall contain a statement in a summary form of the material facts on which the party pleading relies for his claim or defence as the case may be, but not the evidence by which they are to be proved and shall, when necessary be divided into paragraphs numbered consecutively. Dates, sums and numbers shall be expressed in figures. Pleadings shall be signed by a Legal Practitioner or by the party if he sues or defends in person.

3. Particulars to be given where necessary

- (1) In all cases in which the party pleading relies on any misrepresentation, fraud breach of trust, willful default, or undue influence and in all other cases in which particulars may be necessary, particulars (with dates and items if necessary) shall be stated in the pleadings.
- (2) In an action for libel or slander if the plaintiff alleges that the words or matter complained of were used in a defamatory sense other than their ordinary meaning, he shall give particulars of the fact and matter on which he relies in support of his allegation.

4. Further and better statement or particulars

An application for further and better statement of the nature of the claim or defence, or further and better particulars of any matter stated in any pleading requiring particulars shall be made to a Judge at the first pre-trial conference. The Judge may grant such application upon such terms as may be just.

5. Denial

(1) Every allegation of fact in any pleadings if not specifically denied in the pleadings of the opposite party shall be taken as admitted except as against a person under legal disability.

(2) A general denial in any pleadings shall not operate as denial of any specific fact in the pleadings of the opposing party.

6. Condition precedent

Each party shall specify distinctly in his pleadings any condition precedent, the performance or occurrence of which is intended to be contested.

7. Defence, reply: certain facts to be specifically pleaded

(1) All grounds of defence or reply which makes an action not maintainable or if not raised will take the opposite party by surprise or will raise issue of facts not arising out of the preceding pleadings shall be specifically pleaded.

(2) Where a party raises any ground which makes a transaction void or voidable or such matters as fraud, Limitation Law, release, payment, performance, facts showing insufficiency in contract or illegality either by any enactment or common law, he shall specifically plead same.

8. Pleadings to be consistent

No pleading shall raise any new ground of claim or contain any allegation of fact inconsistent with the previous pleadings or the party pleading the same.

9. Joinder of Issue

A party may by his pleading join issues upon the pleadings of the opposing party and such joinder of issues shall operate as denial of every material allegation of fact in the pleading upon which issue is joined except any fact which the party may be willing to admit.

10. Effect of documents to be stated

Wherever the contents of any document are material, it shall be sufficient in any pleading to state the effect as briefly as possible, without setting out the whole or any part thereof, unless the precise words of the document or any part thereof are material.

11. Notice

Wherever it is material to allege notice to any person of any fact, matter or thing, it shall be sufficient to allege such notice as a fact, unless the form or the precise terms of such notice or the circumstances from which such notice is to be inferred are material.

12. Implied contract or relation

Wherever any contract or any relation between any persons is to be implied from a series of letters or conversation, or otherwise from a number of circumstances, it shall be sufficient to allege such contract or relation as a fact, and to refer generally to such letters, conversation or circumstances without setting them out in detail. If in such case the person so pleading desires to rely in the alternative upon more contracts or relations than one as to be implied from such circumstances, he may state the same in the alternative.

13 Presumptions of law

A party may not allege in any pleadings any matter or fact the law presumes in his favour or as to which the burden or proof lies upon the other side, unless the same has first been specifically denied.

14. Stated or settled account

In every case in which the cause of action is a stated or settled account, the same shall be alleged with particulars but in every case in which a statement is relied on by way of evidence or admission of any other cause of action which is pleaded the same shall not be alleged in the pleadings.

15. Technical objection

No technical objection shall be raised to any pleading on the ground of any alleged want of form.

16. Striking out of pleadings

A Judge may at the pre-trial conference in any proceedings order to be struck out or amended, any matter in any indorsement or pleading which may be unnecessary or scandalous or which may tend to prejudice, embarrass or delay the fair trial of the action; and may in any such case, if the Judge shall deem fit, order costs of the application to be paid as between Legal Practitioner and client.

17. Defamation

(1) Wherever it is material to allege malice, fraudulent intention, knowledge or other condition of the mind of any person, it shall be sufficient to allege the same as a fact without setting out the circumstances from which the same is to be inferred.

(2) Where in an action for libel or slander the defendant pleads that any of the words or matters complained of are fair comment on a matter of public interest or were published upon a privileged occasion, the plaintiff shall, if he intends to allege that the defendant was actuated by express malice, deliver a reply giving particulars of facts and matters from which such malice is to be inferred.

(3) Where in an action for libel or slander the defendant alleges that in so far as the words complained of consist of statement of facts, they are true in substance and in fact, and in so far as they consist of expressions of opinion, they are fair comment on a matter of public interest, or pleads to the like effect, he shall give particulars stating which of the facts and matters he relies on in support of the allegation that the words are true.

18. Where pleading discloses no reasonable cause of action

(1) The Judge may at any stage of the proceedings order to be struck out or amended any pleading or the indorsement of any writ in the action, or anything in any pleading or in the indorsement, on ground that:

(a) it discloses no reasonable cause of action or defence, as the case may be; or

(b) it is scandalous, frivolous or vexatious; or

(c) it may prejudice, embarrass or delay the fair trial of the action; or

(d) it is otherwise an abuse of the process of the Court, and may order the action stayed or dismissed or judgment to be entered accordingly, as the case may be.

- (2) No evidence shall be admissible on application under paragraph (1) (a).
- (3) This rule shall, so far as applicable, apply to an originating summons and petition as if the summons or petitions, as the case may be, were a pleading.
- (4) No proceedings shall be open to objection on the ground that only a declaratory judgment or order is sought thereby and a Judge may make a binding declaration of right whether any consequential relief is or could be claimed or not.

19. Close of pleading

(1) Where a pleading subsequent to reply is not ordered, then, at the expiration of 7 days from the service of the defence or reply (if a reply has been filed) pleadings shall be deemed closed.

(2) Where a pleading subsequent to reply is not ordered, and any party who has been ordered or given leave to file the same fails to do so within the period limited for that purpose, then, at the expiration of the period so limited the pleadings shall be deemed closed:

Provided that this rule shall not apply to a defence to counterclaim and unless the plaintiff files a defence to counterclaim, the statements of fact contained in such counterclaim shall at the expiration of 14 days from the service thereof or of such time (if any) as may by order be allowed for filing of a defence thereto be deemed to be admitted, but the Judge may at any subsequent time give leave to the plaintiff to file a defence to counterclaim.

ORDER 16

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

1. Statement of claim

(1) Every statement of claim or counterclaim shall state specifically the relief claimed either singly or in the alternative, and it shall be necessary to ask for general or consequential relief, which may be given as a Judge may think just as if it had been asked for.

(2) Where the plaintiff seeks relief in respect of several distinct claims or causes or complaint founded upon separate and distinct grounds, they shall be stated, as far as may be, separately and distinctly. The same rule shall apply where the defendant relies upon several distinct grounds of defence, set off or counterclaim founded upon separate and distinct facts.

2. Claim beyond indorsement

Whenever a statement of claim is filed, the plaintiff may alter, modify or extend his claim without any amendment of the indorsement of the writ:

Provided that the plaintiff may not completely change his cause of action indorsed on the writ without amending the writ.

ORDER 17

DEFENCE AND COUNTERCLAIM

1. Statement of defence

The statement of defence shall be a statement in summary form and shall be supported by copies of documentary evidence, list of witnesses and their written statements on oath.

2. Evasive denial

When a party in any pleading denies an allegation of fact in the previous pleading of the opposite party, he shall not do so evasively, but answer the point of substance. If an allegation is made with diverse circumstances, it shall not be sufficient to deny it along with those circumstances.

3. Denials generally

(1) In an action for debt or liquidated demand in money, a mere denial of debt shall not be sufficient defence.

(2) In an action for money had and received, a defence in the denial must deny the receipt of the money or existence of those facts which are alleged to make such a receipt by the defendant a receipt to the use of the plaintiff.

(3) In an action for goods sold and delivered, the defence must deny the order or contract, the delivery, or the amount claimed.

(4) In an action upon a bill of exchange, promissory note or cheque, a defence in denial must deny some matter of fact e.g the drawing, making, indorsing, accepting, presenting or notice of dishonour of the bill or note.

4. Persons in representative capacity

If either party wishes to deny the right of any other party to claim as executor, or a trustee or in any representative or other alleged capacity, or the alleged constitution of any partnership firm, he shall deny the same specifically.

5. Pleading to damages

No denial or defence shall be necessary as to damages claimed or their amount: they are deemed to be in issue in all cases, unless expressly admitted.

6. Set-off and counterclaim

Where any defendant seeks to rely upon any ground as supporting a right of set-off or counterclaim, he shall in his defence state specifically that he does so by way of supporting a right of set-off or counterclaim.

7. Title of counterclaim

Where a defendant by his defence sets up any counterclaim which raises questions between himself and the plaintiff along with any other persons, he shall add to the title of his defence a further title similar to the title in a statement of claim, setting forth the names of all persons who, if such counterclaim were to be enforced by cross action, would be defendants to such cross action, and shall deliver his defence to such of them as are parties to the action within the period which he is required to deliver it to the plaintiff.

8. Claim against persons not party: Civil Form 12

Where any such person as in Rule 7 of this Order is not a party to the action he shall be summoned to appear by being served with a copy of the defence and counterclaim, and such service shall be regulated by the same rules as those governing the service of the originating process, and every defence and counterclaim so served shall be indorsed in Form 12 with such modification or variations as circumstances may require.

9. Appearance by added parties.

Any person not already a party to the action, who is served with a defence and counterclaim as aforesaid, must appear thereto as if he had been served with an originating process to appear in an action.

10. Reply to counterclaim

Any person not already a party to the action, who is named in a defence as a party to a counterclaim thereby made, shall deliver a defence in mode and manner prescribed under this Order and the provisions of the order shall apply to such a person.

11. Discontinuance of the plaintiffs claim

If in any case in which the defendant sets up a counterclaim, the action of the plaintiff is stayed, discontinued or dismissed, the counterclaim may nevertheless be proceeded with.

12. Judgment for balance

Where in an action, a set-off or counterclaim is established as a defence against the plaintiffs claim, the Judge may, if the balance is in favour of the defendant, give judgment for the defendant such, or may otherwise adjudge to the defendant such relief as he may be entitled to upon the merits of the case.

13. Ground of defence after action brought

(1) Any ground of defence which arises after the action has been filed, but before the defendant has delivered his defence, and before the time limited for doing so has expired, may be raised by the defendant in his defence either alone or together with other grounds of defence.

(2) If after a defence has been delivered along with a set-off or counterclaim, any basis for answer or ground of defence arises to any such set-off or counterclaim respectively, it may be raised by the plaintiff in his reply (in the case of a set-off) or defence to counterclaim, either alone or together with any other ground of reply or defence to counterclaim.

14. Further defence or reply

Where any ground of defence arises after the defendant has delivered a defence, or after the time limited for his doing so has expired the defendant may, and where any ground of defence to any set-off or counterclaim arises after reply, or after the time limited for delivery of a reply has expired, the plaintiff may, within 8 days after ground of defence has arisen or at any subsequent time by leave of a Judge deliver a further defence or further reply, as the case may be setting forth the same.

15. Concession to defence: Civil Form 13

Whenever any defendant in his defence or in any further defence pursuant to Rule 14 of the Order alleges any ground of defence which has arisen after the commencement of the action, the plaintiff may concede to such defence (which concession may be in Form 13 with such modification as circumstances may require) and thereupon obtain judgment up to the time of the pleading of such defence, unless the Judge either before or after the delivery of such concession otherwise orders.

16. Defence to originating summons

A respondent to an originating summons shall file a counter affidavit together with all the exhibits he intends to rely upon and a written address within 21 days after service of the originating summons.

ORDER 18

(2) Any admission made pursuant to such notice shall be deemed to be made only for the purposes of that particular proceedings and not as an admission to be used against the party or any other party than the party giving the notice.

(3) Where there is a refusal or neglect to admit the same within 4 days after service of such notice or within such further time as may be allowed by the Judge, the cost of proving such fact or facts which shall not be less than a sum of N5,000.00 (Five thousand Naira), shall be paid by the party so refusing or neglecting whatever the result of the proceedings, unless the Judge certifies that the refusal to admit was reasonable or unless the Judge at any time otherwise orders or directs.

4. Judgment or order upon admission of facts

The Judge may, on application, at a pre-trial conference or at any other stage of the proceedings where admissions of facts have been made, either on the pleadings or otherwise, make such orders or give such judgment as upon such admissions a party may be entitled to, without waiting for the determination of any other question between the parties.

5. Cost of notice where documents unnecessary

Where a notice to admit or produce comprises documents that are not necessary, the cost occasioned thereby may, at the discretion of the Judge be borne by the party giving such notice.

ORDER 20

DEFAULT OF PLEADING

1. Claim for debt or liquidated demand

If the claim is only for a debt or liquidated demand, and the defendant does not within the time allowed for the purpose, file a defence, the plaintiff may, at the expiration of such time, apply for a final judgment for the amount claimed with costs.

2. Several defendants: Default of one or more

When in any action such action as in Rule 1 of this Order there are several defendants, if one or more of them defaults as mentioned in Rule 1 of this Order, the plaintiff may apply for final judgment against the defendant making such default and issue execution upon such judgment without prejudice to his right to proceed with his action against the other defendant.

3. Damages and detention of goods

If the plaintiffs claim be for pecuniary damages or for detention of goods with or without a claim for pecuniary damages only and the defendant or all the defendants, if more than one, make default as mentioned in Rule 1 of this Order, the plaintiff may apply to a Judge for interlocutory judgment against the defendant or defendants and value of the goods and damages or the damages only as the case may be, shall be ascertained in any way which the Judge may order.

4. Default of one or more defendants

When in any such action as in Rule 3 of this Order there are several defendants, if one or more of them makes default as mentioned in Rule 1 of this Order, the plaintiff may apply to a Judge for interlocutory judgment against the defendant or defendants so making default and proceed with his action against the others. In such case the value and amount of damages against the defendant or defendants making default shall be assessed at the trial of the action or issues therein against the other defendant, unless the Judge shall otherwise order.

5. Debt or damages and detention of goods or damages

Where the claim is for debt or liquidated demand and also for pecuniary damages or for the detention of goods with or without a claim for pecuniary damages and includes a liquidated demand and any defendant makes default as mentioned in Rule 1, the plaintiff may apply to a Judge for final judgment for the debt on liquidated demand, and may also apply for interlocutory judgment for the value of the goods and damages, or the damages only as the case may be, and proceed as mentioned in Rules 3 and 4.

6. Recovery of land

In an action for the recovery of land, if the defendant makes default as mentioned in Rule 1, the plaintiff may apply for a judgment that the person whose title is asserted in the writ of summons shall recover possession of the land with his costs.

7. Claim for mesne profits, arrears or damages

Where the plaintiff has indorsed a claim for mesne profits or arrears of rent in respect of the premises claimed, or damages for breach of contract or wrong or injury to the premises claimed upon a writ for the recovery of land, if the defendant makes default as mentioned in Rule 1, or if there be more than one defendant, some or one of the defendants make such default, the plaintiff may apply for final judgment against the defaulting defendant or defendants and proceed as mentioned in Rules 3 and 4.

8. Where a defence is filed to part of claim only

Where the plaintiff's claim is for a debt or liquidated demand or for pecuniary damages only, or for detention of goods with or without a claim for pecuniary damages, or any such matters, or for the recovery of land, and defendant files a defence which purports to offer an answer to part only of the plaintiff's alleged cause of action, the plaintiff may apply for judgment, final or interlocutory, as the case may be, for the part unanswered:

Provided that the unanswered part consists of a separate cause of action or is severable from the rest, as in the case of part of a debt or liquidated demand:

Provided also that where there is a counterclaim, execution on any such judgment as above mentioned in respect of the plaintiffs claim shall not issue without leave of the Judge.

9. Defendant in default

In all actions other than those in the preceding rules of this Order, if the defendant makes default in filing a defence, the plaintiff may apply to a Judge for judgment, and such judgment shall be given upon the statement of claim as the Judge shall consider the plaintiff to be entitled to.

10. One of several defendants in default

Where in any such action as mentioned in Rule 9 of this Order, there are several defendants, if one of such defendants makes such default as aforesaid, the plaintiff may apply for judgment against the defendant so making default, and proceed against the other defendants.

11. Default of third party

In any case in which issues arise in a proceeding other than between plaintiff and defendant, if any party to any such issue makes default in filing any pleading, the opposite party may apply to a Judge for such judgment, if any, as upon the pleadings he appears to be entitled to, and the Judge may enter judgment accordingly or make such order as may be necessary to do justice between the parties.

12. Setting aside Judgment by default

Any judgment by default whether under this Order or under any Order of these Rules shall be final and remain valid and may only be set aside upon application to a Judge on the grounds of fraud, non-service or lack of jurisdiction upon such terms as the court may deem fit.

ORDER 21

PAYMENT INTO AND OUT OF COURT

1. Payment into and out of Court

(1) Where after service in any proceedings for debt or damages, a defendant intends to pay money into court in respect of the proceeding, he shall notify the Chief Registrar who will thereupon direct him to pay the money into an interest yielding account in a commercial bank and he shall file the teller for such payment with the Chief Registrar.

- (2) Where a teller for payment is filed with the Chief Registrar, he shall forthwith give notice of the payment to the plaintiff who may apply to a Judge for an Order to withdraw the amount so paid.
- (3) Where a defence of tender before action is set up, the sum of money tendered shall be brought to Court.
- (4) The defendant may without leave give a written notice to the Registrar of an intention to increase the amount of any sum paid into Court.
- (5) Where the money is paid into Court in satisfaction of one or more of several causes of action, the notice shall specify the cause or causes of action in respect of which payment is made and sum paid in respect of each such cause of action unless a Judge otherwise directs.
- (6) Civil Form 14

The notice shall be in Form 14 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require. The receipt of the notice shall be acknowledged in writing by the plaintiff within 3 days. The notice may be modified or withdrawn or delivered in an amended form by the leave of a Judge upon such terms as may be just.

- (7) Where money is paid into Court with denial of liability the plaintiff may proceed with the action in respect of the claim and if he succeeds, the amount shall be applied so far as is necessary in satisfaction of the claim, and the balance, if any, shall on the order of a Judge be repaid to the defendant. Where the defendant succeed in respect of such claim, the whole amount paid into Court shall be repaid to him on the order of a Judge.

2. Plaintiff may take out money: Civil Form 15

- (1) Where money is paid into Court under Rule 1, the plaintiff may, within 14 days of the receipt of the notice of payment into Court, or where more than one payment into Court has been made, within 14 days of the receipt of the notice of the last payment into Court, accept the whole sum of any one or more of the specific sum in satisfaction of the cause or causes of action to which the specified sum or sums relate by giving notice to the defendant in Form 15 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require and thereupon shall be entitled to receive payment of the accepted sum or sums in satisfaction as aforesaid.

- (2) Payment shall be made to the plaintiff or on his written authority to his Legal Practitioner and thereupon proceedings in the action or in respect of the specified cause or causes of action as the case may be, shall abate.

- (3) If the plaintiff accepts money paid into Court in satisfaction of his claim, or if he accepts a sum or sums paid in respect of one or more specified causes of action and gives notice that he abandons the other cause of action, he may after 4 days from payment out and unless a Judge otherwise orders, tax his costs incurred to the time of payment into Court, and 48 hours after taxation may sign judgment for his taxed costs.

(4) Where in an action for libel or slander, the plaintiff accepts money paid into Court, either party may apply by summons to a Judge for leave for the parties or either of them to make a statement towards reconciliation in open Court in terms approved by the Judge.

3. Money remaining in Court

If the whole of the money in Court is not taken out under Rule 2, the money remaining in Court shall not be paid out except in satisfaction of the claim or specified cause or causes of action in respect of which it was paid in pursuance of an order of a Judge which may be made at any time before, at or after trial.

4. Several defendants

(1) Money may be paid into Court under Rule 1 of this Order by one or more of several defendants sued jointly or in the alternative upon notice to the other defendant or defendants.

(2) If the plaintiff elects within 14 days after receipt of notice of payment into Court to accept the sum or sums paid into Court, he shall give notice as in Form 16 with such modifications or variation as circumstances may require to each defendant and thereupon all further proceeding in the action or in respect of the specified cause or causes of action (as the case may be) shall abate.

(3) The money shall not be paid out except in pursuant of an Order of a Judge dealing with the whole cause or causes of action.

(4) Civil Form 16

In an action for libel or slander against several defendants sued jointly, if any defendant pays money into court, the plaintiff may within 14 days elect to accept the sum paid into Court in satisfaction of his claim against the defendant making the payment and shall give notice to all the defendants as in Form 16 with such modifications or variations as circumstances may require. The plaintiff may tax his costs against the defendant who has made such payment in accordance with Rule2(3) of this Order and action shall abate against that defendant.

(5) The plaintiff may continue with action against any other defendant but the sum paid into Court shall be set off against any damages awarded to the plaintiff against the defendant or defendants.

5. Counterclaims

A person made a defendant to a counterclaim may pay money into Court in accordance with the foregoing rules with necessary modifications.

6. Persons under legal disability

(1) In any proceedings in which money or damages is or are claimed by or on behalf of a person under legal disability suing either alone or in conjunction with other parties, no settlement or compromise or payment or acceptance of money paid into Court, whether before, at or after the trial, shall as regards the claims or any such person be valid without the approval of a Judge.

(2) No money (which expression for the purposes of this Rule includes damages) in any way recovered or adjudged or ordered or awarded or agreed to be paid in any such proceedings in respect of the claims of any such person under legal disability whether by judgment, settlement, compromise, payment into court or otherwise, before, at or after the trial, shall be paid to the plaintiff or to the guardian of the plaintiff or to the plaintiffs Legal Practitioner unless a Judge shall so direct.

(3) All monies so recovered or adjudged or awarded or agreed to be paid shall be dealt with as the Judge shall direct. The directions thus given may include any general or special directions that the Judge may deem fit to give, including directions on how the money is to be applied or dealt with and as to any payment to be made either directly or out of money paid into court to the plaintiff or to the guardian in respect of monies paid or expenses incurred or for maintenance or otherwise for or on behalf of or for the benefit of the person under legal disability or otherwise or to the plaintiffs Legal Practitioner in respect of costs or of the difference between party and party and Legal Practitioner and client costs.

7. Payment into and withdrawal of money from court

Every application or notice of payment or transfer out of Court shall be made on notice to the other side.

ORDER 22

PROCEEDINGS IN LIEU OF DEMURRER

1. Demurrer abolished

No demurrer shall be allowed.

2. Point of law may be raised by pleading

(1) Any party may by his pleadings raise any point of law and the Judge may dispose of the point so raised before or at the trial.

(2) If in the opinion of the Judge, the decision on such point of law substantially disposes of the whole proceedings or of any distinct part thereof, the Judge may make such decision as may be just.

ORDER 23

DISCONTINUANCE

1. Plaintiff may discontinue before defence

(1) The plaintiff may at any time before receipt of the defence or alter the receipt thereof, before taking any other step in the action by notice in writing duly filed and served, wholly discontinue his claim against all or any of the defendant or withdraw any part or parts of his claim. He shall thereupon pay such defendant's costs of the action, or if the action be not wholly discontinued, the costs occasioned by the matter so withdrawn.

(2) A discontinuance or withdrawal, as the case may be, shall not be a defence to any subsequent claim.

(3) Where a defence has been filed, the plaintiff may, with the leave of a Judge, discontinue the proceedings or any part thereof on such terms and conditions as the Judge may order.

(4) Where proceedings have been stayed or struck out upon a plaintiffs withdrawal or discontinuance under this Order, no subsequent claim shall be filed by him on the same or substantially the same facts until the terms imposed on him by the Judge have been fully complied with.

(5) The Judge may in like manner and like discretion as to terms, upon the application of a defendant, order the whole or any part of his alleged grounds of defence or counterclaim to be withdrawn or struck out.

2. Withdrawal by consent

When a cause is ready for trial, it may be withdrawn by either the plaintiff or defendant upon producing to the Registrar a consent in writing signed by the parties and thereupon a Judge shall strike out the matter without the necessity of attendance of the parties or their Legal Practitioner.

ORDER 24

Provided that the Judge may look at the whole of the answers.

14. Discovery against Sheriff

In any action against or by a Sheriff in respect of any matters connected with the execution of his office, a Judge may, on application of either party, order that the affidavit to be made in answer either to interrogatories or to any order for discovery shall be made by the officer actually concerned.

15. Order to apply to person under legal disability

This Order shall apply to persons under legal disability and their guardians.

ORDER 27

ISSUES, INQUIRIES, ACCOUNTS AND

REFERENCES TO REFEREES

1. Issues of facts

(1) In all proceedings, issues of law and facts in dispute shall be defined by each party and filed within 7 days after close of pleadings.

(2) If the parties differ on the issues the pre-trial Judge may settle the issues.

2. Reference to referee

In any legal proceedings the Judge may at any time order the whole cause or matter or any question or issue of facts arising therein, to be tried before an official referee or officer of the court, notwithstanding that it may appear that there is a special or other relief sought or some special issue to be tried, as to which it may be proper that the cause or matter should proceed in the ordinary manner.

3. Instructions to referee

In any case in which a matter is referred to a referee the Court shall furnish the referee with such part of the proceedings and such information and detailed instructions as may appear necessary for his guidance, and shall direct the parties if necessary to attend upon the referee during the inquiry.

4. General power of referee

The referee may, subject to the order of the Judge, hold the inquiry at or adjourn it to any place which he may deem most expedient, and have any inspection or view which he may deem expedient for the disposal of the controversy before him. He shall so far as practicable, proceed with the inquiry from day to day.

5. Evidence

(1) Subject to any order made by the Judge ordering the inquiry, evidence shall be taken at any inquiry before a referee, and the attendance of witnesses to give evidence before a referee may be enforced before the Court; and every such inquiry shall be conducted in the same manner or as nearly as circumstances will admit as trials before a Court.

(2) The referee shall have the same authority in the conduct of any inquiry as a Judge when presiding at any trial.

(3) Nothing in these rules shall authorize any referee to commit any person to prison or to enforce any order by attachment or otherwise; but the Judge may in respect of matters before a referee, make such order of attachment or commitment as he may consider necessary.

6. Report made in pursuance of reference under order

(1) The report made by a referee in pursuance of a reference under this order shall be made to the Judge and notice thereof served on the parties to the reference.

(2) A referee may by his report submit any question arising therein for the decision of the Judge or make a special statement of facts from which the Judge may draw such inferences as he deems fit.

(3) On the receipt of a referee's report, the Judge may-

(a) adopt the report in whole or in part;

(b) vary the report;

(c) require an explanation from him;

(d) remit the whole or any part of the question or issue originally referred to him for further consideration by him or any other referee;

(e) decide the question or issue originally referred to him on the evidence taken before him, either with or without additional evidence.

(4) When the report of the referee has been made, an application to vary the report or remit the whole or any part of the question or issue originally referred may be made on the hearing by the Judge for further consideration of the cause or matter, after giving not less than 4 days notice thereof and any other application with respect to the report may be made on that hearing without notice.

(5) Where a reference under this Order a Judge orders that the further consideration of the cause or matter in question shall not stand adjourned until the receipt of the referee's report, the order may contain directions with respect to the proceedings on the receipt of the report and the foregoing provisions of this rule shall have effect subject to any such directions.

7. Special directions as to mode of taking accounts

The Judge may order or direct an account to be taken or by any subsequent order give special direction with regard to the mode in which the account is to be taken or vouched and in particular may direct that in taking the account, the books of accounts in which the accounts in question have been kept shall be taken as prima facie evidence of the truth of their contents, with liberty to the interested parties to object.

8. Accounts to be verified by affidavit, numbered and left in the Registry

Where any account is directed to be taken, the accounting party shall make out his account and verify the same by affidavit. The items on each side of the account shall be numbered consecutively, and the account shall be referred to by the affidavit as an exhibit and left in the Registry.

9. Mode of vouching accounts

Upon the taking of any documents the Judge may direct that the voucher be produced at the chambers of the accounting party's Legal Practitioner or at any other convenient place and that only such items as may be contested or surcharged shall be brought before the Judge.

10. Surcharge

Any party seeking to charge any accounting party beyond what he has by his account admitted to have received shall give notice to the accounting party, stating so far as he is able, the amount sought to be charged with particulars.

11. Accounts and inquiries to be numbered

- (5) Where leave is sought to apply for an order of certiorari to remove for the purpose of its being quashed any judgment, order, conviction or other proceedings which is subject to appeal and a time is limited for the bringing of the appeal, the Judge may adjourn the application for leave until the appeal is determined or the time for appealing has expired.
 - (6) Where leave to apply for Judicial Review is granted, then
 - (a) if the relief sought is an order of prohibition or certiorari and the Judge so directs, the grant shall operate as a stay of the proceeding to which the application relates until the determination of the application or until the Judge otherwise orders;
 - (b) if any other relief is sought, the Judge may at any time grant in the proceedings such interim relief as could be granted in an action begun by writ;
 - (c) the Judge may impose such terms as to costs and as to giving security as he deems fit.

4. The time within which to bring application

An application for Judicial Review shall be brought within 3 months of the date of occurrence of the subject of the application.

5. Mode of applying for judicial review

- (1) When leave has been granted the application may be made by motion or by originating summons.
- (2) The notice of motion or summons shall be served on all persons directly affected and where it relates to any proceedings before a Judge and the object of the application is either to compel the Judge or an officer of the Court to do any act in relation to the proceedings, or to quash hem or any order made therein, the notice or summons shall also be served on the Clerk or Registrar of the Court and where any objection to the conduct of the Fudge is to be made, on the Judge.
- (3) Unless the Judge granting leave has otherwise directed, there shall be at least 7 days between the service of the notice of motion or summons and the day named therein for the hearing.
 - (4) A motion shall be entered for hearing within 14 days after the grant of leave.
- (5) An affidavit giving the names and addresses of and the places and dates of service on all persons who have been served with the notice of motion or summons shall be filed before the motion or summons is entered for hearing and if any person who ought to be served under this rule has not been served, the affidavit shall state that fact and the reason for it and the affidavit shall be before the Judge on the hearing of the motion or summons.
- (6) If on the hearing of the motion or summons the Judge is of opinion that any person who ought whether under this rule or otherwise, to have been served has not been served, the Judge may adjourn the hearing on such terms, if any, as he may direct in order that the notice or summons may be served on that person.

6. Statements and affidavits

- (1) Copies of the statement in support of an application for leave under Rule 3 shall be served with the notice of motion or summons and subject to sub rule (2), no grounds shall be relied upon or any relief sought at the hearing except the grounds and the relief set out in the statement.
- (2) The Judge may on hearing of the motion or summons allow the applicant to amend his statement whether by specifying different or additional grounds of relief or otherwise, on such term, if any, as he deems fit and may allow further affidavits to be used if they deal with new matter arising out of an affidavit of any other party to the application.
- (3) Where the applicant intends to ask to be allowed to amend his statement or to use farther affidavits, he shall give notice of intention and of any proposed amendment to every other party.
- (4) Each party to the application shall supply to every other party a copy of every affidavit which he proposes to use at the hearing including, in the case of the applicant, the affidavit in support of the application for leave under Rule 3.

7. Claim for damages

On an application for Judicial Review the Judge may, subject to Rule 2, award damages to the applicant if:

- (a) he has included in the statement in support of his application for leave under Rule 3 a claim for damages arising from any matter to which the application relates; and
- (b) the Judge is satisfied that if the claim had been made in an action begun by the applicant at the time of making his application, he could have been awarded damages.

8. Interlocutory application

Any interlocutory application in proceedings on an application for Judicial Review may be made to the Judge.

9. Hearing of application for judicial review

- (1) On the hearing of any motion or summons under Rule 5, any person who desires to be heard on the motion or summons, and appears to the Judge to be a proper person to be heard notwithstanding that he has not been served with notice of the motion or the summons.
- (2) Where the relief sought is or includes an order of certiorari to remove any proceedings for the purpose of quashing them, the applicant may not question the validity of any order, warrant, commitment, conviction, inquisition or record unless before the hearing of the motion or summons he has filed a copy thereof verified by affidavit or accounts for his failure to do so to the satisfaction of the Judge hearing the motion or summons.
- (3) Where an order of certiorari is made in any such case as is referred to in sub rule (2), the order shall, subject to sub rule (4), direct that the proceedings shall be quashed forthwith on their removal into Court.
- (4) Where the relief sought is an order of certiorari and the Judge is satisfied that there are grounds for quashing the decision to which the application relates, the Judge may, in addition to quashing it, remit the matter to a Court of competent jurisdiction.
- (5) Where the relief sought is a declaration, an injunction or damages and the Judge considers that it should not be granted on an application for Judicial Review but might have been granted if it had been sought in an action begun by writ by the applicant at the time of making his application, the Judge may, instead of refusing the application, order the proceedings to continue as if they had been begun by writ.

10. Person acting in obedience to an order of mandamus

No action or proceedings shall be brought or prosecuted against any person in respect of any to an order thing done in obedience to an order of mandamus mandamus.

of the Court.

(2) The Chief Judge shall request a Judge of any Judicial Division to take measures and make such orders as may appear necessary or expedient for the interim preservation of the property of the deceased within such Judicial Division, for the discovery or preservation of the Will of the deceased or for any other purposes connected with duties of the Judge under this order, and every Judge shall carry out any request as far as practicable and report to the Chief Judge.

(3) No grant of administration with the Will annexed shall issue within 7 days of the death of the deceased; and no grant of administration, without the Will annexed, shall issue within 14 days of such death.

2. Preservation of property

The Judge shall, when the circumstances case appear so to require, forthwith on the death of a person, or as soon after as may be, appoint and authorize an officer of the Court, or some other fit pen on, to take possession of his property within its jurisdiction, or put it under seal and so keep it until it can be dealt with according to law.

3. Unauthorised persons intermeddling with properly

If any person other than the named executor or administrator, or an officer of the Court, or person authorized by the Judge, takes possession, of and administers or otherwise deals with the property of any deceased persons, he shall, besides the other liabilities he may incur, be liable to a fine not less than N50,000.00 (Fifty thousand Naira) as the Judge, having regard to the condition of the person so interfering with the property and the other circumstances of the case, may deem fit to impose.

4. Production of testamentary papers

Any person having in his possession or papers under his control any paper or writing of any deceased person, being or purporting to be testamentary, shall forthwith deliver the original to the Probate Registrar of the Court. If any person fails to do so within 3 months after having had knowledge of the death of the deceased, he may be liable to a fine of N5,000.00 (Five thousand Naira) as the Judge having regard to the condition of such person in default and other circumstance of the case deems fit to impose.

5. Judge may order production

Where it appears that any paper of the deceased, being or purporting to be testamentary is in the possession of, or under the control of any person, a Judge may upon an ex parte application, whether a suit or proceeding respecting probate or administration is pending or not, order him to produce the paper and bring it into Court.

6. Examination respecting papers

Where it appears that there are reasonable grounds for believing that any person had knowledge of any paper being or purporting to be testamentary, although it is not shown that the paper is in his possession or under his control, a Judge may upon an ex parte application, whether a suit or proceedings in respect of probate or administration is pending or not, order that he be examined in respect of the same in Court or on interrogatories, and that he attend for that purpose, and after examination that he produce the paper and bring it into Court.

7. Notice to executor to come in and prove

The Judge may on the application of any person claiming an interest under a Will, give notice to the executors therein named, to come in and prove the Will, or renounce probate, and they, or some or one of them, shall within 21 days after notice, come in and prove or renounce accordingly.

8. Liability of executor neglecting to apply for probate

If any named executor in the Will of the deceased takes possession and administers or otherwise deals with any part of the property of the deceased and does not apply for probate within 3 months after the death, or after the termination of any suit or dispute respecting probate or administration, he may, independent of any other liability be deemed to be in contempt of Court and shall be liable to such fine of not less than N50,000.00 (Fifty thousand Naira), as the Judge deems fit to impose.

9. Evidence of Identity

The Judge shall require evidence, in addition to that offered by the applicant, where additional evidence in that behalf seems to the Judge necessary or desirable, in regard to the identity of the deceased or of the applicant, or in regard to the relationship of the applicant to the deceased, or in regard to any person or persons in existence with a right equal or prior to that of the applicant to the grant of the probate or administration sought by the applicant or in respect of any other matter which may be considered by the Judge relevant to the question whether the applicant is the proper person to whom the grant should be made;

Provided that the Judge may refuse the grant unless the applicant produces the required evidence on these points or any of them as required by the Judge.

10. Judge may refuse grant until all persons interested are given due notice

Where it appears to the Judge that some persons or persons other than the applicant may have at least an equal right with the applicant to the grant sought, the Judge may refuse the grant until due notice of the application has been given such other person or persons and an opportunity given for such person or persons to be heard in regard to the application;

Provided that the Judge may in his discretion refuse the grant unless and until all persons entitled to the grant in priority to the applicant shall have expressly renounced their prior right.

11. Value of property

Every applicant for a grant of Letters of Administration shall file in the Court a true declaration of all personal property of the deceased and the value thereof:

Provided that the purpose of the fees payable on Letters of Administration, the value of the property in respect of which the grant is made shall be deemed not to include:

- (a) any gratuity payable by the Government of the Federation of Nigeria, or of a State, to the estate of any person formerly employed by either of such Governments or by a Statutory Corporation.
- (b) any sum of money payable to an estate from a Provident Fund established under the provisions of any applicable law.

12. Answers required before grant

All inquiries a Judge sees fit to institute shall be answered to his satisfaction before the issuance of Letters of Administration. The Judge shall afford as great a facility for obtaining of Letters of Administration as is consistent with due regard to the prevention of error and or fraud.

13. Form of suits

Suits respecting administration shall be instituted and carried on as nearly as may be in the like manner and subject to the same rules of procedure as suits in respect of ordinary claims.

14. Testator may deposit Will

Any person may deposit his Will for safe custody in the Probate Registry, sealed under his own seal and the seal of the Court.

15. Custody of Wills of which Probate is granted

Every original Will, of which Probate or Administration with Will annexed is granted, shall be filed and kept in the Probate Registry in such manner as to secure at once its due preservation and convenient inspection. A copy of every such Will and of the Probate or Administration shall be preserved in the Registry.

16. Will not given out without order of Judge

No original Will shall be given out for any purpose without the direction in writing of a Judge. A certified transcript under the seal of the Court of the Probate or Administration with the Will annexed may be obtained from the Court.

17. Examination of Will as to its execution

(1) On receiving an application for administration with Will annexed, or the Judge shall inspect the Will, and see whether it appears to be signed by the testator or by some other person in presence, and by his direction, and subscribed by two witnesses according to the applicable law, and shall not proceed further if the Will does not appear to be so signed and subscribed.

(2) If the Will appears to be so signed and subscribed, the Judge shall refer to the attestation clause and consider whether the wording thereof states the Will to have been in fact executed in accordance with those enactments.

18. Evidence as to due execution of Will

(1) Where a Will contains no attestation clause or the attestation clause is insufficient or where it appears to the Judge that there is some doubt about the due execution of the Will, he shall before admitting it to proof, require an affidavit as to due execution from one or more of the attesting witnesses or, if no attesting witness is conveniently available, from any other person who was present at the time the Will was executed.

(2) If no affidavit can be obtained in accordance with the foregoing paragraph, the Judge may, if he considers fit having regard to the desirability of protecting the interest of any person who may be prejudiced by the Will, accept evidence on affidavit from any person he may deem fit to show that the signature on the Will is the handwriting of the deceased, or of any other matter which may raise a presumption in favour of due execution of the Will.

(3) If the Judge, after considering the evidence is satisfied that the Will was not duly executed, he shall refuse probate and mark the Will accordingly.

19. Evidence on failure of attesting witnesses

Where both subscribing witnesses are dead or if from other circumstances such an affidavit cannot be obtained from either of them, resort for such an affidavit shall be had to other persons present at the execution of the Will; but if no such affidavit can be obtained, proof shall be required of that fact, and of the handwriting of the deceased and of the subscribing witnesses, and also of any circumstances raising a presumption in favour of the due execution of the Will.

20. Evidence as to terms: Conditions and date of execution of Will

(1) Where in a Will, there is any obliteration, interlineations or other alteration which is not authenticated in manner prescribed by law or by the re-execution of the Will or by the execution of a codicil, the Judge shall require evidence to show whether the alteration was present at the time the Will was executed and shall give directions as to the form in which the Will is to be proved:

Provided that this sub rule shall not apply to any alteration which appears to the Judge to be of no practical importance.

(2) Where from any mark on the Will it appears to the Judge that some other document has been attached to the Will or if a Will contains any reference to another document in such terms as to suggest that it ought to be incorporated in the Will, the Judge may require the document to be produced and may call for such evidence in respect of the attachment or incorporation of the document as he may deem fit.

(3) Where there is doubt as to the date on which a Will was executed, the Judge may require such evidence as he deems necessary to establish the date.

21. Attempted revocation of Will

Any appearance of attempted revocation of a Will by burning, tearing or otherwise and every other circumstance leading to a resumption of revocation by the testator, shall be accounted for to the satisfaction of the Judge.

22. Affidavit as to due execution, terms, etc of a Will

The Judge may require an affidavit from any person he may deem fit for the purpose of satisfying himself as to any of the matters referred to in Rules 18, 20 and 21. In any such affidavit sworn by an attesting witness or other person present at the time of the execution of a Will, the deponent shall depose to the manner in which the Will was executed.

23. Will of persons in Military service and Seamen

Where it appears to the Judge that there is a prima facie evidence that a Will is one to which Section 9 of the Wills Act, 1837 or any provision of the equivalent enactment in force in the State applies the Will may be admitted to proof if the Judge is satisfied that it was made by the testator in accordance with the provisions of that section or enactment as the case may be.

24. Evidence of foreign law

Where evidence of foreign law is required on any application for a grant, the Judge may accept an affidavit from any person whom, having regard to the particulars of his knowledge or experience given in the affidavit, he regards as suitably qualified to give expert evidence of the law in question.

25. Order of priority for grant where the deceased left a Will

Where deceased died after the commencement of this Order, the person or persons entitled to a grant of Probate or Administration with the Will annexed shall be determined in accordance with the following order of priority:

- (a) the executor;
- (b) any residuary legatee or devisee holding in trust for any other person;
- (c) any residuary legatee or devisee for life;
- (d) the ultimate residuary legatee or devisee, including one entitled on the happening of any contingency or where the residue is not wholly disposed of by the Will, any person entitled to share in the residue not so disposed of, or the personal representative of any such person; provided that
 - (i) unless the Registrar otherwise directs, a residuary legatee or devisee whose legacy or devise is vested in interest shall be preferred to one entitled on the happening of a contingency; and
 - (ii) where the residue is not in terms wholly disposed of, the Judge may, if he is satisfied that the testator has nevertheless disposed of the whole or substantially the whole of the estate as ascertained at the time of the application for the grant, allow a grant to be made subject to Rule 68 of this Order to any legatee or devisee entitled to, or to a share in the estate so disposed of, without regard to the persons entitled to share in any residue not disposed of by the Will;
- (e) any specific legatee or devisee or any creditor or, subject to sub rule (3) of Rule 59, the personal representative of any such person or where the estate is not wholly disposed of by Will, any person who, notwithstanding that the amount of the estate is such that he has no immediate beneficial interest therein, may have a beneficial interest in the event of an accretion to it;
- (f) any specific legatee or devisee entitled on the happening of any contingency, or any person having no interest under the Will who would have been entitled to a grant if the deceased had died wholly intestate.

26. Joinder of Administrator

(1) An application to join with a person entitled to a grant of administration, a person in a lower degree shall, in default of renunciation by all persons entitled in priority to the latter, be made to the Judge and shall be supported by an affidavit by the person entitled, the consent of the person proposed to be joined as personal representative and such other evidence as the Registrar may require.

(2) An application to join with a person entitled to a grant of administration, a person having no right to it, shall be made to the Judge and shall be supported by an affidavit by the person entitled, the consent of the person proposed to be joined as personal representative and such other evidence as the Judge may require:

Provided that there may, without any such application, be joined with a person entitled to administration

- (a) on the renunciation of all other persons entitled to join in the grant, any kin of the deceased having no beneficial interest in the estate;

(b) unless the Judge otherwise directs, any person whom the guardian of a minor may nominate for the purpose;

(c) a trust corporation.

27. Will of blind or illiterate testator

Where the testator was blind or illiterate, the Judge shall not grant administration with the Will annexed, unless the Judge is first satisfied, by proof or by what appears on the face of the Will, that the Will was read over to the deceased before its execution or that he had at the time knowledge of its contents.

28. Interlineations, erasures, obliterations

(1) The Judge, on being satisfied that erasures[^] the Will was duly executed shall inspect it to see whether there are any interlineations, alterations, erasures, or obliterations appearing in it and requiring to be accounted for.

(2) Interlineations, alterations, erasures, and obliterations are invalid unless they existed in the Will at the time of its execution or unless, if made afterward, they have been executed and attested in the mode required by the said enactment; or unless they have been made valid by the re-execution of the Will or by the subsequent execution of codicil thereto.

(3) Where interlineations, alterations, erasures or obliterations appear in the Will, unless duly executed or recited in or otherwise identified by the attestation clause, an affidavit in proof of their having existed in the Will before its execution shall be filed.

(4) Where no satisfactory evidence is adduced respecting the time when an erasure or obliteration was made and the words erased or obliterated are not entirely effaced, and can, on inspection of the Will, be ascertained, they shall form part of the Probate. Where any words have been erased which might have been of importance an affidavit shall be required.

29. Documents referred to in a Will or annexed or attached thereto

(1) Where a Will contains a reference to any document of such a nature as raise the question whether it ought or ought not to form a constituent part of the Will, the Judge shall require the production of the document, with a view to ascertaining whether or not it is entitled to Probate; and if it is not produced, a satisfactory account of its non-production shall be given. A document cannot form part of a Will unless it was in existence at the time when the Will was executed.

(2) If there are vestiges of sealing wax or wafers, or other marks on the Will, leading to the inference that some document has been at some time annexed or attached thereto, a satisfactory account of them shall be required, and if it is not produced, a satisfactory account of its non-production shall be given.

30. Executor dying without proving or not appearing

Where a person appointed executor in a Will survives the testator but either dies without having taken Probate or having been called on by the Court to take Probate and does not appear, his right in respect of the executorship wholly ceases; and, without further renunciation, the representation to the testator and the administration of his property may go and be committed as if that person had not been appointed executor.

31. Marking of Wills

Every Will in respect of which an application for a grant is made shall be marked by the signatures of the applicant and the person before whom the oath is sworn, and shall be exhibited to any affidavit which may be required under this Order as to the validity, terms, conditions or date of execution of the Will:

Provided that where the Judge is satisfied that compliance with this Rule might result in the loss of the Will, he may allow a photocopy to be marked or exhibited in lieu of the original document.

32. Viva voce examination of persons making affidavits

In every case where evidence is directed or allowed to be given by affidavit, the Judge may require the personal attendance of the deponent if within the jurisdiction, before the Court, to be examined viva voce respecting the content of his affidavit. The examination may take place before any affidavit has been sworn or prepared if the Judge deems fit.

33. Letters of Administration

(1) A Judge in granting Letters of Administration shall proceed as far as may be as in cases of probate.

(2) The Judge shall ascertain the time and place of the deceased's death and value of the property to be covered by the administration.

34. Administration bond

(1) The person to whom administration is granted shall give a bond with two or more responsible sureties to the satisfaction of the Judge. The bond shall affirm that the administrator shall be duly conditioned to collect, getting in and administering the personal property of the deceased.

(2) The Judge may if he deems it fit to take one surety only where the gross value of the estate does not exceed N250,000.00 (Two hundred and fifty thousand Naira) or where a corporation is proposed as a surety.

(3) The bond shall be in form of a penalty which is twice the sum value of the estate of the deceased unless the Judge deems it expedient to reduce the amount.

(4) The Judge may also in any case direct that more bonds than one shall be given, so as to limit the liability of any surety to such amount as the Court deems reasonable.

35. Guarantee

(1) The Judge shall not require a guarantee as a condition of making a grant where it is proposed to make it

(a) by virtue of Rule 25 (e) to a creditor or the personal representative of a creditor or to a person who has not immediate beneficial interest in the estate of the deceased but may have such an interest in the event of an accretion to the estate;

(b) under Rule 61 to a person or some of the persons who would, if the person beneficially entitled to the whole estate died intestate, be entitled to his estate;

(c) under Rule 63 to the attorney of a person entitled to a grant;

(d) under Rule 64 for the use and benefit of a minor;

(e) under Rule 66 for the use and benefit of a person who by reason of mental or physical incapacity is incapable of managing his affairs;

(f) to an applicant who appears to the Judge to be resident elsewhere than in the State; or

(g) except where the Judge considers that there are special circumstances making it desirable to require a guarantee.

(2) Notwithstanding that it is proposed to make a grant as aforesaid, a guarantee shall not be required, except in circumstances, on an application for administration where the applicant or one of the applicants is Administrator-General or a trust corporation.

(3) Every guarantee entered into by a surety for the purpose of this Order shall be in Probate Form 1 with such variations as circumstances may require.

(4) Except where the surety is a corporation, the signature of the surety on every such guarantee shall be attested by an authorized officer, Commissioner for Oaths or other person authorized by law to administer an oath.

(5) Unless the Registrar otherwise directs

(a) if it is decided to require a guarantee, it shall be given by two sureties, except where the gross value of the estate does not exceed N250,000.00 (Two hundred and fifty thousand Naira) or a corporation is a proposed surety, and in those cases one will suffice;

(b) no person shall be accepted as a surety unless he is resident in the State;

(c) no officer of the State Judiciary shall be a surety;

(d) the limit of liability of the surety or sureties under a guarantee shall be the gross amount of the estate as sworn on the application for the grant;

(e) every surety other than a corporation, shall justify his eligibility.

(6) Where the proposed surety is a corporation, there shall be filed an affidavit by the proper officer of the corporation to the effect that it has power to act as surety and has executed the guarantee in the manner prescribed by its constitution, and containing sufficient information as to the financial position of the corporation to satisfy the Judge that its assets are sufficient to satisfy all claims which may be made against it under any guarantee which it has given or is likely to give.

36. Assignment of bond

The Judge may on being satisfied that the condition of the bond has been broken, assign to some person, and that person may thereupon sue on the bond in his own name as if it had been originally given to him instead of the Judge, and may recover thereupon, as trustee for persons interested, the full amount recoverable in respect of any breach of the bond.

37. Administration summons

Any person claiming to be a creditor or legatee or next of kin or one of the next of kin of a deceased, may apply for and obtain a summons from the Court requiring the executor or administrator, as the case may be, of the deceased to attend the Court and show cause why an order for the administration of the property of the deceased should not be made.

38. Order of administration

(1) On proof of service of the summons or on appearance of the executor or administrator, and on proof of all such other things as the Judge may direct, the Judge may, if he deems fit, make an order for administration of the property of the deceased.

(2) The Judge may make or refuse any such order or give any special directions in respect of the carriage or execution of it and where there are applications for such an order by two or more different persons or class of persons, to grant the same to such one or more of the plaintiffs or classes of the plaintiffs, as the Judge deems fit.

(3) Where the Judge deems fit the carriage of the order may subsequently be given to such person, and on such terms, as he may direct.

39. Order relating to property

Where the Judge makes such an order or at any time afterward, he may, if he deems it fit, make any further or other order which may appear requisite to secure the proper collection, recovery for safe keeping and disposal of the property or any part thereof.

40. Administration may be granted to officer

In case of intestacy, where the special circumstances of the case require, the Judge may, if he deems fit on the application of any person having interest in the estate of the deceased or of his own motion, grant Letters of Administration to an officer of the Court, to a Consular Officer or to a person in the service of the Government.

41. Officer to act under the direction of Judge

(1) The officer or person so appointed shall act under the direction of the Judge, and under shall be indemnified thereby.

(2) The Judge shall require and compel him to file in the Court account of his administration at intervals not exceeding 12 months.

42. Court may appoint person to be administrator

Where a person has died intestate as to his personal estate or leaving a Will affecting personal estate, but without having appointed an executor thereof willing and competent to take probate or where he executor shall, at the time of the death of such person, be resident out of the jurisdiction, and it shall appear to the Court to be necessary or convenient in any such case to appoint some person as administrator of the estate of the deceased or any part thereof, the Judge may appoint such person as he shall deem fit, to be such administrator upon his giving such security, if any as the Judge shall direct, and every such administrator may be limited as the Judge shall deem fit.

43. Remuneration of administrators

The Judge may direct that any administrator (with or without the Will annexed) shall receive out of the personal and real estate of the deceased such reasonable remuneration as he shall deem fit not exceeding 10% per centum on the amount of the realized property, or, when not converted into money, on the value of the property duly administered and accounted for by him:

Provided that where the Judge is satisfied that by reason of exceptional circumstances the administration of the property has required an extraordinary amount of labour to be bestowed on it, he may allow, in respect of such property, a higher rate of remuneration.

44. Securing and collection of estate

Where any citizen of any foreign country dies within the jurisdiction without leaving within the jurisdiction a widower, widow or next of kin, the Probate Registrar shall collect and secure all the moneys and other property belonging to the deceased, and shall then inform the nearest Consular Officer of such country of the death, and transmit to him a list of the money and property of the deceased.

45. Application by Consular Officer or person authorized by him to administer estate

Application may be made to the Court by any such Consular Officer or by any person authorized by him in writing and under the consular seal, by leave to administer the estate of the deceased, and the Judge may make such order as to security for payment of debts and method of administration as the Judge shall deem fit, and vary such order when and so often it is expedient.

46. Accounts to be filed

(1) Every person to whom a grant of Probate or Letters of Administration shall have been made, and every administrator appointed by the Judge shall, file in Court the accounts of his administration every 12 months from the date of the grant or the appointment until the completion of the administration.

(2) Any such executor or administrator who fails to file his accounts within the prescribed period as aforesaid shall be liable to a penalty of N 100.00 (One Hundred Naira) for every day of default. Non payment shall be enforceable by distress, and failing sufficient distress, by imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

(3) When an account is filed in Court under this rule, the Judge shall scrutinise such account and if it appears to the Judge that by reason of improper, unvouched or unjustifiable entries or otherwise such account is not a full and proper account, the Judge shall require the person filing the account to remedy such defects as there may be within such time as the Judge deems reasonable for the purpose; and on failure to remedy such defects within such time, the person who filed such defective account shall be deemed to have failed to file an account within the meaning of this rule and proceedings may be taken against such person accordingly.

(4) The Registrar shall bring to the notice of the Judge the fact that any executor or administrator has failed to file his account as required by this rule.

(5) The Judge may, on the motion of any party interested, or suo motu, summon any executor or administrator failing as aforesaid, to show cause why he should not be punished.

(6) The Judge may for good cause shown extend the time for such filing of account.

(7) Any executor or administrator who has been granted an extension of time to file such accounts and who fails within such extended time to file such accounts shall be held to penalty set out above, and the procedure for bringing him before the Court shall be as set out above.

(8) The accounts shall be open to the inspection of any person who satisfies the Registrar that he is interested in the administration.

(9) In this rule, the word "accounts" shall mean and include an inventory, an account of the administration, the vouchers in the hands of the executor or administrator relating thereto and an affidavit in verification.

47. Court may refuse application for review

The Court may refuse to entertain any application under Rule 2 of this Order if it considers that there has been unreasonable delay by the applicant in making the application.

48. Grant to be signed by Probate Registrar

The grant of Letters of Administration under this Order shall be signed by the Probate Registrar on behalf of the Court.

II. Probate (Non-contentious) procedure

49. Application

In this Part, Rules 1,4,5,6,7,11,12,14, 15,16,17,19,26,27,28,29,30,31,71(1), and 72(1) or (4) of this Order shall also apply.

50. Application for grants through Legal Practitioners

Every Legal Practitioner through whom an application for a grant is made shall give the address of his place of business within the jurisdiction.

51. Personal applications

(2) A personal applicant may not apply through agent, whether paid or unpaid, and may not be represented by any person acting or appearing to act as his adviser.

- (3) No personal application shall be received or proceeded with if
- (a) it becomes necessary to bring the matter before the Court by motion or by action;
 - (b) an application has already been made by a Legal Practitioner on behalf of the applicant and has not been withdrawn;
 - (c) the Judge otherwise directs.
- (4) After a Will has been deposited in the Registry by a personal applicant, it may not be delivered to the applicant or to any other person unless in special circumstances the Judge so directs.
- (5) A personal applicant shall produce a certificate of the death of the deceased or such other evidence of the death as the Judge may approve.
- (6) A personal applicant shall supply all information necessary to enable the papers leading to the grant to be prepared in the Registry or may himself prepare such papers and lodge them unsworn.
- (7) Unless the Judge otherwise directs, every oath, affidavit or guarantee required of a personal application shall be sworn or executed by all the deponents or sureties before an authorized officer.

52. Duty of Registrar on receiving application for grant

- (1) The Judge shall not allow any grant Registrar to issue until all inquiries which he may deem fit to make have been answered to his satisfaction.
- (2) The Judge may require proof of the identity of the deceased or of the applicant for the grant beyond those contained in the oath.
- (3) No grant of probate or of administration with the Will annexed shall issue within 3 months of the death of the deceased; and no grant of administration (not with the Will annexed) shall issue within 3 months of such death.

53. Oath in support of grant

- (1) Every application for grant shall be supported by an oath in form applicable to the circumstances of the case, which shall be contained in an affidavit sworn by the applicant and by such other papers as the Judge may require.
- (2) Unless otherwise directed by the Judge, the oath shall state where the deceased was domiciled at the time of death.

54. Grant in additional name

Where it is necessary to describe the deceased in a grant by some name in addition to his true name, the applicant shall state in the oath the true name of the deceased and shall depose that some part of the estate, specifying it, was held in the other name; or as to any other reason that there may be for inclusion of the other name in the grant.

55. Engrossment for purpose of record

(1) Where the Judge considers that in any particular case a photocopy of the original Will would not be satisfactory for the purposes of record, he may require that an engrossment suitable for photo reproduction be lodged.

(2) Where a Will contains alterations which are not admissible to proof, there shall be lodged an engrossment of the Will in the form in which it is to be proved.

(3) Any engrossment lodged under this rule shall reproduce the punctuation, spacing and division into paragraphs of the Will and, if it is one to which sub rule (2) of the rule applies, it shall be made book wise on durable paper following continuously from page to page.

(4) Where any pencil writing appears on a Will, there shall be lodged a copy of the Will or of the pages or sheets containing the pencil writing in which there shall be under lined in red ink those portions which appear in pencil in the original.

56. Grant to attesting witnesses etc

Where a gift to any person fails by reason of the fact that he is an attesting witness or the spouse of an attesting witness, such person shall not have any right to a grant as a beneficiary named in the Will, without prejudice to his right to a grant in any other capacity.

57. Right of assignee to a grant

(1) Where all the persons entitled to the estate of the deceased under a Will have assigned their whole interest in the estate to one or more persons, the assignee or assignees shall replace in order of priority for a grant of probate the assignor or if there are two or more, assignors, the assignors with the highest priority, in the absence of a proving executor.
