be, a copy of any case stated to which this Rule applies, Any other person who is entitled as of right to appear, and any person who may appear by leave of the Court, may obtain a copy of the case stated from the Registrar of the lower court on payment of such fee as may be prescribed.

PART 2 -CIVIL APPEALS

ORDER 6-NOTICE AND GROUNDS OF CIVIL APPEALS

1. Part 2 of this Rule shall apply to appeals to the Court from any court or tribunal acting either in its original or its appellate jurisdiction in civil cases, and to matters related thereto.

2.-(1) All appeals shall be by way of rehearing and shall be brought by notice (hereinafter called "the notice of appeal") to be filed in the registry of the court below which shall set forth the grounds of appeal stating whether the whole or part only of the decision of the court below is complained of (in the latter case specifying such part) and shall state also the exact nature of the relief sought and the names and addresses of all parties directly affected by the appeal, which shall be accompanied by a sufficient number of copies for service on all such parties; and it shall also have endorsed on it an address for service.

(2) Where a ground of appeal alleges misdirection or error in law, the particulars and the nature of the misdirection or error shall be clearly stated.

(3) The notice of appeal shall set forth concisely and under distinct heads the grounds upon which the Appellant intends to rely at the hearing of the appeal without any argument or narrative and shall be numbered consecutively.

3. Any ground which is vague or general in terms or which discloses no reasonable ground of appeal shall not be permitted, save the general ground that the judgment is against the weight of the evidence, and ground or appeal or any part thereof which is not permitted under this Rule may be struck out by the Court of its own motion or on application by the Respondent.

4. The Appellant shall not without the leave of the Court urge to be heard in support of any ground of appeal not mentioned in the notice of appeal, but the Court may in its discretion allow the Appellant to amend the grounds of appeal upon payment of the fees prescribed for making such amendment and upon such terms as the Court may deem just.

5. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions the Court in deciding the appeal shall not be confined to the grounds set forth by the Appellant; Provided that the Court shall not if it allows the appeal, rest its decision on any ground not set forth by the Appellant unless the Respondent has had sufficient opportunity of contesting the case on that ground.

6. The Court shall have the power to strike out a notice of appeal when an appeal is not competent or for any other sufficient reason.

7. The registrar of the court below shall endorse on the notice of appeal or application the fees paid thereon, receipt number and the date of payment.

8. The registrar of the court below shall after the notice of appeal has been filed, cause to be served a true copy thereof upon each of the parties mentioned in the notice of appeal but it shall not be necessary to serve any party not directly affected;

Provided that the Court may, of its own motion, or on the application of any person claiming to be affected, direct notice to be served on all or any parties to the action or other proceeding or upon any person not a party and in the meantime may postpone or adjourn the hearing of the appeal upon such terms as may be just and make such order(s) as might have been made if the persons served with such notice had been originally parties to the appeal.

9. Notwithstanding anything in Order 2, where in any proceeding in the court below a party has given an address for service, notice of appeal from any decision made under such proceeding may be served on such party at such address for service, and notice of any application preparatory or incidental to any such appeal, may be served in like manner at any time before the date on which the Respondent gives notice of his address for service in accordance with the immediately following Rule.

10.-(1) Every person who by virtue of service on him of a notice of appeal becomes a Respondent to any appeal or intended appeal shall within thirty days after service on him of the notice of appeal file twenty copies with the registrar of the court below notice of a full and sufficient address for service in such number of copies as the said registrar shall require. The registrar of the court below shall forthwith send a copy of the notice of address to the Registrar and shall cause a copy thereof to be served on the Appellant.

(2)Such notice may be signed by the Respondent or his Legal Representative.

(3) If any Respondent fails or omits to file such notice of address for service it shall not be necessary to serve on him any other proceeding in the appeal or any notice of hearing thereof.

11. Any party to an appeal or intended appeal may change his address for service at any time, by filing and serving on all other parties to the appeal or intended appeal notice of such change.

12. The Court may in any case direct that the notice of appeal be served on any party to the proceedings in the court below on whom it has not been served, or on any person not party to those proceedings.

13. In any case in which the Court directs that the notice of appeal shall be served on any party or person, the Court may also direct that any Respondent's notice shall be served on him.

14. The Court may in any appeal where it gives n direction under Rule 12 and 13 of this Order-

(a) postpone or adjourn hearing of the appeal for such period and on such terms as may be just; and

(b) give such judgment and make such order on the appeal as might have been given or made if the persons served in pursuance of the direction had originally been parties.

15. A notice of appeal may be amended by or with the leave of the Court at any time.

ORDER 7-APPLICATIONS TO COURT

1. Every application to the Court shall be by notice of motion supported by affidavit and shall state the Rule under which it is brought and the ground for the relief sought.

2. Any application to the Court for leave to appeal (other than an application made after the expiration of the time for appealing) shall be by notice of motion, which shall be served on the party or parties, affected.

3. Where an application has been refused by the court below, an application for a similar purpose may be made to the Court within fifteen days after the date of the refusal.

4. Wherever under these Rules an application may be made either to the court below or to the Court it shall not be made in the first instance to the Court except where there are special circumstances which make it imposed or impracticable to apply to the court below.

5. If leave to appeal is granted by the Court or by the court below, the Appellant shall file a notice of appeal within the time prescribed by Section 24 of the Court or Appeal Act, 2004.

6. Where an application for leave to appeal from a decision of the court below has been brought within the time specified by section 24 of the Court of Appeal Act but has not been heard within that period, the Court, if satisfied that there has not been an unreasonable delay in bringing the application, may extend time to appeal and in proper case grant leave to appeal.

7. The application for leave to appeal from a decision of a lower court shall contain copies of the following items, namely-

(a) notice of motion for leave to appeal (Form 5);

(b) a certified true copy of the decision of the court below sought to be appealed against;

(c) a copy of the proposed grounds of appeal; and

(d) where leave has been refused by the lower court, a copy of the order refusing leave.

8. Upon the service of any application on the Respondent, he may within seven days file a notice of intention not to contest the application and upon such notice the application may be heard by the Justices in chambers without oral argument. .

9. Except with the leave of the Court, a maximum of thirty minutes on each side will be allowed for oral argument on any application.

10.-(1) The Court may enlarge the time provided by these Rules for the doing of anything to which these Rules apply except the filing of notice of intention not to contest an application under Rule 8 above.

(2) Every application for an enlargement of time within which to appeal, shall be supported by an affidavit setting forth good and substantial reasons for failure to appeal within the prescribed period, and by grounds of appeal which prima facie show good cause why the appeal should be heard. When time is so enlarged a copy of the order granting such enlargement shall be annexed to the notice of appeal.

11., An appeal shall be deemed to have been brought when the notice of appeal has been filed in the registry of the court below.

ORDER 8-COMPILATION AND TRANSMISSION OF RECORDS

1. The registrar of the court below shall within sixty days after the filing of a notice of appeal compile and transmit the Record of Appeal to the Court.

2. In pursuit of Rule 1 above, the registrar shall within a reasonable time summon the parties before him to-

(a) settle the documents to be included in the Record of Appeal; and

(b) fix the amount to be deposited by the Appellant to cover the estimated cost of making up and forwarding the Record of Appeal.

3. The said registrar shall whether any of the parties attention not provided the notice has been duly served on the parties to the appeal, proceed to settle and determine those matters in accordance with the provisions of Rules 2 (a) & (b) of this Order.

4. Where at the expiration of 60 days after the filing of the notice of appeal the registrar has failed and or neglected to compile and transmit the Records of Appeal in accordance with the preceding provisions of this Rule, it shall become mandatory for the Appellant to compile the records of all documents and exhibits necessary for his appeal and transmit to the Court within 30 days after the registrar's failure or neglect.

5. Such Record compiled by the Appellant, shall be served on the Respondent or Respondents within the time stipulated for transmitting such records to the Court, which is 30 days.

6. Where the Respondent considers that there are additional record which may be necessary in disposing of the appeal, he shall be at liberty. within 15 days of the service on him of the records, to compile and transmit to the Court such records to be known as the additional records of appeal.

7. Every Record of Appeal shall contain the following documents in the order set out:

(a) the index:

(b) a statement giving brief particulars of the case and including a schedule of the fees paid;

(c) copies of the documents settled and compiled for inclusion in the record of appeal;

(d) a copy of the notice of appeal and other relevant document filed in connection with the appeal.

8. The Registrar or the Appellant in compiling the record shall endeavor to exclude from the record all documents (more particularly such as are merely formal) that are not relevant to the subject matter of the appeal and generally to reduce the bulk of the record as far as practicable, taking special care to avoid duplications of documents and unnecessary repetition of headings and other merely formal parts of documents; but the documents omitted to be copied shall be enumerated in a list at the end of the record, but where part or parts only of any lengthy document are directly relevant to the subject matter of the appeal it shall be permissible to omit to copy such part of the document as are irrelevant to the subject matter of the appeal nor necessary for the proper understanding of the part or parts that are so relevant.

9. Every record or additional Record of Appeal compiled by a party to an appeal must be certified by the registrar of the lower court. Provided that it shall not be necessary for copies of individual documents to be separately certified but the registrar of the court below shall certify as correct each copy of the record transmitted in accordance with these Rules.

10.-(1) Where the record is compiled by the registrar under Rule 1 of this Order, he shall transmit the record within the time stipulated for compilation and transmission under Rule 1. The record shall be transmitted together with-

(a) a certificate of service of the notice of appeal;

(b) twenty copies of the record.

(c) the docket or file of the case in the court below containing all papers or documents filed by the parties in connection therewith, to the Registrar of the Court.

(2) Where the record is compiled by the Appellant under Rule 4 of this Order, he shall transmit the record within the time stipulated for compilation and transmission by an Appellant under Rule 4. The record shall be transmitted in compliance with Rule 10(1),

(3) The registrar of the court below or the Appellant as the case may be shall also cause to be served on all parties mentioned in the notice of appeal, a notice that the record has been forwarded to the Registrar of the Court who shall in due course enter the appeal in the cause list.

11.- Upon the transmission Record of Appeal, whether by the registrar or by the Appellant, the Appellant shall within such time as the Registrar of the Court shall direct, deposit such sum as shall be determined by the Registrar for the due prosecution of the appeal and for the payment of any costs which may be ordered to be paid by the Appellant ; Provided that no deposit shall be required where the deposit would be payable by the Government of the Federal Republic of Nigeria or of a State, or by any Government department.

(b) Where the sum deposited in accordance with the preceding sub-rule is depleted in the course of the prosecution of the appeal, the Registrar shall summon the Appellant to replenish the deposit.

12.-(a) Where the Registrar fails to direct any deposit against costs or where the sum he directed is inadequate or for any other reason the court upon application may order that deposit or additional deposit be made.

(b) Where the Court deems appropriate, it may upon application order deposit against cost to be made by a Respondent.

13. Subject as hereinafter provided, each party shall, immediately after an appeal becomes pending before the Court, deliver to the Court, all documents (being exhibits in the case or 'which were tendered as exhibits and rejected) which are in his custody or were produced or put in by him at the trial.

14. Subject as hereinafter provided, each party to an appeal shall be prepared to produce at the hearing of the appeal all exhibits, other shall documents, which are in his custody or were produced or put in by him at the trial.

15. In case any party finds it difficult to comply with the provisions of Rules 13 and 14 of this Order, owing to the nature of documents or other exhibit or owing to its being in the possession of a third party or for any other reason; he may apply to the Registrar of the Court for directions.

16. The Registrar of the Court may either of his own motion or application, give any directions he sees fit, whether dispensing with the provisions of Rules 13 and 14 or modifying its application in any way or for securing compliance with it.

17. All original documents delivered to the Court under this Rule shall remain in the custody of the Court until the determination of the appeal; Provided that the Court or Registrar may allow the return of any document to any party pending hearing of the appeal and subject to such conditions as it or he may impose.

18. If the registrar has failed to compile and transmit the Records under Rule 1 and the Appellant has also failed to compile and transmit the Records in accordance with Rule 4, the Respondent may by notice of motion move the Court to dismiss the appeal.

19. Where an appeal has been dismissed under Rule 18 of this Order Respondent who has given notice under Order 9 may give notice or appeal and the provisions of Order II Rule 6 shall apply as if the appeal were brought under that Rule.

20. An Appellant whose appeal has been dismissed under this Rule may apply by notice of motion that this appeal be restored and any such application may be made to the Court, who may in its discretion for good and sufficient cause order that such appeal be restored upon such terms as it may think, fit.

ORDER 9- RESPONDENTS NOTICE OF CONTENTION

-1. A Respondent who not having appealed from the decision of the court below, desires to contend on the appeal that the decision of that court should be varied, either in any event or in the event of the appeal being allowed in whole or in part, must give notice to that effect, specifying the grounds of that contention and the precise form of the order which he proposes to ask the Court to make, or to make in that event, as the case may be.

2. A Respondent who desires to contend on the appeal that the decision of the court below should be affirmed on grounds, other than those relied upon by that court, must give notice to that effect specifying the grounds of that contention.

3. Except with the leave of the Court, a Respondent shall not be entitled on the hearing of the appeal to contend that the decision of the court below should be varied upon grounds not specified in a notice given under this Rule, to apply for any relief not so specified or to support the decision of the court below upon any grounds not relied upon by that court or specified in such a notice,

4. Any notice given by a Respondent under this Order must be served on the Appellant and on all parties to the proceedings in the court below who are directly affected by the contentions of the Respondent and must be served-

(a) in the case of an appeal against an interlocutory order, within fifteen days after the service of the notice of appeal on the Respondent; and

(b) in any other case within thirty days, after the service of the notice of appeal on the Respondent.

5. A party by whom a Respondent's notice is given shall file with the registry twenty copies of such notice of which one shall be included in the record and the other copies provided for the use of the Justices.

6. Omission to give such notice shall not diminish any powers of the Court but may in the discretion of the Court be a ground for postponement or adjournment of the appeal upon such terms as to cost or otherwise as may be just.

7. A Respondent's notice may be amended by or with the leave of the Court at any time.

ORDER 10- NOTICE OF PRELIMINARY OBJECTION

1. A Respondent intending to rely upon a preliminary objection to the hearing of the appeal shall give the Appellant three clear days notice thereof before the hearing, setting out the grounds of objection, and shall file such notice together with twenty copies thereof with the registry within the same time.

2. No objection shall be taken to the hearing of an appeal on the ground that the mounts fixed by the Registrar of the court below under Order 8 Rule 2(b) of these Rules were incorrectly assessed.

3. If the Respondent fails to comply with this Rule, the Court may refuse to entertain the objection or may adjourn the hearing thereof at the costs or the Respondent or may make such other order as it thinks fit.

ORDER 11- WITHDRAWAL OF APPEAL

1. An Appellant may at any time before the appeal is called on for hearing, serve on the parties to the appeal and file with the Registrar, a notice to the effect that he does not intend to prosecute the appeal any further.

2. If all parties to the appeal consent to the withdrawal of the appeal without an order of the Court, the Appellant may file in the Registry the document or documents signifying such consent and signed by the parties or by their Legal Representatives and the appeal shall thereupon be deemed to have been withdrawn and shall be struck out of the list of appeals by the Registrar and in such event any sum deposited against costs shall be paid out to the Appellant.

3. The withdrawal of an appeal with the consent of the parties under Rule 2 of this Order shall be a bar to further proceedings on application made by the Respondent under Order 9.

4. If all the parties do not consent to withdrawal of an appeal as aforesaid, the appeal shall remain on the list, and shall come on for the hearing of any issue as to costs or otherwise remaining outstanding between the parties, including any application made by the Respondent under Order 9, and for the making of an order as to the disposal of any sum deposited against cost.

5. An appeal which has been withdrawn under this Order, whether with or without an order of the Court, shall be deemed to have been dismissed.

6. Where an appeal is withdrawn under this Order, any Respondent who has not given a notice under

Order 9 may give notice of appeal and proceed therewith in the manner prescribed by the foregoing Rules, and in such case the time limited for giving notice of appeal, for depositing the sum estimated to cover the cost of the record and for making deposit against may, on application to the Court, be extended so far as is reasonably necessary in all the circumstances of the case.

ORDER 12-FEES

1. Save as hereinafter provided, the fees prescribed in the Third Schedule hereto shall be charged in respect of the matters which they are respectively assigned and shall be paid to the Registry of the court below or of the Court as the case may be.

2. No fee shall be payable in respect of any matter where such fee would be payable by the Government of the Federal Republic of Nigeria or of a State or any Government Department:

Provided that when any person is ordered to pay the costs of the Government of the Federal Republic of Nigeria or of a State or of any Government Department in any case all fees which would have been payable but for the provisions of this Rule shall be taken as having been paid and shall be recoverable from such person.

3. The court below or the Court may, on account of the want of means of any party (although such party may not have been formally permitted to proceed as a person without means under Order 13) or for other sufficient reason dispense; if it seems fit, with payment of any fees if the circumstances of the case

so require: Provided that if such party succeeds in any appeal which results in an order for payment to him of any costs the Court may order that such fees shall be a first charge on any money recovered or to be recovered under such order.

ORDER 13-PROCEEDINGS BY PERSONS WITHOUT MEANS

1. Any party may apply to the Court for leave to prosecute or defend an appeal as a person without means. Such application shall be by notice of motion, supported by affidavit, and shall be served on the other parties to the proceedings. No fee shall be payable on filing any such order.

2. No party shall be permitted to proceed as a person without means unless he satisfies the Court that he has reasonable probability of success.

3. A person permitted to proceed as a person without means shall not be liable to pay any of the Court fees prescribed by these Rules or be required to make the deposit against costs as prescribed by Order 8 Rule 11.

4. The Court may for good cause shown review, rescind or vary in order permitting any person to proceed as a person without means.

5.-(1) Leave to proceed as a person without means shall not exempt such person from liability to an order for costs in favour of his opponent.

(2) Where a person without means is not awarded costs in the proceedings, no fees shall be taken from him by a Legal Representative assigned to him.

(3) Where a person without means is awarded costs against his opponent he shall be entitled to include and receive in such costs the fees of any Legal Representative assigned to him and all other fees and costs remitted by his admission to proceed as a person without means.

ORDER 14-SERVICE OF RECORD OF APPEAL TO THE SUPREME COURT

1. Where there is a further appeal to the Supreme Court, the Registrar shall as soon as possible after the compilation of the Record of Appeal serve upon every Appellant who was duly given a notice of appeal and paid the fees fixed by the Registrar to cover the cost of record of appeal, a copy of the record.

2. Such Record of Appeal may be served upon the Appellant in any manner prescribed by these Rules for the service of notice or other documents relating to the appeal.

3. The Registrar shall thereafter cause to be served upon every Respondent in the appeal who has filed an address for service a notice that the record has been compiled. It shall be the duty of each Respondent for and collect a copy of the Record.

4.-(1) Within fourteen days after a Record has been served upon an Appellant, the Registrar shall certify under hand that he served the Record or Appeal upon every such Appellant. The certificate of service shall be in Form 14, or to like effect.

(2) In addition to the requirements of Order 7 Rule 4 of the Supreme Court Rules, 1985, the Registrar shall as soon as the record and notice of compilation of the Record of Appeal to the Supreme Court have been served on the Appellant and the Respondent, as the case may be, transmit to the Supreme Court-

(a) a certificate that a copy of the Record of Appeal to the Supreme Court has been served on the Appellant(s); and

(b) a certificate that notice of compilation of the Record of Appeal to the Supreme Court has been given to the Respondent(s), (Form 14B)

ORDER 15- DEATH OF PARTY TO AN APPEAL

1. It shall be the duty of Counsel representing a party to an appeal to give immediate notice of the death of that party, to the registrar of the court below or to the Registrar of the Court (as the case may require) and to all other parties affected by the appeal as soon as he becomes aware of the fact.

2. Where it is necessary to add or substitute a new party for the deceased, an application shall, subject to the provisions of Order 4 Rule 10, be made in that behalf to the court below or to the Court either by any existing party to the appeal or by any person who wishes to be added or substituted.

2. Where an appeal has been set down for hearing and the Court is or becomes aware that a necessary party to the appeal is dead the appeal shall be struck off the hearing list.

ORDER 16-COURT OF APPEAL MEDIATION PROGRAMME

1.-(1) At any time before an appeal is set down for hearing, the Court may in appropriate circumstances upon the request of any of the parties refer the appeal to the Court of Appeal Mediation Programme (CAMP); provided that such appeal is of a purely civil nature and relates to liquidated money demand, matrimonial causes, child custody or such other matter as may be mutually agreed by the parties. ,

(2) The request for Alternative Dispute Resolution shall be made in Form 15 in the first schedule to these Rules.

2. When the Court refers an appeal to the Court of Appeal Mediation Programme, the appeal shall be adjourned to a definite date for the outcome of the mediation between the parties.

3. Without prejudice to the provisions of the foregoing, the parties shall-

(a) be at liberty, at any time during the course of the hearing of an appeal, to explore' mediation or any other Alternative Dispute Resolution mechanism as considered appropriate in the circumstance towards' the resolution of their dispute;

(b) take joint responsibility for all administrative, including mediation or arbitration fees associated with the resolution of the dispute: Provided always that such fees shall be equally shared between the parties unless otherwise agreed by the parties or directed by the Court;

(c) co-operate and give due regard to the Court of Appeal Mediation Programme at all times.

4. Where any of the Alternative Dispute Resolution mechanism adopted is successful, the Court shall adopt the agreement reached by the parties as the judgment of the Court, but where such Alternative Dispute Resolution mechanism fails, the appeal shall be set down for hearing.

PART 3

ORDER 17-CRIMINAL APPEALS

1. This Order shall apply to appeals to the Court from any court or tribunal acting either in its original or in its appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases other than a court-martial, and to matters related thereto.

2. Except where otherwise provided in these Rules any application to the Court may be made by the Appellant or Respondent or by legal Representative on his behalf orally or in writing, but in regard to such applications if the Appellant is unrepresented and in custody and is not entitled or has not obtained leave to be present before the Court, he shall make any such application by forwarding the same in writing to the Registrar who take the appropriate steps to obtain the decision of the Court thereon,

3.-(1) A person desiring to appeal to the Court against any judgment, sentence or order of the court below, whether in the exercise of its original or of its appellate jurisdiction, shall commence his appeal by sending to the registrar of the court below a notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal or notice of application for extension of time within which such notice shall be given, as the case may be, in the form of such notice respectively set forth as forms 1,2, 4, 5 or 7 in the Second Schedule to these Rules.

(2) A person sending any notice of notices under this Rule shall answer the questions and comply with the requirements set forth therein.

(3) The Court may of its own motion or on the application of the Appellant amend the notice or grounds of appeal and may grant leave to the point to argue additional or amended grounds of appeal: Provided that, if, in the opinion of the Court, due notice of such amended or additional grounds of appeal to the Respondent is necessary but had not been given the Court may adjourn the appeal or make such order(s) as it may deem fit in the circumstance,

4.-(1) Every notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to leave to appeal or notice of application for extension of time within which such notice shall be Appeal given, shall be signed by the Appellant himself, except under the provision of sub-rules (5) and (6) of this Rule.

(2) Any other notice required or authorised to be given shall be in writing and signed by the person giving the same or by his legal representative. All notices required or authorised to be given shall be addressed to the registrar of the court below to be forwarded by him to the Registrar; Provided that, notwithstanding that the provisions of Rules 3(1) and (2) and 4(1) of this Order have not been strictly complied with, the Court may, in the interest of justice and for good and sufficient cause shown, entertain an appeal if satisfied that the Intending appellant has exhibited a clear intention to appeal to the Court against the decision of the lower court.

(3) Any notice or other document which is required or authorised to be given or sent shall be deemed to be duly given or sent if forwarded by registered post addressed to the person to whom such notice or other document is so required or authorised to be given or sent.

(4) Where an Appellant or any other person authorised or required to give or send any notice of appeal or notice of any application is unable to write, he may affix his mark thereto in the presence of a witness who shall attest the same and thereupon such notice shall be deemed to be duly signed by such Appellant.

(5) Where on the trial of a person entitled to appeal it has been contended that he was not responsible according to law for his actions on the ground that he was insane at the time the act was done or the omission made by him or that at the time of the trial he was of unsound mind and consequently incapable of making his defence, any notice required to be given and signed by the Appellant himself may be given and signed by his legal representative.

(6) In the case of a body corporate where any notice or other document is required to be signed by the Appellant himself, it shall be sufficient compliance therewith if such notice or other document assigned by the secretary, clerk, manager or legal representative of such body corporate.

(7) An appeal shall be deemed to have been brought when the notice of appeal has been filed in the registry of the court below.

5. An application to the Court for an extension of time within which notices may be given shall be in Form 7 in the Second Schedule to these Rules. Every person making an application for such extension of time shall send to the registrar of the court below, together with the proper form of such application, a form duly filled up, of notice of appeal, or of notice of application for leave to appeal, appropriate to the ground or grounds upon which he desires to question his conviction or sentence, as the case may be.

6.-(1) Where the Court or the court below has on a notice of application for leave to appeal duly sent and in the form provided under these Rules. given an Appellant leave to appeal, it shall not be necessary for such Appellant to give any notice of appeal but the notice of application for leave to appeal shall in such a case be deemed to be a notice of appeal.

(2) Where an application for leave to appeal has been made to the court below, the registrar of that court shall send to the Registrar of the Court notification of the result of the application in Form 6 in the Second Schedule to these Rules together with the original of the application for leave to appeal and the case shall thereafter be dealt with by the Court.

7.-(1) When—

(a) the registrar of the court below has received a notice of appeal or a notice of application to the court for leave to appeal or for extension of the time within which such notice shall be given; or

(b) the court below has granted leave to appeal, the registrar of the court below shall prepare the Record or Appeal in the manner hereinafter prescribed and forward to the Registrar either seven copies thereof together with, where stencils were used for the production of the record, copies of such stencils duly and carefully preserved, or twenty copies of the record. He shall also forward the original exhibits in the case as far as practicable and any original depositions, information, inquisition, plea, or other documents usually kept by him, or forming part of the record of the court below together with the originals of any recognizances entered into or any other documents filed in connection with the appeal or application.

(2) Subject to the provisions of Rule 9 of this Order, the registrar of the court below shall forward to the Appellant and to the Director of public Prosecutions of the State from which the appeal emanated a copy of the record. Provided that if the Appellant is not in custody a copy of the record shall only be supplied to him on request.

(3) The Court may allow the return of any document to any party pending the hearing of the appeal and subject to such conditions as it may impose

8-(1) The fees set out in the Third Schedule shall be taken and paid upon every appeal under this order.

(2) The Court or the court below may waive in whole or in part the payment of any fees or the making of any deposit.

(3) Fees shall not be payable in appeals in capital cases or where an Appellant is granted legal aid.

9.-(1) The Record of Appeal in appeals or applications relating to appeals from the court below acting in its original jurisdiction in criminal cases shall contain legible typed, stenciled and cyclostyled, or printed, copies of the following items arranged in this order-

(a) the index;

(b) the charge or information;

(c) the Judge's notes of the evidence and minutes of the proceedings provided that if a shorthand note of the hearing has been taken, a copy of the transcript thereof may be included, either in addition to or in substitution of the Judge's notes, as he may direct ;

(d) the judgment or any additional ground or explanation thereof;

(e) the proceedings on or after sentence in so far as not included in the notes of hearing or minutes of proceedings;

(2) It shall not be necessary for the Record of Appeal to contain copies of any recognizances entered into for the purposes of the appeal in the court below or of the appeal or application to the Court, unless the Court or a Judge of the court below shall otherwise direct.

(3) In this Rule "lower court" includes the court of trial and any court, other than the court below which may have heard the matter on appeal.

11.-(1) The Registrar shall, if in relation to any appeal the Court directs him so to do, request the trial Judge to furnish him with a report in writing giving his opinion upon the case generally or upon any point arising upon the case of the Appellant, and the trial Judge shall furnish the same to the Registrar.

(2) The report of the Judge shall be made to the Court and, the Registrar shall on request, furnish a copy thereof to the Appellant and Respondent.

12. When a Registrar request the trial Judge to furnish a report under these Rules, he shall send to such

Judge a copy of the notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal or any other document or information which he shall consider material, or which the Court at any time shall direct him to send or with which such Judge may request to be furnished by the Registrar to enable such Judge to deal in his reports with the Appellant's case generally or with any point arising thereon.

13.-(1) Where the Court or the court below admits an Appellant to bail pending the determination of his appeal on an application by him duly made, such court shall specify the amounts in which the Appellant and his surety or sureties (unless such Court directs that no surety is required) shall be bound by recognizances, and shall direct, if it thinks fit so to do, before whom the recognizances of the Appellant and his surety or sureties (if any) may be taken.

(2) In the event of the court below not making any special order or giving any special directions under this Rule, the recognizances of the Appellant and of his surety or sureties (if any) may be taken before the Registrar.

(3) The recognizances provided for in this Rule shall be in Forms 8 and 9 in this Second Schedule to these Rules.

(4) The registrar of the court below shall forward the recognizances of the Appellant and his surety or sureties to the Registrar.

(5) An Appellant who has been admitted to bail shall be personally present at each and every hearing of his appeal and at the final determination thereof. The Court may in the event of such Appellant not being present at any hearing of his appeal, if it thinks right so to do, decline to consider the appeal, and may proceed summarily to dismiss the same and may issue a warrant for the apprehension of the Appellant in: Form 10 in the Second Schedule Provided that the Court may consider the appeal in his absence, or make such other order as it thinks fit.

(6) When an Appellant is present before the Court, the Court may, on an application, made by any person or, if it thinks right so to do without any application, make an order admitting the Appellant to bail, or revoke or vary any such order previously made, or enlarge from time to time, the recognizances of the Appellant or of his sureties or substitute any other surety for surety previously bound as it thinks right.

(7) At any time after an Appellant has been on bail, the Court or where the Appellant was released on bail by the court below that court may, if satisfied that it is in the interest of justice so to do, revoke the order admitting to bail and issue a warrant in Form 10 In the Second Schedule of these Rules.

14.-(1) Where a person has, on his conviction, been sentenced to payment of a fine, and in default of payment to imprisonment, and such person remains in custody in default of payment of the fine, he shall be deemed, for purposes of appeal, to be a person sentenced to imprisonment.

(2) An Appellant who has been sentenced to payment of a fine, and has paid the same or part thereof in accordance with sentence, shall in the event of his appeal being successful be entitled, subject to any order of the Court to the return of the sum or any part thereof so paid by him.

15. Where, upon, the trial of a person entitled to appeal against his conviction, an order of restitution of any property to any person has been made by the Court, the person in whose favour or against whom the order of restitution has been made, and with the leave of the Court, any other person, shall, on the final hearing by the Court of an appeal against his conviction on which such order of restitution was made, be entitled to be heard by the Court before any order annulling or varying such order of restitution is made .

16. Where the Judge of the court below is of opinion that the title to any property the subject of an order of restitution made on a conviction of a person before him is not in dispute, he, if he is of opinion that such property or a sample portion or facsimile representation thereof is reasonably necessary to be produced for use at the hearing of any appeal shall give such direction to or impose such terms upon the person in whose favour the order of restitution is made, as he shall think right in order to secure the production of such sample, , portion or facsimile representation for use at the hearing of any such appeal.

17. The registrar of the court below shall not issue, under any authorising him so to do, a certificate of conviction of any person convicted in the court below if notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal is given, until the determination or abandonment thereof.

18.-(1) An Appellant at any time after he has duly served notice of appeal or application for leave to appeal, or of application for extension of or time within which such notice shall be given, may abandon his appeal by giving notice of abandonment thereof to the Registrar, and upon such notice being given the appeal shall be deemed to have been dismissed by the Court. Notice of abandonment of an appeal shall be in Criminal Form II or 11 A, as the case may be.

(2) Upon receipt of a notice of abandonment duly completed and signed or marked by the Appellant or the party authorised to sign notice under Rule 4 of this Order, the Registrar shall give notices thereof in Form 12 in the Second Schedule to the Respondent, the prison authority and the registrar of the court below, and in the case of an appeal against a conviction involving a sentence of death. shall in like manner give notice to the Permanent Secretary' to the appropriate Federal or State Ministry, for the information of the authority responsible for advising the President of the Federal Republic of Nigeria or the Governor of a State, as the case may be, on the exercise of the prerogative of mercy, and the Registrar shall also return to the Registrar of the court below any original documents and exhibits received from him.

19. An Appellant who has abandoned his appeal may, in special cases, with the leave of the Court, withdraw his notice of abandonment by duly completing Form 13 or 13A, as the case may be, in the Second Schedule together with Form 7 (Notice of Application for extension of time within which to appeal) and sending them to the Registrar.

20.- (1) Where the Court has ordered any witness to attend and be examined before the Court an order in Form 14 in the Second Schedule hereto before the shall be served upon such witness specifying the time and place at which to attend for such purpose.

(2) Such order may be made on the application at any time of the Appellant or Respondent, but if the Appellant is in custody and not legally represented the application shall be made by him in Form 15 in the Second Schedule.

(3) Where the Court orders the examination of any witness to be conducted otherwise than before the Court itself, such order shall specify the person appointed as examiner to take and the place of taking such examination and the witness or witnesses to be examined thereat.

(4) The Registrar shall furnish to the person appointed to take such examination any documents or exhibits and any other material relating to the said appeal as and when requested to do so. Such document exhibits and other material shall after examination has been concluded be returned by the examiner, together with any deposition taken by him under this Rule to the Registrar. .

(5) When the examiner has appointed the day and time for the examination he shall request the Registrar to give notice thereof to the Appellant and Respondent and their Legal Representatives, if any, and when the Appellant is in prison, to the, prison authority. The Registrar shall cause to be served on every witness to be examined notice in Form 16 in the Second Schedule.

(6) Every witness examined before an Examiner under this Rule shall give his evidence upon oath or affirmation to be administered by such Examiner, except where any such witness if giving evidence as a witness at a trial on information need not be sworn.

(7) The examination of every such witness shall be taken in the form of a deposition and unless otherwise ordered shall be taken in private. The caption in Form 17 in the Second Schedule shall be attached to any such deposition.

(8) Where any witness shall receive an order or notice to attend before the Court or an Examiner, the Registrar may, if it appears to him necessary so to do pay to such witness a reasonable sum for his expenses.

(9) The Appellant and Respondent, or their Legal Representatives, shall, unless the Court otherwise directs, be entitled to be present at and take part in any examination of any witness to which this Rule relates.

21. When an order of reference is made by the Court to a special commissioner, the question to be referred, and the person to whom as special commissioner the same shall be referred, shall be specified in such order. The Court may in such order or by giving directions as and when they from time to time shall think right, specify whether the Appellant or Respondent or any person on their behalf may be present at any examination or investigation or at any stage thereof as may be ordered, and a specify any and what powers of the Court may be delegated to such special commissioner, and may require him from time to time to make interim reports to the Court upon the question referred to him, and may, if the Appellant is in custody, give leave to him to be present at any stage of such examination or investigation and give the necessary directions to the prison authority accordingly, and may give directions to the Registrar that copies of any report made by such special commissioner shall be furnished to the Appellant and Respondent.

22.-(1) On the final determination of any appeal or of any application to the Court, the Registrar shall give to the Appellant, if he be in custody and has not been present at such final determination, and to the Respondent and the prison authority, notice of such determination in Form 18, 19, 20 or 21 in the Second Schedule, as the case may be.

(2) In any case of an appeal in relation to a conviction involving sentence of death, the Registrar shall on receiving notice of appeal, send copies thereof to the Permanent Secretary to the appropriate Federal or State Ministry, for the information of the authority responsible for advising that President or the Governor of a State, as the case may be, on the exercise of the prerogative of mercy, to the Respondent and to the prison authority.

23.-(1) The Registrar at the final determination of an appeal shall notify in such manner as he thinks most convenient to the Registrar of the court below the decision of the Court in relation thereto, and also any orders or directions made or given by the Court in relation to such appeal or any matter connected therewith.

(2) The registrar of the court below shall on receiving notification referred to in this Rule, enter the particulars thereof on the records of such court.

24. Upon the final determination of an appeal for the purposes or which the Registrar has obtained from the registrar of the court below any original depositions, original exhibits, information, inquisition, plea or other documents, usually kept by the said registrar, or forming part of the record of the court below, the Registrar shall, where practicable, cause the same to be returned to the registrar of the court below.

25. Any order given or made by the Court may be enforced by the Court or by the court below as may be most expedient.

26.-(1) Where there is a further appeal to the Supreme Court, the Registrar shall as soon as possible after the compilation of the Record of Appeal serve upon every Appellant who has duly given a notice of appeal and paid the fees fixed by the Registrar to cover the cost of Record of the Appeal, a copy of the record.

(2) The Record of Appeal may be served upon the Appellant in any manner prescribed by these Rules for the service of notice or other documents relating to an appeal.

(3) The Registrar shall thereafter cause to be served upon every Respondent in the appeal who has tiled an address for service a notice that the record has been compiled.

27.-(1) Within fourteen days after a record had been served upon an Appellant the Registrar shall certify under his hand that he has served the Record of appeal upon every such Appellant. The certificate of service shall be in Criminal Form 22, or to like effect.

(2) In addition to the requirements of Order 7 Rule 4 of the Supreme Court Rules, the Registrar shall as soon as the record and notice of compilation of the Record for Appeal to the Supreme Court have been served on the Appellant and the Respondent, as the case may be, transmit to the Supreme Court-

(a) a certificate that a copy of the Record of Appeal to the Supreme Court has been served on the Appellant(s);

(b) a certificate that notice of compilation of the Record of Appeal to the Supreme Court has been given to the Respondent(s).

PART 4

ORDER 18 – BRIEFS OF ARGUMENT

1. This Order shall apply to all appeals coming from any court or tribunal from which an appeal lies to this Court.

2. The Appellant shall within forty-five days of the receipt of the Record of Appeal from the court below file in the Court a written brief, being succinct statement of his argument in the appeal.

3.-(1) The brief, which may be settled by Counsel, shall contain an Forms address or addresses for service and shall contain what are, in the Appellant's view; the issues arising in the appeal as well as amended or additional grounds of appeal.

(2) Where possible or necessary, the reasons in the brief shall also be supported by particulars of the titles, dates and pages of cases reported in the Law Reports or elsewhere including the summary of the decisions in such case, which the parties propose to rely upon. Where it is necessary, reference shall also be made to relevant statutory instruments, law books, and other legal journals.

(3) The parties shall assume that briefs will be read and considered in conjunction with the documents, admitted in evidence as exhibits during the proceedings in the court below, and, wherever necessary, reference shall also be made to all relevant documents or exhibits on which they propose to rely in argument,

(4) All briefs shall be concluded with a numbered summary of the points to be raised and the reasons upon which the argument is founded.

(5) Except to such extent as may be necessary to the development of the argument, briefs need not set out or summarise judgments of the lower court, nor set out statutory provisions, nor contain an account of the proceeding below nor of the facts of the case.

(6) (a) Except where the Court directs otherwise, every brief to be filed in the Court shall not exceed 30

(thirty) pages.

(b) The brief must be prepared in 210mm by 297mm paper size (A4) and typed in clear typographic character. The typeset shall be in Arial Times New Roman or Verdana of 12 point with at least single spaces in between.

(c) Every brief which does not comply with the page limit and page size requirements of this Order shall not be accepted by the Registry for filing.

4. - (1) The Respondent shall also within thirty days of the service of the brief for the Appellant on him file the Respondent's brief which shall be duly endorsed with an address or addresses for service.

(2) The Respondent's brief shall answer all material points of substance contained in the Appellant's brief and contain all points raised therein with the Respondent wishes to concede as well as reasons why the appeal ought to be dismissed. It shall mutandis, also conform to Rule 3(1), (2), (3) (4) and (5) of this Order.

5. The Appellant may also, if necessary, within fourteen days of the Reply service on him of the Respondent's brief, file and serve or cause to be served on the Respondent a reply brief which shall deal with all new points arising from the Respondent's brief.

6. All parties whose interests are identical or joint shall file joint briefs and separate briefs may be filed only by those parties whose interests are separate or are in conflict.

7. A Respondent may, without leave, include arguments in respect of a cross-appeal or a Respondent's notice in his brief for the original appeal and the cross-appeal or Respondent's notice.

8. Twenty copies of all briefs in respect of the appeal shall be filed in Court. All such copies shall be duly endorsed for service on the other side, which shall also be duly paid for by the party filing the same.

9.-(1) Oral argument will be allowed at the hearing of appeal to emphasize and clarify the written argument appearing in the briefs already filed in Court.

(2) The Appellant shall be entitled to open and conclude the argument. Where there is a cross-appeal or a Respondent's notice, the appeal and such cross-appeal or Respondent's notice shall be argued together with the appeal as one case and within the time allotted for one case, and the Court may, having regard to the nature of the appeal, inform the parties which one is to open and close the argument.

(3) Unless otherwise directed, forty minutes on each side will be allowed for argument.

(4) When an appeal is called and the parties have been duly served with the notice of hearing, but if any party or any Legal Practitioner appearing for him does not appear to present oral argument even though briefs have been filed by all the parties concerned in the appeal, the appeal will be treated as having been duly argued.

10. Where an Appellant fails to file his brief within the time provided for in Rule 2 of this Order, or within the time as extended by the Court, the Respondent may apply to the Court for the appeal to be dismissed for want of prosecution. If the Respondent fails to file his brief, he will not be heard in oral argument. Where an Appellant fails to file a reply brief within the time specified in Rule 5, he shall be deemed to have conceded all the new points or issues arising from the Respondent's brief.

11. The Court may, Where it considers the circumstances of an appeal to be exceptional, or where the hearing of an appeal ought to be accelerated in the interest of justice, waive compliance with the provisions of this Order in so far as they relate to the preparation and filing of briefs of argument either wholly or in part or reduce the time limits specified in this Order, to such extent as the Court may deem reasonable in the circumstances of the case.

ORDER 19-JUDGMENT

1. The judgment of the Court shall be pronounced in open court either on the hearing of the appeal or at any subsequent time of which notice shall be given by the Registrar to the parties to the appeal.

2. Whenever a reserved judgment is to be given and the Counsel concerned are duly notified in that behalf the presence of such Counsel or of their juniors is required in Court when judgment is being delivered. Failure to observe this will be regarded as an act of disrespect to the Court.

3.-(1) Every judgment of the Court shall be embodied in an order.

(2) A sealed or certified copy of the order shall be sent by the Registrar to the court below.

(3) Interlocutory order shall be prepared in like manner.

4. The Court shall not review any judgment once given and delivered by it, save to correct any clerical mistake or some error arising from any accidental slip or omission, or to vary the judgment or order so as to give effect to its meaning or intention. A judgment or order shall not be varied when it correctly represents what the Court decided nor shall the operative substantive part of it be varied and a different form substituted. 5. Any judgment given by the Court may be enforced by the Court or by the court below or by any other court, which has been seized of the matter, as the Court may direct.

6. When the Court directs any judgment to be enforced by another court, a certificate under the seal of the Court and the hand of the Presiding Justice setting forth the judgment shall be transmitted by the Registrar to such other court, and the latter shall enforce such judgment in terms of the certificate.

7. Where the costs of an appeal are allowed, they may either be fixed by the Court at the time when the judgment is given or may be ordered to be taxed.

8.-(1) The Registrar at the final determination of an appeal shall notify, in such manner as he thinks most convenient to the registrar of the court below, the decision of the Court in relation thereto, and also any orders or directions made or given by the Court in relation to such appeal or any matter connected therewith.

(2) The registrar of the court below shall on receiving the notification referred to in this Rule, enter the particulars thereof on the records of such court.

9. Upon the final determination of an appeal for the purposes of which the Registrar has obtained, from the registrar of the court below any original depositions, exhibits, information, inquisition, plea or other documents usually kept by the said Registrar, or forming part of the record of the court below, the Registrar, shall, where practicable, cause the same to be returned to the registrar of the court below.

2. No interlocutory judgment or order from which there shall have been no appeal shall operate so as to bar or prejudice the Court from giving such decision upon the appeal as may seem just.

11.-(1) The Court shall have power to give any judgment or make any order that ought to have been made, and to make such further order as the case may require including any orders to costs.

(2) The powers contained in sub-rule (1) of this Rule may be exercised by the Court, notwithstanding that the Appellant may have asked that part only of a decision may be reversed or varied, and may also be exercised in favour of all or any of the Respondent or parties, although such Respondents or parties may not have appealed from or complained of the decision.

ORDER 20- MISCELLANEOUS

1.-(1) Records of Appeal from the Sharia Court of Appeal or the Customary Court of Appeal intended for use in the Court, shall be compiled in English language as well as the language used in the proceedings before the court.

(2) Twenty certified true copies in English and three only in the other language shall be forwarded to the Court.

2. The Court may direct departure from these Rules in anywhere this is required in the interest of justice,

3.-(1) The Court may, in an exceptional circumstance, and where it considers it in the interest of justice

so to do, waive compliance by the parties with these Rules or any part thereof.

(2) Where there is such waiver of compliance with the Rules, the Court may, in such manners it thinks right, direct the Appellant or the Respondent as the case may be, to remedy such non-compliance or may, notwithstanding, order the appeal to proceed or give such directions as it considers necessary in the circumstance.

(3) The Registrar shall forthwith notify the Appellant or the Respondent as the case may be of such order or directions given by the Court under this Rule where the Appellant or the Respondent was not present at the time when such order was made or directions were given,

4. As early as possible before the date set down for hearing of any appeal before the Court and in any event not later than two clear days before such date, all the parties or the Legal Practitioners representing them shall forward to the Registrar a list of the law reports, text books, and other

'authorities which parties or legal practitioners representing them intend to cite at the hearing of the appeal.

5.-(1) An application to strike out or set aside for non-compliance with these Rules, or any other irregularity arising from the Rules of Practice and Procedure in this Court, any proceedings or any document, judgment or order therein shall only be entertained by the Court if it is made within a reasonable time and before the party applying has taken any fresh step after becoming aware of the irregularity.

(2) An application under this Rule may be made by motion on notice and the grounds of objection must be stated therein.

6.-(1) There shall be constituted a body to be known as the Rules of Court Court Advisory Committee comprising of-

(a) Not less than five Justices of the Court one of whom shall be the Chairman; and

(b) Not less than three members of the Bar to be appointed by the President.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Committee to advise the President from time to time in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the Constitution or by or under any law, to make Rules for regulation or making provision with respect to practice and procedure in the Court.

(3) Every member of the Committee shall remain a member thereof for such period as the President may in his discretion prescribe, either at the time of the appointment of the member or at any time thereafter ..

7. The President may at any time, by notice, declare a practice of the Court as practice direction, and whenever the declaration is made, such direction shall be regarded as part of these Rules.
